petition with Montreal, Toronto and of her father, Mr. James Duffield, in

Mr. Stephen Blackburn, of Glencoe,

Francis Love, in Wellington street.

Miss Madeline Pavey, of this city,

was the honor guest of a very smart

tea in Montreal this week, given by her hostess, Miss Hanson, in Dorches-

The engagement is announced of

The wedding will take place early in the Highland Park Club, who was inured in an automobile accident at

with roses and long tulle ties.

Captain Folger was one of the ter street.

fully recuperate.

others.

days.

the Bank of Montreal.

Mr. Coulson.

aunt in Buffalo.

Mrs. Talbot Macbeth.

with Miss Hunt, Merriville

the same bank at Ponoka, Alberta.

honor of the strangers in town.

day from a month's visit with her

Miss Isabel Macbeth returned home

stranger in Montreal, received much praise and admiration for her graceful

Lady Stanley, widow of Sir Henry M. Stanley, the explorer, has returned

No Satisfaction in Eating.

visitor in town this week.

Wingham, formerly of London.

Every Step We Take Every Move We Make

CEYLON TEA is incomparable in quality and value, and is always reliable.

grocers. HIGHEST AWARD, ST. LOUIS, 1904.

you, and you dishonored him. The

BY HAROLD MACGRATH

"In that case, Captain," she said, her voice uncertain and constrained, "bid Monseigneur to wait on me at the Continental." Whenever that becomes convenient Madame, Monseigneur will certainly confer with you and your rascally pack He longed for some one and clothes; that is the sum of your to spring at him; he longed to strike blow in earnest.

As he leaned against the door he felt it move. He stepped aside. The door rolled back, and her Royal High-ness, the archbishop and the chancelor passed in. The princess' eyes were like dim stars, but her fine nostrils the way. palpitated, and her mouth was rigid in disdain. The chancellor looked haggard and dispirited, and he eyed all with the listlessness of a man who has given up hope. The prelate's face was finely drawn as an ancient cameo, and as immobile. He gazed at Madame with one of those looks which penetrate like acid; and, brave as she was

she found it insupportable. There was a tableau of short duration. "Madame," said Her Royal Highness, with a noble scorn, "what would you say if one desecrated your father's tomb while you were kneeling beside it? What would you say? In yonder room my father lies dead, and your presence here, in whatever role, is an "come on! I will show you how a insult. Are you, indeed, a woman? brave man can die. Come on, Mes-Have you no respect for death and sieurs Medals and Clothes! Aye, who sorrow? Was the bauble so precious will go out with me?" He raised the to your sight that you could not wait saber, and it caught the flickering light the last rites were paid to the as it trailed a circle above his head.

Is your heart of stone, your He stumbled toward them, sweeping mind devoid of pity and of conscience? the air with the blade. Suddenly there you lacking in magnanimity, came a change. He stopped. The wild which is the disposition of great souls? Ah, Madame, you will never be great, prised look came instead. The saber for you have stooped to treachery and slipped from his fingers and clanged You a princess! You have on the floor. He turned and looked at purchased with glittering promises the princess, and that glance conveyed that which in time would have been to her the burden of his love. Made given to you. And you will not fui-fill these promises, for honesty has no part in your affairs. Shame on you. This knees doubled, he sank, rolled face downward, and a dark stain appeared and widened on By dishonorable means you the marble floor. ed this room. By dishonor-"Go, Madame," have gained this room By dishonorable means you destroy all those props "This palace is indeed a tomb." on which my father leaned. You knew felt the princess grow limp on his arm. that he had not long to live. Had you "Go." "Maurice!" cried Fitzgerald, springcome to me as a woman; had you opened your heart to me and confided your desires—Ah, Madame, how gladly "My God! Maurice!" would I have listened. Whatever it signifies to you, this throne is nothing me. Had you come then-but, no! Madame, surrounded by her staff you must come to demand your rights and courtiers, sat in the main salon of am defenseless. You must the Continental Hotel, waiting for the come with a sword when there is none archbishop. The false, self-seeking to defend. Is it possible that in our ministers of Leopold's reign crowded veins there runs a kindred blood? And around her to pay their respects, to yet, Madame, I forgive you. Rule compliment and flatter her. here if you will; but remember, be- they saw a brilliant court; already tween you and the crown there will they were speculating on their appointalways be the shadow of disgrace. ments. Offices were plenty; new em-Monsieur," turning toward Fitzgerald. bassies were to be created, old embas-whose shame was so great that it en- sies to be filled anew. guifed him, "your father and mine were friends, I forgive you. Now, was a canker in her heart, and no one Madame, I pray you, go, leave me with who saw that calm, beautiful face of The girlhood of Princess Alexia was was eating. There were two men who To Madame this rebuke was like hot tery. On the face of one rested a iron on the fiesh. It left her withmoody scowl; on the other, agony and out answer. Her proud spirit writhed. remorse. Those two men were Col-Before those innocent eyes her soul lay onel Mollendorf and Lord Fitzgerald. bare, offering to the gaze an inefface- The same thought occupied each mind; able scar. For the first time she saw the scene in the throne room. her schemes in their true light. Had any served her unselfishly? Aye, there "Monseigneur the archbishop." was one. And strangely enough, the first thought which formed in her mind pectantly toward the door. when chaos was passed, was of him.

How would this rebuke affect her in high and his step firm. He appeared his eyes? What was he to her that to see no one but Madame. But this she cared for his respect, his opinion, time she met his glance without good or bad? What was the meaning of the secret dread? How she hated him for his honesty to her; for now come into my own at last. But for you perforce she must look up to him. and your ambitious schemes, all this She had stepped down from the pinnacle of her pride to which she might never again ascend. He had kissed her. your puppet there instead. By trickshe hated him! And yet. How she hated him! And yet. . . . ery I was compelled to regain it. How-Ah, the wine was flat, tinctured with ever, I do not wish to make an enemy bitterness of gall and her own of you, Monseigneur. I have here two greed had forced the cup to her lips. letters. They come from Rome. In She could not remain silent before this one is your recall, in the other a carshe must reply; her shame was dinal's hat. Which do you prefer?" too deep to resolve itself into silence. "Mademoiselle," she said, "I beg of the prelate. "Listen to me. Madame, you to accept my sympathies; but the for fortunes of war—" which will cause you some reflection.

"Ah. Madame," interrupted the prelate, lifting his white, attenuated hand, if I had my dreams, they have vanwe will discuss the fortunes of war-

Madame choked back the sudden gust of rage. She glanced covertly at the Englishman. But he, with wide- brecht was childless. When your astonished eyes, was staring at the foot of the throne, from which gradually rose a terrible figure, covered with ally rose a terrible figure, covered with perg from reigning on this throne, blood and caked with drying clay. The You say that you were tricked; well, figure leaned heavily on the hilt of a so was I. Unhappily I touched the and swayed unsteadily. He deeper current too late.

drew all eyes. "Ha!" he said, with a prolonged, the palace, was not my puppet. sardonic intonation, "is that you, wished to make him great, and bask Madame the Duchess? You are talk- in his greatness. But in that I failed; the Englishman? Ha! and war? Look osopher, and the greatness of earthly at me, Madame; I have been in battle, things did not concern him. Leopold the only one fought today. Look at me! Here is the mark of that friend are at this moment, Madame. who watched over your interests. But long as Leopold reigned peacefully he where is he? Eh? Where? Did you was not disturbed Had you shown pick him up on the way? He is dead. For all that he was a rascal, he died like a man. as presently I shall die! Princes and kings and thrones; the one die and the Austria intended you should. There is other crumble, but truth lives on. And no longer any kingdom." There was you, Madame have learned the truth. Shame on your mean and little souls!

Completely Bradicated from the System

by Clarke's Kola Compound. Clarke's Kola Compound is no watery, greasy spray, or snuffing co-caine powder. It is a constitutional cure. It not only affords instant relief from the choking, but also makes the attacks less frequent and severe, and quickly eradicates the disease from the system. In long standing cases of Asthma, the action of Clarke's Kola nd is little short of marvelous, while the less severe ones disappear as Mr. S. Till, St. John, N.B., writes: "I have, for ten years, been a sufferer from Asthma, which became worse each year. Our doctors finally could not help me: six bottles of Clarke's Kola Compound have completely cured me. I also know of several others in this city who have been cured by it."

Write for a free sample bottle.

Griffiths & MacPherson Co., Limited, Toronto, Canada

A STATE OF THE STA

view to serve the public

I do not see him.

Nobles, you? I laugh at you all for a pack of thieves, who are not content.

with the purse, but must add honor to the bag. A man is what he makes himself. Medals and clothes, medals nobility!" He laughed, but the laughter choked in his throat, and he stag-

When the men sprang forward to ex-

"Stand aside, Monsieur," said Madame, determined to vent her rage on

The princess, her heart beating wildly

at the sudden knowledge that lay written on the inner vision, a faintness stealing away her sight, leaned

"He is dying," she whispered: "he Maurice was now in the grasp of the final delirium. "Come on!" he cried;

brave man can die. Come on, Mesexpression faded from his face; a sur-

CHAPTER XXVIII.

hers dreamed how deeply the canker

held aloof from compliments and flat-

Presently an orderly announced:

Madame arose and all looked ex-

The old prelate entered, his head

"Monseigneur," she began, "I have robbed my father of his throne and set

"Surely not the cardinal's hat," said

ished. Madame, some twenty years ago your duchy was created. It was not done to please Albrecht's younger

father was given the duchy it was done

to exclude forever the house of Auers-

"This poor king, who lies silent

because Leopold was a poet and phil

and I were dupes of Austria, as you patience and resignation, doubtless to-a subdued triumph in his eyes.

day you would be a queen. You will you," with a gesture toward the courtiers and office-seekers, "to you I shall say, your own blind self-interest has destroyed you. Madame, you are bear-

but against Austria since from today

this land becomes the property of the imperial crown. If you struggle, 't will be futilely. For, by this move of yours, Austria will declare that this kingdom is a menace to the tranquility of the confederation. Madame there is no priner-stone to your edifice. This is what I wished to say to you. I have done. Permit me to with-

For a moment his auditors were spellbound; then all the emotions of the mind and heart portrayed themselves on the circle of faces. Madame's

"His Excellency, the Austrian Am-

The archbishop bowed and left the

[To be Continued.]

The business of the successful trust

promoter is founded upon the "rocks."
Santiago de Chile, the third largest city of South America, has now a population of 262,000. The largest is Buenos Ayres, followed by Rio de Janeiro.

face was inscrutable.

arms not against this kingdom,

"Madame, you have done exactly as

"To

I have something to say to you would not have come to pass.

back against the prelate.

is dying for me!"

he said doggedly; "you shall ecute this command, Fitzgerald barred gered a few paces away from the

"Seize him!" cried Madame.

"No."

not touch him.'

Hon Charles Hyman came up from bers of any recognized club in com-Ottawa on Wednesday.

Miss Florence Phillips returned home to Toronto on Saturday evening last, after a very delightful visit in the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Morhome of Mrs. Malcolm Kent, Fairlawn. timer Clark for a dinner party at Government House on Wednesday,

Col. Buchan commenced his remarks at the Montreal Military Institute on Saturday evening with a jest. This | Grey. in Scaled Lead Packets. 25c, 30c, 40c, 50c, 60c per lb. By all been made by Col. Carson, in behalf was after congratulatory speeches had of the English-speaking regiments of the city, and by Col. McKay, of the Sixty-fifth, speaking for a Canadian regiment. Both spoke terms of the highest praise of the An honest man dies but once, but a character and achievements of the distraitor dies a thousand deaths. Krotinguished soldier who has now asis that your name? It sumed control of the militia in this was an honest one once. And the pal- district. [Copyrighted by the Bobbs-Merrill try ends you gain! . . . The grand duchess of Gerolstein! . . . What a comic opera! Not even music to go amid laughter, that he did not know by! Eh, you,—you Englishman, has Madame made you a Lieutenant?—a had not contravened the terms of para-captain?—a General? What a farce! graph 415 of the King's regulations. whether the speeches already delivered A portion of the paragraph in question reads as follows: "Deliberation or discussion by officers or soldiers with the object of conveying praise, censure, or any mark of approbation toward their superior officers, or any others in his majesty's service, is prohibited." Col. Buchan did not cite the clause in extenso after this fashion, but all the officers present know to what he referred. Hence, there was great amuse-

> Mrs. Adam Beck left for Toronto yesterday to attend the opening days of the Woodbine races. Hon. Adam and Captain K. C. Folger, of the South Mrs. Beck are among those invited to African Constabulary, Heidelburg, the luncheon in Toronto on Monday, Transvaal, second son of the late Mr. On Thursday afterno Mrs. Beck are among those invited to African the luncheon in Toronto on Monday, Transvas given by the president and directors of "Madame," said von Mitter, "I will shoot down the first man who lays hands on Monsieur Carewe."
>
> "Madame," said von Mitter, "I will shoot down the first man who lays hands on Monsieur Carewe."
>
> "Madame," said von Mitter, "I will shoot down the first man who lays hands on Monsieur Carewe."
>
> "Madame," said von Mitter, "I will shoot down the first man who lays hands on Monsieur Carewe."
>
> "Madame," said von Mitter, "I will shoot down the first man who lays hands on Monsieur Carewe."
>
> "Madame," said von Mitter, "I will shoot down the first man who lays hands on Monsieur Carewe."
>
> "Madame," said von Mitter, "I will shoot down the first man who lays hands on Monsieur Carewe."
>
> "The wedding will take place early in the first man who lays hands on Monsieur Carewe." excellencies, the Earl and Countess

> > Miss May Toller, of Ottawa, whom many had the pleasure of meeting here few weeks ago, was among those who attended the Montreal horse show last

Lady Meredith, of Rosedale, Toronto, is the guest of her sisters-inlaw, the Misses Meredith, in Talbot street.

Miss Jessie Ramsey, of Montreal, ame to London on Thursday evening o be the guest of Mrs. Malcolm Kent. Fairlawn. Miss Ramsey has visited at Fairlawn before, when her bright and harming personality won her many riends, who are happy to see her

Mrs. J. Denham Stewart has sailed rom England via the steamship Virginian, and is expected very early in the week to spend a long visit with her parents, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Peters, in Albert street. Lieut. Stewart will be with the second cruiser squadron with Prince Louis of Battenburg as admiral and the King Edward flagship mid-Atlantic until September, and Mrs. Stewart will spend the summer with the family at Col. Peters' sum-

Mrs. Stephen C. Millet, of New York, was the bright raison d'etre of a smart little high tea at the Kennels on Wed-Moore was the charming hostess.

Mrs. Frank Reid and little son Jack left town on Tuesday, and after a charming guest at Lornehurst, and on the Church of St. John the Evangelist despite the cloudy weather, very many ville to spend the summer.

Hon. Adam Beck, Lieut. Douglas the London huntsmen who easily carried off the honors in the hunt club Fhillips. of Toronto: Miss Tabby Moore, class at the Montreal horse show for diss Edith Scatcherd and others. the three best horses ridden by mem-

New Scale Williams Piano In MacDonald Consolidated School, Middleton, N. S.

The true test and the hardest test of a pianos value as has been pointed out is the constant use to which it is sub- Macbeth, of Toronto; Miss Christie, of jected in a public institution. The best quality of instrument is necessary to Michie. Miss Battisby, of Chatham; ardent tennis player and gave invitasecure good results, and, at the same time, one that is durable and will hold its good qualities of power and tone.

The MacDonald Consolidated School of Middleton, N. S., a cut of which is shown above, is the first institution of its kind in Canada. It is part of a plan made possible by the munificence of Sir William MacDonald, of Montreal, for the consolidation of education in rural schools. Everything that is modern in equipment and curriculum and left for Ottawa yesterday to visit has been adopted, and after careful examination, the New Scale Williams Macbeth, Ottawa. Piano was selected as most suitable for the musical exercises in connection with the school course. Mr. Geo. B. McGill, the principal of the school, has written the Williams Piano Co., Limited, of Oshawa, the following letter. In addition, it may be said that Mr. McGill has since purchased a New Scale Williams Piano for informal tea on Wednesday afternoon, his own use :-"We are much pleased with the New Scale Williams Piano which your satesman. J. H. Potter, Esq., placed in the Assembly Hall of our new School building one year ago. It has been pronounced by professionals to possess an exceptionally sweet tone, responsive touch, and good volumn. This piano has been in constant use in this large school, a most trying place for a piano, and it has given perfect satisfaction. Its qualities of strength and endurance seem to be assured. We are glad that we were able to procure one of your instruments for our Yours respectfully.

GEO. H. McGILL, Principal The Williams Piano Co Oshawa publish three booklets on the history and ction of pianos, which sent free you'll be overcome by weakness and nervous prostration. Best prescription for your condition is Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. For dyspepsia and in-digestion it is doubtful if a better remedy will EVER be devised. These Dorothy Tennant, Lady Stanley, be-fore her marriage, was one of the best-known artists in London, and her pictures were exhibited regularly in the spring exhibitions. Lady Stanley and Mrs. Humphrey Ward have gone Stanley to make sketches and Mrs. Humphrey Ward to acquire "local color" for her next novel, the scene of which is to be laid in Florence.

in Toronto on Wednesday, to act as usher at the marriage of Miss Annie Catherine Bain, daughter of the late John Bain, K.C., and Mr. Percy Sidney May 24, to meet His Excellency the May 24, to meet His Excellency the Governor-General and the Countess Moule, only son of the late Capt. R. Moule, of the Eighty-second Regiment, in St. Peter's Church. Mrs. F. H. Heath and children, of High street, South London, are guests Mrs. John Gilmour (nee McDonough), was the honor guest of a delightful little tea given by Mrs. George Macbeth, the Alexandra, Toronto, Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Edmund Baynes Reed, of Vic-The closing meeting of the Historical toria, B. C., is visiting Mrs. W. J. Per Society on Tuesday evening was parnington, in St. George street. ticularly entertaining, a very excellent paper having been prepared and read by Miss Harriet Priddis, of Brook Mrs. I. H. Coyne, of St. Thomas, i staying with her sister, Mrs. Wom A Foster, Glen road, Rosedale, Mrs. Symington, of Sarnia, is spend-ng a fortnight's visit with Mrs. Not the least enjoyable of the many smart functions arranged in honor of Mrs. Leonard Tilley, of St. John, N B., was the high tea of Thursday even-Miss Meta Macbeth has returned to ing, of which Mrs. and Miss Graydon, the Alexandria, Toronto, having spent a very happy visit with her grand-mother, Mrs. Macbeth, Bleak House. Connemara, were the hostesses.

Mr. Farrar Davidson, of Toronto, spent the last week-end, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Beddome, of the Bank of Montreal.

Mrs. Robert McBurney and Miss Louie Dillon gave the tea at the London Golf Club House on Carling's On Thursday afternoon, Mrs. (Dr.)

Frederick Folger, to Miss Anne Caro- Niven gave a small informal luncheon at her home in Colborne street, The Misses Peel, of Toronto, has been spending a fortnight's visit in Royal Military College cadets who went town, the guest of Mrs. Williams, to South Africa in 1900, and received Spruce Villa

Miss Priddis, Brook Farm, enter-Mr. George M. Hendrie, president of tained delightfully at an apple-blossor tea yesterday afternoon

Nashville, Tenn., a few weeks ago, is Mrs. (Rev.) Allison, of Stayner. in Detroit for a few days' rest before came to London this week to visit her going on to his home in Hamilton to mother, Mrs. R. J. C. Dawson, in Dun-

Rev. M. Day Baldwin and Mrs. Bald-Mrs. W. J. Reid will give the tea of the London Hunt Golf Club at the win have returned from their wedding trip, and are residing at the rectory of Kennels on Monday next. All Saints, Mount Royal avenue, Montreal. At the Montreal horse show on

The week has been rather replete in Saturday last Mrs. Baldwin was in the way of beautifully appointed afgray, with light tuscan hat trimmed fairs. Mrs. Talbot Macbeth gave a very large luncheon at the Kennels on ality is winning for her many new Rev. E. H. Sawers, of Brucefield, Tuesday afternoon, at which the honor friends in her Toronto home guests were Mrs. MacKinnon and Mrs. spent a brief visit in London this week. David Williams, of Bishopstowe. Miss Maud Somerville, in Ridout table was an artistic triumph, being street south, was the happy recipient arranged with soft folds of palest velof a shower of granite gifts on Wedlow chiffon, on which rested bowls of nesday afternoon last. Among the yellow and white tulips. The hostess merry party, who all wished the brideelect much happiness, were Mrs. Andrew Durand, Mrs. W. B. Richardson, hat of the same tints as her gown Mrs. R. G. Fisher. Miss Shaw-Wood, with pink roses. The guests included with the family at Col. Peters' sum-mer residence, Grasse Point, Lake Miss Belton, Miss Gibbons, Miss Bed-Mrs. Jeffery Hale, Mrs. Beddome, Mrs. Adam Beck, Mr. J. Fritz Beck, Mrs. Hume Cronyn, Mrs. George Brown. Mrs. F. P. Betts, Mrs. George B. Ger-Miss Mary Love has been a guest rard, Mrs. George C. Gibbons, Mrs. W. at Pinehurst, the home of Mr. Calvert, J. Reid. Mrs. Charles Leonard. Mrs. nesday evening, of which Miss Bessie M. P., Strathroy, during the past ten Frank Leonard, Mrs. Maxwell Fraser Mrs. Becher and Miss Annie Macbeth.

Miss Cameron, of Winnipeg, is a very next week-the marriage of Miss Rosaceived with Mrs. Gibbons and Miss lind, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marjorie Gibbons. Among those who W. T. T. Williams, of Spruce Villa, St called were Miss Geraldine Beddome, James street, to Dr. Alfred Peel, late Young, and Mr. James A. McNee were Miss Dora Labatt, Miss Gladys Michte. James street, to Dr. Alfred Peel, later Young, and Mr. James A. McNee were Miss Dora Labatt, Miss Gladys Michte. Of South Africa. Dr. Peel will take Miss Edna Hunt, Miss Florence his bride to Strathcona, N. where they will be followed by the bes wishes of many London friends. Last evening Miss Williams was the happy Mr. Gault, of Montreal, recently in recipient of a shower of bread and but Goderich, is now on the local staff of ter plates by the members of tennis and euchre clubs of which she was a Miss Battisby has returned home to member. Chatham after a very delightful visit

Mrs Harner in Colhorne street was the bright hostess of a very enjoyable His many old friends were pleased o'clock tea on Thursday afternoon. hear of the recent promotion of Mr. Mrs. Hume Cronyn very charmingly E. Adrian Fox, accountant of the Canmatronized the tearoom, and was assisted by Miss Annie Macbeth. Miss Meredith. Miss Cameron (Winnipeg) idian Bank of Commerce at Seaforth. to the managership of the branch of Frances Macbeth, Miss Marjorie Gibbons and Miss Mary Meredith. Some of the guests were Mrs. Stephen Mil- Mr. Last Friday afternoon, Mrs. Beddome was the sweetly-gracious hostess Mrs. Farncombe, Mrs. S. N. Sterling, of a very happy little tea, given solely Misses Isabel and Jo Belton Mrs. Mrs. Beddome was charmingly as-(Dr.) Seaborn, Miss Helen Gibbons, sisted by her daughters. Miss Beddome and Miss Geraldine Beddome. Among the guests were Mrs. Drake. Mrs. Carruthers, of Winnipeg; Mrs. Leonard Beddome. Miss Somerville, Miss Ada Edna Kent. Allie Hyman. Dorothy Tillev of St. John, N. B.: Miss Edna Somerville, Miss Helen Richardson, Bets, Edith Scatcherd, Nita Hunt and Helen Harris, Miss Nita Hunt, Miss Miss Allie Hyman, Miss Edith Scatch-Kent. Miss Florence Phillips. of Toronto; Miss Annie Macbeth, Miss Meta erd, Miss Jessie Hale and others.

St. Johns, N. B.: Miss Gerrard. of Col. MacDougal, the gallant com-Canso, N. S.; Miss Dora Labatt, Miss mandant at Wolseley Barracks, is an Dr. Will Hunt, of New York; Mr. and tions for a tennis party at the Bar-Mrs. Cyril Raikes, Col. Macdougall, racks for Thursday afternoon, Mr. Campbell Becher, Mr. Gault, Capt. which Mrs. (Major) Carpenter was to Walter Smith, Major Layborne, Mr. have been the chaperon. The entertain-George Gunn, Mr. George Macbeth and ment was, owing to the showery weather, postponed until next week. Col. MacDougal and Capt. Smith hope to Miss Isabel Belton returned on Monmake arrangements for a tennis after-

> Mrs. Lyons Biggar, of Ottawa, is the guest of her parents in Toronto, Mrs. George B. Gerrard was the in the home of her brother, Mr. Chas. ostess of a beautifully-appointed luncheon party at the Kennels on Wedaesday of this week. The table was Mrs. William Lind, who has been artistically arranged with bright yelenjoying a very quiet rest visit with low buttercups and dark green leaves, her sister, Mrs. R. Grant Fisher, in and covers were laid for Mrs. Beddome Princess avenue, returns home to To- Mrs. Gibbons, Mrs. Fritz Beck, Mrs. Leonard, Mrs. Arthur Smith. Mrs. (Col.) Peters, in Albert street, Edge, Mrs. Niven, Mrs. Leonard Tilley was the hostess of a delightful little Mrs. Harper, Mrs. Talbot Macbeth, Mrs. MacKinnon, Mrs. W. J. Reid, Mrs. for a 1ew friends to meet Mrs. Mac-David Williams, Miss Christie and Kinnon, who is visiting her daughter, Miss Gerrard.

Miss Pope and Miss Emery were the Hon, Adam and Mrs. Beck spent a hort visit in Ottawa while they were tea on Saturday last, at which Mr. J. attending the Montreal Horse Show, K. H. Pope presented two prizes, which and returned home to London on Mon- were captured by Miss Macfie and Mr. day morning. Mrs. Beck, who is no Boucher.

The Alexandra Chapter of the Imriding and driving and was also perial Order of the Daughters of the much feted at social functions.

Empire held special meetings on special meetings on Thursday and Friday mornings of this week at Fairlawn and Trewaieneth to decide upon giving an open-air concert at Mr. T. H. Carling's residence, Trewaieneth, in Talbot street, on the Food does you no good. You can't digest — consequently you're afraid to eat. Tongue is coated, mouth tastes bad, stomach is bloated. Pretty soon Invitations have been issued for the Alexander-Somerville wedding, which is to take place in Knox Church, London, on Saturday, June 3, followed by a reception at the home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George A. Somerville, in Ridout street south. Col. Palmer, of the Essex Regiment, Imperial Service, and a veteran of the South African war, who has been the guest of Mrs. Harkness at Trewaien-eth, in Talbot street, left on Tuesday for England, accompanied by Miss

Red Rose

IS GOOD TEA.

It is good tea because it is made of the young, tender, juicy leaves of the tea plants of Northern India and Ceylon.

These leaves contain a large percentage of Theine, which is a mild stimulant and an aid to digestion.

This is why Red Rose Tea is good, not only while you are drinking it, but is good after you drink it.

Enid Harkness, who abroad for the summer.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Emmerson, daughter of the Minister of Railways, to Mr. Deacon, of Milton, Ont., will take place on June 7 at the brideelect's home in Dorchester, N. B.

A Canadian girl, Miss A. R. Davis of Fredericton, N. B., has been awarded a fellowship in the department of Greek by President Harper, of the University of Chicago.

Mrs. Dann, Mrs. Waller and the Misses Ella and Dora Waller sailed on Saturday last for Liverpool on the Do-Miss Madeline Reid, of Chicago, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John O.

Dromgole, in Piccadilly street. uncheon party at McConkey's, Toron- E. Spragge, only son of Dr. Spragge, to, this week, in honor of her daugh- Toronto, at Westminster Church, Bloor ter-in-law, Mrs. Jack Gilmour (nee street, on Wednesday, June 7. McDonough), whose charming person-

Mrs. (Dr.) MacLaren, in Queen's avenue, has returned home from a de-lightful little visit in Sarnia, where she The table was gay with golden butterwas the guest of her sister. Miss Gir-

Sir Montague and Lady Allen, Ravenscrag, Montreal, gave Ravenscrag, Montreal, gave an immense supper party to one hundred last. Purple hyacinths and pale, gold daffodils beautified the supper tables Among the guests were Hon, Adam and Mrs. Beck. of this city.

Mrs. J. Langdon Hooper, of Detroit, received for the first time since her marriage at the home of her mother, Mrs. Andrew Greenlees, in Ridout called to wish the bride every happi-

Everything was beautifully fresh and green at Glenmore on Monday afternoon last and presented a pretty picture for the many who accepted of the hospitality of Mrs George bons at the tea hour. Mrs. Gibbons received and the Misses Lorna and Helen Gibbons performed the honors of the tea table. To particularize among those who went out were Mrs. Becher Mrs. Jeffrey Hale, Mrs. Ernest Smith Mrs. W. J. Reid, Mrs. Frank Leonard. Miss Dora Labatt, Miss Edna Leonard Mrs. Tilley, Miss Helen Richardson, Mrs. Peters, Miss Olive Peters, Mrs George Brown, Mr. and the Misses Beddome, Mr. W. R. and Miss Mary Mr. Farrar Davidson (Toronto). Campbell Becher, Mr. Ronald Harris Mr. Hale, Major Layborne, Colone let, of New York; Mrs, Leonard Tilley, MacDougal, Dr. Becher, Mr. George Gunn, Mr. Walter Reid and many Adam Beck, Mrs. J. Fritz Beck, Mrs. Mr. George C. Gibbons presented Miss Geraldine Beddome with a very pretty Miss Cameron, of Winnipeg; Miss silver loving cup for having made the Edna Kent, Miss Edna Leonard, Miss best round during the afternoon in > Major Carpenter of Wolseley Barracks, has gone to Kingston, where he will remain until the first of June.

Mary Meredith.

Hon. George W. Ross and his daughters expect to take a residence in Toronto, just north of their former home in Elmsley Place. At the State Ball in Ottawa or

Thursday evening Mrs. Calvert, Strathroy, was in black Venetian lace over rose satin, with trimming of cut jet and steel. The guests included the names of Hon. Charles and Mrs. Hyman, of this city-

Mrs. Edmund Baynes Reed, of Victoria, B. C., was the honor guest of a smart tea given by Mrs. Anderson Walmington House, on Monday after-

HOW TO CURE A TERRIFIC HEADACHE

Many people suffer with an aching head week after week, occasionally getting relief from so-called headache powders and nervestupefying drugs. They never get cured because they start wrong. Such people should ach to the bowels.
do a little common-sense thinking. Headache Skeletons are no hostesses of the Barracks Golf Club is simply the result, a warning signal, of a far more serious trouble. Usually it means bad blood, poisoned by an inactive or sluggish liver. Headache sufferers are often nervous, cross and irritable. Their sleep is disturbed and digestion impaired. The liver doesn't do its work right, and the bile elements poison both nerve and brain. Smith's Pineapple and Butternut Pills cure headache by removing the cause. They are Nature's true laxative, and give tone to kver activity, are a positive spe-cific for biliousness and a torpid liver. Get your kver right by using Smith's Pineapple your nerves won't weaken, nor your food dis-tress you. They cure headache, constipation, and biliousness in one night. Price 25 cents at all dealers. All genuine signed W. F. Smith.

> SMITHS BUCHU LITHIA PILLS A POSITIVE CURE FOR RHEUMATISM AND ALL FORMS OF KIDNEY AND BLADDER ILLS. ATALL DEALERS-25 CENTS.

rooms were fragrant with flowers and in the tea room Mrs. McKay and Mrs. (Dr.) Bayly presided, assisted by the Misses Westcott, Frances Macbeth and Ethel McKillop. Some of the guests were, Lady Meredith (Toronto), the Misses Meredith, Mrs. Pennington, Miss Eleanor Pennington, Mrs. Edge. Mrs. Talbot Macbeth, Mrs. McKinnon, Mrs. and Miss Hunt (Riverview), Mrs. Andrew Durand, Mrs. Somerville, Miss Somerville and Mrs. Frances L. Moore.

The portrait of the year in one of the galleries of London is the group of Lord Minto's daughters, the Ladies Eileen, Ruby and Violet Elliot, The three sisters are in white. The portrait is said to be a triumph of the atist's skill.

Invitations have been issued by Mr. and Mrs. Waldie, Glenhurst, Rosedale, for the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Gilmour, sen., gave a delightful Miss Jessie Waldie, to Mr. Godfrey

Mrs. Frank Reid was the ever bright and charming hostess of a delightful luncheon party at the Kennels on Saturday afternoon last, at which the The table was gay with golden buttercups, and covers were arranged for Mrs. Stephen C. Millet (New York). Mrs. Carruthers (Winnipeg). Drake, Misses Lorna and Marjorie Gibbons, Miss Cameron (Winnipeg), Miss immense supper party to one hundred and forty guests at the conclusion of the Montreal Horse Show on Saturday Phillips (Toronto), Miss Edna Kent and Miss Macbeth.

> Mrs. Pringle, wife of Mr. John Pringle, manager of the Bank of ferente, who has been confined to her oom some months as a result of an eccident, has now been removed to St. Joseph's Hospital.

Mr. Harper Dawson Le Bel. of Cleveland, Ohio, formerly of this city, will spend the month of May in town the guest of his aunts, the Misses Harper, in Cartwright street.

Matricka THEY MADE THIS COUPLE HAPPY

Dodd's Kidney Pills Doing Good Work Around Port Arthur.

Mr. Dick Souvey and Wife Both Had Kidney Troubles, and the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy Cured Them.

Port Arthur, Ont., May 19. - That Dodd's Kidney Pills cure the Kidney ills of men and women alike has been proved time and again in this neighborhood, but it is only occasionally they get a chance to do double work in the same house. This has happened in the case of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Souvey, a farmer and his wife, living about seven miles from here. In an interview Mr. Souvey said:

"My wife and myself have used Dodd's Kidney Pills, anld have found them a big benefit to our health. We had La Grippe two winters and were exposed to much frost and cold. Our sleep was broken on account of urinary troubles and pain in the Kidneys. We each took six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and now enjoy good health.

Signora Cousina, of South America, said to be the richest woman in the world, has an income of $100,000 a week.

THEY ARE CAREFULLY PREPAR-ED.—Pills which dissipate themselves in the stomach cannot be expected to have much effect upon the intestines, and to overcome costiveness the medicine administered must influence the action of these canals. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are canals. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills are so made, under the supervision of experts, that the substance in them intended operate on the intestines is retarded in action until they pass through the stom-

Skeletons are now being sold in Russia for $1 15. Before the outbreak of the war in the east they were worth at least $7. MINARD'S LINIMENT LUM-BERMAN'S FRIEND.

A curiosity in the matter of bellringing is to be met with at Fulburne. near Combridge, England. The church bells there not only ring the hours of the day, but at intervals also the date of the month. Thus at 12 o'clock noon on the 31st there would be 43 strokes. HOLLOWAY'S CORN CURE is the medicine to remove all kinds of corns and warts, and only costs the small sum of twenty-five cents.

Some people are so addicted to borrowing trouble as to worry about the divorce even before they are married. CASTORIA The Kind You Have Always Bought