Answering the Cynic.

By RUTH CAMERON.

Some time ago the Wants-To-Be-Cynic took the floor and told women how they could be more efficient about their housework. One thing he complained of was the way in which the average woman rushed from one thing to another.

A most interesting letter in answer to the Cynic has been over-looked in a pigeon-hole. For the sake of the sex it so ably defends, I want to give it even at this late date.

"Yes, Mr. Cynic, we would save time if we didn't rush from one thing to another, but suppose, on her way to the cellar or refrigerator, the doorbell rings, or the telephone, or the delivery boy comes in, is it any wonder if, by the time she has attended to any one or maybe all these demands upon her time and mind, she should have forgotten half of the things she started to get?"

Could a man with the children around him? "Can a man work in any place and have the child or children always around and asking questions? I say no, and write it with a big 'N'."

"You step into a bank or place of business—do you interrupt the cashier or business man? No, indeed; be you in ever so much of a hurry, you must wait until he is at liberty to attend to you. Not so the woman in her kitchen. Her good husband never thinks he is adding to her already overtaxed mind when he says, 'Be sure you take correctly the telephone call from Mr. W.—it's very important.'"

"I say with all reverence—God never permitted to live upon this beautiful earth a more helpless creature than some men are.

What the Minister's Wife Has to Do.

"Let me cite one instance of many we know. I was standing in the vestibule of our church one Sunday morning when the wife of our pastor, a very brilliant man, came in, followed by her three small children. She usually had a quiet and serene face, but she now had an anxious expression as she said: 'I am so ashamed to be late, but we had callers last evening and I failed to do some of the many things I always do Saturday night. Mr. G. never can do one thing Sunday morning. I must lay out all his clothes, see that he takes his Bible and notes, that he has a clean handkerchief in every pocket, that his breakfast is on time, and get it too, get myself and three children ready for church, all under a nervous strain, for it annoys him if we are late.'"

"Was she an inefficient woman?"

"I will let the Cynic answer."

Women Would Make Excellent Train Dispatchers.

"A very good man once said, 'Women would make excellent train dispatchers.' The man to whom he was talking, said, with great astonishment, 'Why?' The first man replied, 'Because they are able to attend to so many things at one time.'"

"What the man who said that died. He was lonesome!"

"I am not asking that men give us the right to vote, but I do ask that they respect our endurance, perseverance and efficiency."

Use "Cascarets" for Liver and Bowels When Constipated.

When bilious, headachy, sick, for sour stomach, bad breath, bad colds.

Get a 10-cent box.

Take a Cascaret to-night to cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have are bilious, nervous, disordered stomach, or have headache and feel all worn out. Are you keeping your bowels clean with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil?

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the bowels.

Remember, a Cascaret to-night will straighten you out by morning. A 10-cent box from your druggist means healthy bowel action; a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

"Here Am I, Send Me"

At a recruiting meeting, held at Harbor Grace last Thursday, this fine response came during Canon Noel's speech, as reported in the "Standard".

Rev. Canon Noel, who surpassed himself in his fatherly, forcible and practical presentation to the assembly, the young fit men in particular, of the great object of the meeting—to gain recruits. He carried the audience with him when he wound up by asking was there no young man present that would do what he would do but for the weight of over 70 years, and would represent him at the front. A prompt response came from the body of the hall when Mr. James Garland arose in his seat and offered to go as the Canon's substitute. "Here am I, send me!" Whereupon there arose a storm of applause, and Mr. Garland was invited to a seat on the platform.

LIGHT, HEAT, COMFORT!

The proprietor of one of the best known multiple shopping systems is credited with saying, "Give me any old shop, in any old street, and I'll guarantee to make it in twelve months the most widely known and best frequented shop in the district." He was asked to explain. Holding up three fingers he said, "I believe in the trinity of LIGHT, WARMTH, COMFORT. I should dazzle the moths until the candle drew them, I should bring them into a warm, comfortable shop, filled with a soft, pleasing radiance, and the rest is—well, more child's play."

Mixed metaphors, perhaps, but expressive. Now we can more than imagine the kind of shop this well-known individual would open, for we pass it in almost every town—always a landmark to the street. No one fails to notice it. There is an indefinable air of welcome and invitation as one stands for a moment on the pathway and lets one's gaze travel inside it. The subdued, restful lighting effect, that so charms because of its very unobtrusiveness, the absence of dark corners, the intangible feeling that if one would step inside one would be sure of experiencing a delicious sense of warmth and comfort and cheerfulness—all these are part of its appeal. Truly a shop with an individuality.

We cordially invite all progressive business men to visit our showroom and see our latest Lighting and Heating Appliances, by the adoption of which the ideal outline in the above extract from a London paper may be easily secured. Our new RADIO X. Lamp and GASTHEAT Radiators fill all light and heat requirements.

"When a man caller brings me a box of candy, should I lay it aside or open it in his presence?" shyly asked Claude.

"By all means you should open it, thank him for his kindness and share the contents with the donor," replied her aunt.
