LIBERALS LOYAL IN OPPOSITION TO NAVAL BILL

London Times Criticizes the Attitude of the Conservatives Warmly.

Canadians Who Differ Are Not Necessarily Indifferent to British Interests.

London, May 23.-The Times after reviewing the naval controversy in the Canadian Commons says: While public speakers and writers in this ountry will refrain from interfering with the domestic arguments of the dominions they cannot be neutral in the present situation. For our part we shall not conceal our opinion that Premier Borden's speeches have shown a superior and unchallenged grasp of the facts, but we are far from supposing that those whether in Canada or this country who take a different view are less loyal. This point requires to be pressed.

Not Reasonable.

It is not reasonable to expect that in this matter any more than in the ions should not be held and expressed on either side, but British comment on the reciprocity agreement was carried to the further point of questioning the loyalty of those in Canada who thought the agreement sound. Imputations of that nature are an inevitable feature of a do-
