THE LIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

Sure Proof.
 Magistrate—You are found guilty of knocking down the plaintiff and robbing him of everything except a gold watch.
 Defendant—Did he have a gold watch?
 Magistrate—Yes.
 Defendant—Then I put in a plea of insanity.

Sentential.
 The cost of living's mighty high, There isn't any doubt of that;
 So stinks are things she will not buy Until she has her Easter hat!

A Questionable Complaint.
 She—This is a portrait of my grandmother at 79.
 He—What a strong family resemblance!
 She—It might be taken for you.

As to How.
 The Brute—I think that women are better looking than men.
 She—Naturally.
 The Brute—No, artificially.

Suitor Lacked Devotion.
 "No, Herbert," she said, in a low tone, "it is impossible. I fear to trust my future with you."
 "And why?"
 "I have watched your conduct very closely. It lacks the mark of such devotion as my soul craves."
 "Do I not come to see you four times a week?"
 "Yes, but I have detected a calculating selfishness in your nature which I fear."

What do you mean?
 "You have never yet failed to leave in time to catch the last bus."
 "But that is only common sense."
 "I know it is, Herbert, and therefore it is not love."

Traveller—"See here, I have been waiting three hours in front of this window." Ticket Seller—"That's nothing. I have been behind it for 23 years."

"How is it I haven't seen you in church recently, my dear?"
"Why, Bishop, I haven't been there."
"Widow."

TELLS OF MURDER LUXEMBURG GIRL

Berlin, May 10.—(By The A. P.)—First Lieut. Vogel, suspected of having fired the shot which killed Rosa Luxemburg, the alleged murderer of President Luxemburg and Dr. Karl Liebknecht, the admitted that at the preliminary investigation he gave a false account of the occurrence in order not to discredit his military superior. He testified that he was ordered to convey Rosa Luxemburg to prison, but found this impossible owing to the presence of infuriated crowds which surrounded his motor car.
 "Rosa Luxemburg," he said, "was given two violent blows on the head with the butt of a rifle by helmeted soldiers, she collapsed and when we arrived at the bridge the thought came to us all to throw her body into the river."

Stock for Soldier Settlers

This fine dapple grey horse was purchased by the Soldier Settlement Board for $210 and resold to a soldier settler at Winnipeg for the same money. He is a Percheron gelding, 8 years old, absolutely sound and guaranteed. This is the kind of animal that the Soldier Settlement Board is seeking for the men who go on the farm under its auspices.

Soldiers on the Land

[Ottawa Journal.]
 While there has been some natural disappointment in parts of the western provinces on account of the difficulties in the way of a speedy settlement of returned soldiers on the land, we believe that generally the plans of the Soldier Settlement Board are working out well. During March and April there was a rush of applicants for the loan privileges offered by the Board, and in some cases the western offices were congested; but Mr. Black, chairman of the Board, overcame the difficulty by authorizing his representatives in the west to employ as many temporary land inspectors as were needed to pass upon the farms, for the purchase of which loans were asked.

The number of applicants qualified to go on the land during the past two months in the four western provinces is approximately 5,000. Thousands of returned veterans who have had farming experience eagerly seized upon the opportunity to become land owners under this scheme, thus confounding the false prophets who for political reasons or otherwise have been predicting confusion and failure. and the reluctance on the part of ex-service men to go back to the soil.
 The Soldier Settlement Board has made a genuine effort to devise a workable plan of settlement and put into operation without loss of time.
 It realizes the necessity of increasing the volume of agricultural products and adding to the wealth of the nation. It has also seen and grasped the opportunity to provide future homes for many veterans of the great war, under conditions of settlement which are bound to be productive of very gratifying results.

It is, of course, impossible to settle during the present season, and the seeding season will see a great many men lately home from overseas operating their own farms. Many others are planning to take advantage of the agricultural training feature of the scheme by attending courses at training farms or engaging with selected farmers throughout the west, thus adding to their store of capital and experience. Those who begin their life work in this way will have the summer to look about them, make a choice of the farms upon which they desire to settle, and complete all arrangements for an early commencement of operations next year. This will apply particularly to the soldiers who are only now reaching Canada. Many of them will go on training farms as students, or secure employment with selected farmers who desire to assist in rehabilitating our soldier heroes.
 They will be able to do this because of the generous allowances for subsistence for themselves and their dependents which the Board offers.
 It is promised that considerable

WINNIPEG VOTE FAVORS BIG STRIKE

Winnipeg, May 10.—The heads of the local labor movement report no change in the strike situation. It is estimated that over 3,000 votes had been cast, and while no official returns are made, it is declared on all sides that the vote is overwhelming in favor of a general strike.
 At a meeting of the amalgamated postal workers a vote of 250 to 19 was registered in favor of a sympathetic strike with the building and metal trades.
 The secretary was also instructed to request the general executive to call for a strike vote, also to wire each branch requesting these to do the same in support of their own of last July and amended the Saskatoon gathering. The last named vote is entirely independent of the other or outside concerns, having reference only to amalgamated postal workers' grievances.

IN "DRY" TORONTO.

Arrests for Drunkenness Increased by 114 Last Month.
 Toronto, May 9.—Thurs. Toronto is drinking more booze than for some time past, according to the figures presented to the Board of Police Commissioners by Chief Grassett at their meeting yesterday.
 "According to the returns made up for drunkenness in Toronto during the month of April, it would appear that the tide has turned," stated the chief.
 "There is an increase of 114 for the month of April over the corresponding month of last year. This is slightly above 48 per cent. In April, 1918, the number arrested was 237, and for April, 1919, it was 351." Asked as to the cause of the increase, the chief replied:
 "Better facilities to get liquor. More underground methods—perhaps make it easier to get, despite the high cost of the stuff and fines."

Successful in Connecticut.
 Friends in this vicinity will be pleased to learn of the success attending the work of Rev. D. J. MacDonald, former pastor of the parishes of Mon-serville and Burton, Sanborn county.
 During the summer of 1918 he removed to Waterville, Connecticut, where he became pastor of Old St. Paul's Episcopal church. Shortly after the church was dedicated and used for registration purposes when a draft was called for the United States Army.
 Plans had been prepared and the foundation laid for a new church building to be erected this summer. In the meantime the congregation procured other quarters for holding services.
 A Brotherhood of St. Andrew was organized, and a mission conducted to increase church attendance on Sunday evenings. The mission was under charge of Rev. Carl Tiedemann, O. H.
 C., in January and the attendance of men at these 25 a. m. services was gratifying. The Sunday evening congregation has been increased by more than 100 as a result. A new manse has been built of wood and freestone construction. At Christmas the rector was remembered by his congregation with a handsome sum of money.
 The church is large and influential and friends in his old parishes will be pleased to know that under Rev.
 Mr. MacDonald's charge it is growing still more so.

"Once Bitten, Twice Shy"

Mr. X. Y. Z. had worn "Peabody's" Overalls since 1910.
 Mr. X. Y. Z. had been offered many times the "just as good" brand.
 Mr. X. Y. Z. was satisfied with "Peabody's".
 Mr. X. Y. Z. was emphatic in his refusal to accept a substitute for "Pea-body's".
 Mr. X. Y. Z. was only human and like Adam he weakened—and one day he fell—the "just as good" brand was cheaper—it wasn't an apple this time.
 Mr. X. Y. Z. thought he had practiced economy.
 Mr. X. Y. Z. soon needed another pair of Overalls.
 Mr. X. Y. Z. insisted on the Genuine PEABODY'S UNION MADE OVER-ALLS—he got them from J. H. Fleming, the Haberdasher.

The Thrift Car

BEFORE SELECTING YOUR NEW CAR, COME IN AND INSPECT THE

Overland Model 90

COMMONLY CALLED THE THRIFT CAR.

Examine the car thoroughly—note the front and rear axle, the full length cantilever rear springs, 42 inches long, the full length semi-elliptic front springs, the heavy steering knuckles, the large size brake drums, 17 in. steering wheel.

Compare it with other cars costing hundreds of dollars, more and you will wonder how the Willys-Overland Co. can give you such exceptional value at so little more than the cheap cars.

Don't buy before seeing the Thrift Car. We would be glad to demonstrate for you.
