Weekly British Colonist.

TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR. VICTORIA, BRITISH COLUMBIA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1885. VOLUME XXVII NO 36.

Weekly Colonist.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1885

ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING IN TIME FOR THE MAIL

R. W. E. GLEGHORN,

THE COLONIST BUILDING, GOVERNMENT ST.

TERMS—INVARIABLY IN ADVANCE.

THE DAILY COLONIST—For Year, (Postage Free to any part of Canada).....$6.00

Terms of a year at the same rate as above, if paid for by week in advance.....10 Cents.

ADVERTISEMENTS—Ordinary Rates. Solid nonpareil—First insertion 10 cents, each subsequent insertion 5 cents. Advertisements not ordered for a specified time will be kept in each issue of the Daily Colonist and charged for as such. Advertisements not to occupy more than one inch. Advertisements inserted for less than $1.00.

SPECIAL NOTICES among the local notices or reading matter, 25 cents per line each insertion; or $1 per line per month. "To Let," "Wanted," "For Sale," "Lost," "Found," "Strayed," "Notice to Creditors," "Notice to Contractors," "Notice to Mariners," "Notice to Shipping," "Notice to Sportsmen," "Notice to Trespassers," "Notice to Tenants," "Notice to Purchasers," "Notice to Builders," "Notice to Carpenters," "Notice to Masons," "Notice to Painters," "Notice to Plumbers," "Notice to Gasfitters," "Notice to Tinsmiths," "Notice to Blacksmiths," "Notice to Boilermakers," "Notice to Engineers," "Notice to Firemen," "Notice to Brakemen," "Notice to Conductors," "Notice to Passengers," "Notice to Shippers," "Notice to Consignees," "Notice to Agents," "Notice to Correspondents," "Notice to Subscribers," "Notice to Readers," "Notice to Advertisers," "Notice to Publishers," "Notice to Printers," "Notice to Binders," "Notice to Stereotypers," "Notice to Electrotypers," "Notice to Photographers," "Notice to Lithographers," "Notice to Engravers," "Notice to Artists," "Notice to Musicians," "Notice to Actors," "Notice to Actresses," "Notice to Managers," "Notice to Proprietors," "Notice to Editors," "Notice to Reporters," "Notice to Compositors," "Notice to Pressmen," "Notice to Bookbin