JOLLY SURPRISE PARTY

Large Number of Friends Dropped in on Miss May Baker.

An evening of much enjoyment was the occasion of a surprise party given to Miss May Baker on Friday evening, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. L. Graves, 142 Grey street. The order of surprise was conducted by Mr. Herbert Osborne, whose management of the success of the affair was complete. During the evening Miss Mercia Shingler sang several selections. She has a charming voice, and responded to many honours. The jolly four quartettes singing was also appreciated and received a large share of applause.

Dancing was part of the evening's enjoyment at which the "Come to London" booster song and a two-step was featured, and all joined in the chorus in a manner which proved that the booster spirit was well represented. After dancing had been indulged in to an early hour refreshments were served and the party broke up.

FLATTERING HONOR FOR W. A. BLEUTHNER

Local Musician Has Been Appointed on Board of Examiners of Toronto University.

Mr. W. A. Bleuthner, well-known as a musician in this city, has had a very flattering honor conferred upon him in his appointment to the board of examiners in the University of Toronto for the June examinations in music. This board has been established for ten or fifteen years, and its appointment to it is regarded as a very high honor among musicians. There are only twelve examiners all told in the board, and they are selected from all over the Dominion. The university examinations take place about the middle or the end of June.

PHOTOS BY WIRE AND WIRELESS

Inventor Arrives in New York to Introduce the System in America.

New York, May 1.—Thorn Baker, who has perfected the invention which photographs are sent by telegraph, and who has successfully operated his system between London and Paris, arrived here to introduce his system in this country. He says that he has so far developed his system that it is now a commercial proposition, and that there is a great future for it, especially on the lines of transmission of photographs by wireless. "The difficulty heretofore has been that the pictures became distorted in transmission, but I have invented a 'balance,' as it is called, that corrects this, and now it can be used with ease and correctness," said Mr. Baker. "The most interesting part is that photographs can be sent by wireless as well as by wires. I look forward to the time when the newspaper photographer will carry the apparatus with him in a compact box, and when he has made a photograph, develop it, and send it by wireless to his office." Baker will probably work first between New York and Washington. As a rule, he uses the telephone wires to send his pictures.

12,800 Bushels a Day.

When the new 5,000-barrel flour mill which the Maple Leaf Milling Company, Limited, is building at Port Colborne, Ont., is completed, the daily output of the company's mills will equal the huge total given above. Already they have mills in operation at Brandon, Kenora, Thorold, St. Catharines and Welland, and the Port Colborne mill will be the largest of them all, with a daily capacity of 6,000 barrels of flour.

In its thoroughly modern equipment, too, as well as in its capacity, the new mill will compare favorably with any in the world.

Its location is without exception the best in Canada. In the first place there will be an unlimited market for its products among the stockraising Ontario farmers who grow but little wheat. In the second place, on account of its unique position on the great water and rail transport systems, the Maple Leaf Milling Company will be able to lay down flour at any of the Atlantic ports or in the markets of the old world, at a lower price than any other Canadian milling company.

With its geographical advantages, its splendid equipment, its experienced management and plenty of capital, the Maple Leaf Milling Company can confidently look forward to a prosperous future.

New York's offering of $50,000,000 bonds on Monday is considerable in itself, but small considered relatively to the debt to which it is an addition, making a gross total little short of a billion dollars.

WILL GIVE ANSWER WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Rev. Mr. Bingham, of Paris, Will Give His Reply to Call From Talbot Street Baptist Church.

WOMAN EQUAL TO MAN

Rev. J. G. Inkster Sees Reason for Editing of the Marriage Vow—Church Services on Sunday.

At the evening service in the Talbot Street Baptist Church, Rev. J. G. Inkster preached the answer to the call of Rev. H. B. Bingham to the call extended to him by the congregation would be given at the prayer meeting next Wednesday evening.

The pulpit committee, composed of Messrs. J. W. Westervelt, J. B. Campbell, A. Dale, and J. L. Secord, visited Paris on Saturday, and formally conveyed the call to Mr. Bingham.

Women Equal of Men.

Rev. J. G. Inkster preached a strong sermon on the subject, "Women," in the First Presbyterian Church last night. The church was well filled, and many women were present.

"We have a relic of paganism," he said, "in our marriage ceremony, where woman is asked to obey man. We might as well ask man to obey woman, because neither is obeying to an equal. The pagan family is founded on the man, but the Christian family is founded on the woman. When Christ came, He emphasized the value of the individual, and the woman, who at this time had been the weaker member, was more benefited by Christianity than man."

Mr. Peatfield Preaches.

After an absence of two weeks through illness, the Rev. E. H. Peatfield occupied his own pulpit at First Congregational Church on Sunday. The pastor resumed his work on the Book of Revelations. This was begun in January, and he expects to finish it in June. After explaining the Revelations, he said: "The dragon, John's symbol for the power of moral evil, reappears today in several forms, the drink question, gambling and social impurity."

St. Paul's Cathedral.

The pulpit of St. Paul's Cathedral was occupied by Principal Waller. In the evening he preached a very able sermon and deplored the fact that people are not flocking to hear the gospel, and attributed this to lack of attractiveness at the church. He said: "It would be folly to say that people do not stay at home are not Christians. People stay at home because there is no real attractiveness in the church. One great attraction is the Word of God. But do they get it? People will not despite that. It is because there are dead men in the pulpit. Talk of people not pressing to hear the Word of God, but I believe it is just because the Word of God is not there."

Along With God.

Rev. Dr. Ross, at St. Andrew's: "We must be alone with God when religion first finds us. It is a matter between our soul and our Creator. God's kindness always takes the form that we need. Not what we think we need, but what He in His wisdom knows that we require. Fear is not a weakness, and above all things, we should never be ashamed of being afraid of evil."

Climb the Ladder.

Rev. A. J. Vining, at Talbot Street Baptist Church: "It is surprising what God can do with ordinary Christians without number appear on history's page, who have risen from the most humble surroundings to do the greatest works. God places a ladder at the feet of every boy and says to him, 'Climb, climb.'"

Church Notes.

Next Sunday the Anglican churches of the city will inaugurate a special missionary campaign. The pulpits of the various churches will be occupied by outside pastors. In the morning the Rev. Rural Dean Chadwick, of Windsor, will preach in St. Paul's, and at night, Professor Jenkins, of Huron College, will preach.

A meeting will be held in St. Paul's Church tonight to consider the appointment of an assistant rector.

The annual meeting of the Epworth League of the Hyatt Avenue Methodist Church has been announced for tonight. Officers will be elected, and reports for the year submitted.

The Boys' Institute of the Askin Street Methodist Church will hold their annual banquet on Thursday evening next.

JOHN D. SHARMAN DIED ON SUNDAY

Well-Known Citizen Who Was Former Assistant Postmaster Here.

Mr. John D. Sharmar, assistant postmaster in this city for many years, died at his home, 813 Richmond street, yesterday morning, after a brief illness. Mr. Sharmar was 77 years old, was born in the county of Kildare, Ireland, in 1832. Early in life he studied engineering and surveying, and followed that profession until 1850 he made up his mind to come to Canada. He arrived in London on Sept. 28, 1850, and had resided here continuously ever since. London had then a population of 1,000.

Old-Time Merchant.

For some time Mr. Sharmar engaged in the drygoods business with the firm of Lawrance, Chisholm & Co., but in 1859 entered the postoffice as a clerk. In 1861 he was assistant postmaster on the promotion of the late R. J. C. Dawson to the position of postmaster. Mr. Sharmar was a member of the school board for 15 years, and was elected chairman of the board in 1887, and in that year laid the cornerstone of the Simcoe street school.

An Ex-Alderman.

In 1879, 1880 and 1881 he represented old No. 7 ward in the city council, and in 1887 and 1888 was one of the directors of the Western Fair.

Mr. Sharmar was keenly interested in lodge work and besides being the oldest living member of St. John's Lodge, No. 20, A. P. and A. M., having been initiated in October, 1856, he was a past most wise sovereign of the A. and A. Rite, Rose Croix Chapter, a past grand master of Perfection Lodge, I. O. O. F., a past chief ranger in the I. O. F., and a past master workman in London Lodge, A. O. U. W.

In 1854 he was married to Miss Sarah A. Barker, and besides her, he is survived by one son, William J., of Winnipeg, and three daughters, Miss Anna, of this city, and Mrs. John Han and Mrs. Thomas Baxter, of Grand Rapids.

Funeral on Tuesday.

The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon at Woodland Cemetery, and will be conducted under the auspices of St. John's Lodge, No. 20, Canon Dunn, of St. Paul's Cathedral, will conduct the services.

EAST LONDON

EAST END LADY DIED SUDDENLY ON SUNDAY

Mrs. Denocour, of 97 Inkerman Street, Fell to Floor and Passed Away.

Death came very suddenly yesterday morning about 7:30 to Mrs. Margaret Denocour, wife of Mr. W. Denocour, at her home, 97 Inkerman street. Mrs. Denocour had been subject to heart trouble for some time, and had had an attack of heart failure some time ago.

Coroner Ferguson was called, but found that death was due to angina pectoris, and that no further action was necessary. Besides her husband, Mrs. Denocour leaves seven children, the eldest of whom is 19. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon at Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

BISHOP FALLON DOES NOT LIKE ADDRESSES

Says He'd Rather Face Ten Regiments of Soldiers Than Ten Addresses.

Bishop Fallon, of this city, is nothing if not unceremonious, democratic, and straight to the point in his utterances. At St. Mary's church last night he confirmed a large class of children and adults, and he took occasion to "say things."

His lordship made many friends when he announced his attitude in regard to the presentation of addresses. Every man in public life knows how conspiciously are daily hatched to present him with addresses. The bishop is well aware of the procedure.

"It is true," he said, "that I requested that no address should be presented to me tonight. I see no reason for it. It is my desire that no address be presented to me by the clergy of the Diocese of London in St. Peter's Cathedral, on the day I was consecrated bishop, should suffice in the matter of addresses for God me to come."

"Why should you present me with an address? You know nothing about me. I have every reason to know that you are loyal to your church and your pastor. But I would rather face ten regiments of soldiers than ten addresses. Most of what is usually said in an address of this character might apply to anybody, and a lot of the stuff in it could not apply to me. But I want to thank you for the generous manner in which you have supported Fathers McKeon and Tobin."

In conclusion Bishop Fallon repeated his sermon in the morning in St. Peter's, when he mercilessly arraigned the curse of drink.

The crush in the church was remarkable, and hundreds were turned away. Several ladies fainted and created some excitement when they were carried out.

CHOOSING A PASTOR.

Rev. T. C. Shields, of his Adelaide Street Church, took for his subject Sunday morning the founding by Paul of the church at Philippi (Acts xvi, 11-15). Incidentally Mr. Shields gave some practical advice regarding the choosing of a pastor. Paul's going to Philippi, he said, was not of his own planning. In fact, his intention would have taken him in an opposite direction. But he was "forbidden" by the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Macedonia, and as a result the gospel stream was turned westward instead of eastward, the effect of which was we are feeling today. "The Holy Spirit," said the preacher, "administers the affairs of the church. In securing a pastor you need divine direction. In the text there is more said about the congregation than about the preacher. Every Christian should in a certain sense be a preacher. The day of the pulpit is not passed, but we may think too much of the preacher. If he is a man sent from God, you will get good preaching, and the Lord will look after the rest."

Next Sunday Rev. Mr. Shields' pastorate in London ends. In the morning he will address the members of the Seventh Regiment, who will parade to Adelaide Street Church, and in the evening he gives his closing discourse.

BANKERS OF THE COMPANY—Imperial Bank of Canada and Bank of Montreal

HEAD OFFICE, - - - TORONTO, CANADA

Mills are situated at Kenora, Thorold, St. Catharines, Welland and Port Colborne (the last named in course of construction), in the Province of Ontario, and Brandon, in the Province of Manitoba.

This Company a Going Concern

Right from its inception, Maple Leaf Milling Company, Limited, is a going concern, and the dividend on the preferred stock accrues from April 5th, 1910. This means that the subscribers to the preferred stock will receive dividends from the date.

It is a going concern, because it has taken over the whole undertaking as a going concern of the Maple Leaf Flour Mills Company, Limited, including therein that of the Hedley Shaw Milling Company, Limited.

Five of the six mills of the Company are in operation, and it is expected that the new 6,000-barrel mill now in course of erection at Port Colborne will be completed by January, 1911, and that a portion of the wheat crop of 1910 will be handled by it.

Security and Earning Power

The position of the preferred stock now being offered is specially secured, there not being any bonds ahead of it, and the Company has no bonds either issued or authorized.

The assets of the old Companies taken over stand in excess of all liabilities, and without any allowance for goodwill, trade marks, etc., at $3,770,524 11, this amount being ascertained on the basis of an appraisal by the Canadian-American Appraisal Company, Limited, as of March 17th, 1910, of the capital assets taken over, and the certificate Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Company, as of February 28th, 1910, as to current assets and current liabilities, with a liberal allowance for all contingencies. There has also been placed in the Treasury $1,000,000 of additional cash, which, besides permitting of the completion of a 6,000-barrel mill and a million-bushel elevator and storage warehouse at Port Colborne, and of fifteen additional elevators in the West, will provide the new Company with further working capital.

As per certificate of Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Company, of London, the earnings of the old Company on the present plant amounted from September 25th, 1908, to August 20th, 1909, to - - - $218,843.38

And from August 21st, 1909, to February 28th, 1910, to - - - $166,793.29

And for the latter period at a rate equal to over 13 per cent on the preferred stock of the Company.

Market for Output

The tremendous increase in the wheat crop of Western Canada makes additional elevator capacity particularly urgent. In the past a great proportion of the total wheat crop has almost of necessity found its way into Canadian mills, and the conditions in this respect should be very much the same as they are at present, when the total output of the Western Wheat Belt has increased, as experts expect it will, from 125,000,000 bushels in 1909 to fully 500,000,000 bushels by the end of 1915.

The points at which the company's mills are situated will place it in a very advantageous position and will enable it to lay down its flour at almost all points in Canada, at all Atlantic Sea Ports, in Great Britain, and in Foreign Markets cheaper than can be done by any other Canadian Milling Concern.

Management

Mr. Hedley Shaw, the Vice-President and Managing Director of the Maple Leaf Flour Mills Company, Limited, will be Managing Director of the new Company, and brings with him his entire staff of tried and experienced officials.

Full details regarding the terms of subscription and complete facts, as set forth in the prospectus, will be found in the large display advertisement published in the issue of The Advertiser on April 23 and 30.
