Mrs. Alfred J. Mansfield Deserted by Her Paramour.

A Former London Wester a Chicago Restaurant Cook.

Mr. Mansfield Does Not Want Her Back-He Will Bring an Action for Divorce-Frenchy Goes Back to Gay Parce.

Mrs. A. J. Mansfield, a former resident of London West, who eloped from Cleveland last June with Edward Le Grande, a French language teacher, has been deserted by her paramour in Chicago and is now a restaurant cook.

The Cleveland Tribune prints the following account of the affair.

"She left her indulgent husband and a comfortable home to clope with a French language teacher. Her paramour deserted her and she is now a cook in a Chicago language teacher. Her paramour deserted her and she is now a cook in a Chicago restaurant.

"This is the story in brief of Mrs. Alfred J. Mansfield, whose elopement with Edward Le Grade last June caused a wide-spread sensation. Mr. Mansfield is an insurance agent, and at his home, which at the time of the elopement was at No. 337 Prospect street, he had surrounded his beautiful wife with all the comforts of life, even indulging her in some of the luxuries which belong only to the wealthy, for he was a good and kind husband. In their home was a lodger, one Edward Le Grande, a polished Frenchman, who called himself a prolessor of ianguages. He was 23. Mrs. Mansfield was 40. They became much attached to each other, and the wife gradually turned a cold shoulder to Mr. Mansfield. He upbraided her for her duplicity and threatened to kick the little Frenchman out.

"The latter feigned sickness and took to "The latter feigned sickness and took to his bed. Mrs. Mansfield was very attentive and nursed him through his illness. The presence of the French professor in the house was a thorn in the husband's side and he told his wife so. But, oily-tongued woman that she was, she smoothed the wrinkles on her husband's brow by soft intercessions, promising to brow by soft intercessions, promising to send the "Frenchman" away as soon as he was able to journey. On June 6, the friends of the Mansfield's were startled to learn that Mrs. Mansfield had cloped with the that Mrs. Mansfield had eloped with the French teacher. The husband ascertained that the eloping couple had gone to Chicago, Mrs. Mansfield paid for the tickets, as the Frenchman had nothing but his entertaining manners and his clothes. In the Windy City he soon tired of his middle-aged companion, and it was not long before she was left to fight the battle of the world alone. To make a living she went to work as cook in a restaurant.

"At the time of the elopment G. T. Williams, an agent formerly in Mr. Mansfield's employ, was in Chicago. Mrs. Williams, who was in this city at the time, mailed to him Cleveland papers containing an account of the disappearance of Le Grande and Mrs. Mansfield. Stopping at the same boarding-house with Mr. Williams was a man from London, Ont., named J. B. Miles. Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield lived in London West before they located in Cleveland. Friends of Mrs. Miles mailed her the Cleveland newspapers, and she in turn forwarded them to her husband in Chicago. Mr. Miles knew that Mr. Williams lived in Cleveland, and asked him if he was acquainted with the Mansfields. He replied in the affirmative, and the two men discussed the elopement at some length. Several days afterward Mr. Miles told Williams that he had located Mrs. Mansfield. The Frenchman, he said, had returned to Paris and Mrs. Mansfield had been obliged to earn her own living as a cook in a Chicago restaurant. Mr. Mansfield now resides on Cedar avenue. He is well aware of his wife's present condition, but will never try to reclaim her. He has retained Col. Edgar Sowers to begin an action against Mrs. Mansfield or divorce. The petition will set forth the elopement as a ground for legal separation." in a restaurant. "At the time of the elopment G. T.

Prairie Fires in the Northwest.

Mr. M. H. King, a former resident of Downie, writes the Stratford Herald from Estevan, N. W. T., under date of Aug. S, as follows: "The weather here has been extremely hot and dry the last month. The hot winds from the south are like a blast from a furnace. Prairie fires are raging here on all sides, and thousands of tons of hay are being burnt up. Some men out haying have to take their haying implements and run for their lives. The fire travels very fast on a windy day. The Soo line of railway is being pushed rapidly now, and will be completed in about four weeks. It is a very substantially built road, heavier rails, ties and wider grade than the ordinary road. Crops are not looking well; the hot wind is too much for them." Prairie Fires in the Northwest.

Are you all tired out, do you have that tired feeling or sick headache? You can be relieved of all these symptoms by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, which gives nerve, mental and bodily strength and thoroughly purifies the blood. A Man Made Happy.—Gentlemen,—For five years I have been a great sufferer with Dyspepsia; the pain in the pit of my stomach was almost unbearable and life only seemed a drag to me. When I would go to sleep I would have horrible dreams, and my life became very miserable, as there was no rest either day or night. But with the use of only two bottles of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovers this unhappy state has all been changed and I am a well man. I can assure you, my case was a bad one, and I send you this that it may be the means of convincing others of the wonderful curative qualities possessed by this medicine, that are specially adapted for the cure of Dyspepsia. A lady customer of mine had the Dyspepsia very bad, she could scarcely eat anything, and was troubled with pains similar to those I suffered with; and she cured herself with two bottles of Northrep & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. I wish you success with your medicine, as I am fully convinced that it will do all you claim for it.
