Russian Forces Massing on the Afghan Frontier—The Bishop of Lincoln's Case.

Parliament Women Indignant at the Proposed Bill Restricting Factory Work to Day Time.

THE DOWNFALL OF PREMIER CRISP. It is the result of a revolt against the continued policy of war, which, with-out new measures, had already reached a point the Italians considered almost unbearable.

There is no doubt that the ministers are in a difficult position. If they fail to make a large demand on the generosity of Parliament, they will have the "vice" members about their ears like a nest of hornets, and will find themselves accused of having broken their implied promise, made in the autumn, if, however, they make even moderate demand, they have to contend with the whole force of the opposition and with the economists on the conservative benches.
