The Edith Cavell Homes of Rest for Nurses

PATRON, HER MAJESTY QUEEN ALEXANDRA.

The murder of this devoted woman, one of our latter-day saints, is by many people considered the most atrocious act of frightfulness committed by the Germans during the Great War. At any rate, nothing in their many acts of infamy has brought upon them more wholesale condemnation from the entire civilized world.

It is fitting that there should be some personal memorial to Edith Cavell's noble life and heroic death, and it is felt that nothing could more fittingly commemorate these than founding of Homes of Rest for ill or over-worked nurses, which she herself had always hoped to establish as her dearest wish. It would appear that there is a real and pressing need for these homes, a need which will become more acute as the war progresses. It would be difficult to exaggerate the services which modern trained nurses render to the nation at a time like this. Their unselfish devotion to the sick and wounded; the gallant cheerfulness with which they have faced discomfort, weariness and pain; the disciplined courage they have evinced in danger, are a conspicuous example of the splendid patriotism shown by women everywhere during this time of national stress. The nurse has fought for King and Country in this great struggle as truly as any soldier in the trenches. It is therefore only right that the Memorial projected to keep green the memory of Edith Cavell's martyrdom should embrace also the recognition of the active, self-sacrificing and efficient national service of nurses who are bearing the burden and heat of the day, and saving the lives of our men at the front.

The Women's Patriotic Association has been requested and has promised, with the co-operation of the Nurses' Association, to undertake the collection of a fund in Newfoundland to assist in this enterprise of the establishment in England and ultimately throughout the Empire, of Homes of Rest for Nurses, who through their incessant labours arising out of the war, or from any cause, have become temporarily in need of mental or physical rest.

Here is a Patriotic Fund which must appeal to all. It would be hard indeed to find the man or the woman who does not humanly speaking owe his or her recovery from illness, or the recovery of some one near and dear, to the tender ministrations of the trained nurse. Here is the chance to discharge in some measure this obligation. Do not let it slip. We frequently see in our newspaper columns grateful acknowledgments from ex-patients in our hospitals, of the many kindnesses received at the hands of their nurses. How could these persons more appropriately display their gratitude and appreciation than by giving means to allow towards this fund for the benefit of nurses during illness?

The subscription list is now opened and will remain open for three months, to allow all those living at a distance from St. John's an opportunity to contribute. From March 1st donations will be acknowledged regularly through the Press. Contributions may be sent to the Hon. Treasurer, Miss Southcott, King's Bridge Road, or to any member of the Council, or the W. P. A. Executive Committee, or to the newspapers.

At the end of May the fund will be closed and our contribution despatched to Headquarters in London. Give what you can to help, be it much or little, in recognition of the worthy object of this appeal, and let our contribution be one of which Newfoundlanders may be proud.

A. N. GOSLING,
Hon. Secretary, W. P. A.

CONVALESCENCE.

When one's been lying sick in bed, with plaster casts upon his head, and poultices upon his feet, recovery seems, oh, so sweet! The doctors, round my couch of straw, have plied the aspirin and the saw; for weary days, that endless seemed, I tied myself in knots and screamed, for every ache that has a name held was-sail in my stricken frame, and many aches not classified whizzed through my sinews and my hide. At last I fell into a sleep, old time slumber, rich and deep, and when I woke my form was free from every brand of agony. 'Tis at a crucial time like this, when full of convalescent bliss, a fellow feels how great is health—far greater than the whole world's wealth. And he can clearly realize how dippy, batty and unwise, it is to sacrifice that boon, to gain another pique. A million men, you may observe, are straining every bone and nerve, year after year, to add one more gummetal dollar to their store. Some day they'll be where I have been with poultices from feet to chin, and when they lie in solitude, and o'er their years of folly brood, they'll say, as I am saying yet, that health's the one and-only bet.

TO BRING DOWN NEW PURCHASE.—Capt. M. Picco and crew have to day to take command of Mr. G. M. Barr's new schr. Assurance which will be brought on here at a future date. His crew are as follows: H. Butler, J. Rogers, M. Walsh and T. Kennedy.

THE PEACHES AND CREAM COMPLEXION.

The complexion like everything else that is precious, should be taken good care of, and not neglected for a moment. One's mode of living has much to do with the complexion. Temperance, exercise, and cleanliness are the three principal requisites, but one cannot always listen to the demands of nature, and in consequence must pay the penalty.

We have beauty doctors well versed and able to cope with the various ailments which the skin is heir to, we also have preparation on the market for overcoming skin disorders. In most cases it would be practical to report to one or the other for relief, but if it is not convenient to do so, will repeat the experience of one of our stage celebrities, whose complexion is the envy of many.

She rises early, drinks a cup of hot water and eats a cracker or two, then lightly clothed she immediately starts for a brisk two to five miles walk. Returning home, a hot bath (with plenty of soap) and a rubdown with a rough towel, then fresh clothes and a breakfast of cereal fruit, cereal with cream, toast and weak tea or coffee (without cream) is partaken of sparingly.

About two hours after breakfast she devotes ten to thirty minutes various exercises, such as bending the body and flexing the muscles, this prevents sluggish circulation which is the cause of many complexion.

NOTE OF THANKS.—Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Taylor wish to thank His Excellency the Governor, Lady Davidson, Sir E. P. Morris, Colonial Secretary, Mrs. (Hon.) M. G. Winter, Hon. T. R. Job, Liverpool, Eng., W.M.S., and many kind friends and relatives who sent kind letters of sympathy on the death of our dear son Charles F. Taylor, supposed to be killed in action July 1st, 1916, Somewhere in France.

It is said that the Paisley shawl craze will extend well into the spring.

Flattering to the Original

But Imitations Only Disappoint

There are many imitations of this great treatment for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis and whooping cough. They usually have some sale on the merits of the original, but it should be remembered that they are like it in name only.

This is a facsimile of the package bearing portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M.D.

"TOO—LATE!"

Don't wait until that Cough or Cold develops into the Cough that you are not able to throw off.

If you have contracted a Cough or Cold don't keep on saying: "Oh, it's only a cold; that will wear off after a few days!" This is just where you are making one of the biggest mistakes in your life.

Try a bottle of Stafford's Phoradone Cough and Cold Cure and watch results. Price 25 cts. Postage 5 cts. extra.

If you have an impression or tightness on your chest, mix equal parts of Camphorated Oil and Stafford's Liniment and apply to the chest on a piece of thick flannel.
