

THE HERALD

WEDNESDAY, NOV. 26th, 1902. SUBSCRIPTION—$1.00 A YEAR, PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY JAMES MCISAAC, Editor & Proprietor

Mr. DUNSMUIR has retired from the Premiership of British Columbia, and Colonel Prior, who has been a member of the Government for some time has succeeded him in the Leadership.

There are six or seven vacancies in the House of Commons; but the Government instead of bringing on all the elections at once have selected three of these seats, thought to be safe constituencies for the first by-elections.

The Grit convention that met in this city yesterday for the purpose of selecting a candidate to contest the second district of Queen's, seems to have been a very inharmonious conglomeration.

Deep and universal sympathy is expressed for Dr. S. R. Jenkins, in the great loss he has suffered and the sad affliction that has overtaken him while in the pursuit of his noble profession.

Just two weeks from today the by-elections for the Provincial Legislature will be held in the second district of Queen's and the third district of King's.

vince cannot be fairly discussed, for the reason that we have no published statement of the Government's financial transactions for the current fiscal year, now within a few weeks of its close.

About Railway Stations

Nothing has of late been heard about the site for the new railway station for Charlottetown. Has the Minister of Railways returned any answer to the unanimous resolution of the Board of Trade meeting, recommending the site opposite the Hotel Davies as the most suitable and the most convenient for the travelling public?

In this connection it seems proper to refer to the proposed new railway station at Pictou, which has been spoken of for some time, and for which $70,000 was appropriated at the last session of Parliament.

The annual St. Andrew's Dinner under the auspices of the Caledonian Club of P. E. Island, will be held at the Queen Hotel on Monday evening next, Dec. 1st.

Ladies' Gaiters—We have a large line of ladies, misses and children's felt and cloth gaiters. Ladies gaiters from 25c a pair upwards.

over, active politicians of the Grit persuasion and are connected by family ties with Government supporters in the House of Commons. They bring all their influence, and the influence of their family connections in and out of Parliament, to bear on the Minister of Railways, and by means of this political pull they hope to effect a profitable sale of their real estate to the Government, wholly regardless of the great inconvenience and hardship such a transaction may inflict upon the travelling public.

Across Canada.

Montreal, Nov. 23.—Canada is to have a second trans-continental railway, extending from ocean to ocean. The announcement was made to-day by Chas. M. Hays, second vice-president and general manager of the Grand Trunk Railway.

The Grand Trunk will be behind the new road and will operate it, but, as in the case of the Grand Trunk lines west of the Detroit river, will be constructed under a separate corporate name: the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company.

"No one," said Mr. Hays, "who has been studying the wonderful developments that have taken place in the Northwest during the last few years can fail to be deeply impressed with the growth of that extensive and rich territory, and our directors feel that it is of the apparent need of additional railway facilities, and in order to guarantee to the present Grand Trunk system direct connection with that very important and growing section of Canada, the only wise policy is to take active steps towards this extension."

The building of this trans-continental route has been under consideration by the Grand Trunk directors for some time, but it was only during Mr. Hays' recent visit to England that it was decided to carry out the project at as early a date as possible.

Mr. Hays added that the line would probably be in full operation within five years, and that steamship lines on the Pacific would come as a necessary adjunct.—St. John Sun.

The book reading public has been visited by an epidemic of autobiographies, recollections and memoirs of diplomats. Latest among those viewed by the London papers is that of Horace Rumbold, recently British ambassador at Vienna.

As soon as the news reached England, a cabinet council was summoned, and I had it on the same day from Evelyn Ashley that Lord Palmerston, on entering the room where the ministers met in Downing street, threw his hat on the table and at once commenced speaking by addressing his colleagues in the following words: "I don't know if you are going to stand this but I'll be d—d if I do."

The Americans, on their side, did the same to secure support against us, and I was assured on excellent authority that it was a positive fact, General Scott, had been charged in Paris to offer the Emperor Napoleon an American alliance and Canada as the price of his co-operation.—St. John Sun.
