The trial of Ethan Allan commenced at Kingston yesterday. The court was densely crowded. The father and mother of the prisoner Gemmill were present.

HALLOWEEN.—To-night is Halloween and it will pass over many Canadians without notice or remembrance.

They will take their evening meal as usual, and retire to rest as on other nights. Not so in some places however. As Halloween was celebrated in Scotland in the days when Burns made it the subject of a poem.

RECIPROCITY.—The Buffalo Advertiser deplors that the Extradition Treaty does not permit the interruption of a species of reciprocity still in operation between Canada and the Republic.

The Canadian Financial Difficulties.

From the New York ALBION.

Less than a year has elapsed since the Finance Minister of Canada surprised the Provincial Parliament by the introduction of the brand-new financial scheme popularly known as the "Government Greenback Bill." We stoutly condemned the measure at the time, feeling as we did, from the first, a strong conviction that it was both ill-timed and ill-advised.

From Ottawa.

The Globe's Ottawa correspondent, writing yesterday, says:—The Hon. Donald McDonald, Hon. John Hilliard Cameron, Mr. T. C. Street, and Mr. T. N. Gibbs, of Oshawa, constituting a deputation from the western banks, arrived here this afternoon. They are, it is said, to have an audience with the Government tomorrow, at 11 o'clock, and will make a representation of the unsatisfactory state in which they are placed by the dominant position of the Montreal Bank.

THE CENTRE RIDING.—We received on the 16th a very long letter from Mr. Richard Taylor, of Elora, in reply to the letter of Mr. Loghrin, published in the Mercury the week after the election.

Had Mr. Taylor asked us to insert his letter at a reasonable time—when men's minds were occupied with the subject—we should have been happy to have complied with his request, for we have no other desire than to extend even-handed justice to both parties; but when he asks us to reopen the whole question, when the discussion of it cannot be of the slightest benefit to anyone, but will rather tend to stir up anew the bad feeling which even now has not ceased to exist, he does what we are satisfied on mature reflection he will feel to be imprudent and injudicious. In declining to publish it, therefore, we may fall under the condemnation of such a zealous partisan as Mr Taylor, but we are nevertheless doing what we know will meet the approval of all right thinking and sensible men.
