SALVATION ARMY TO SOLVE LABOR PROBLEM

Cooperating With the Provincial Government Will Bring Immigrants
NOW AT WORK ON THE SCHEME

Commissioner Combes to Arrive in Victoria Early Next Month in Connection With Project

IMMIGRANTS to the number of 25,000 will be brought to Canada through the instrumentality of the Salvation Army next year. They will be selected from the industrial laboring classes of England, and if negotiations which have been opened by the provincial government are successful, a large proportion will find their way to British Columbia.

One of the representatives of the local branch of the Army, discussing the matter Saturday, said that Commissioner Combes, who has charge of this branch of the work of that organization, will arrive in Victoria on December 4. His mission to the Coast is to interview the provincial government upon the latter's proposal that the Army should assist in effecting a solution of the labor problem existing in this province at the present time. It is hoped that the outcome of these conferences will be a mutually satisfactory arrangement whereby a large proportion of these homeseekers may be turned in this direction.

Adjutant White of the Salvation Army is now on the Coast. He arrived some days ago and will be associated with the commissioner in the latter's negotiations with the government. It is expected that Minister of Agriculture Tafford will be able to come to some understanding which will induce the two Army officials to recommend that their immigration operations next year Western Canada be given special consideration. Of course, it is taken for granted that the government will exercise its influence with the transportation companies, either the C. P. R. or the Blue Funnel line of steamers, to bring the settlers here at the cheapest possible rate. The latter, no matter how hard-working they may be at home, never have much ready money. That goes without saying, and therefore it is possible to offer them special inducement, and the Salvation Army agrees to take the matter up, there is every reason to believe that the efforts being made to relieve the situation here will prove more successful than the most sanguine think possible.

Last year the Salvation Army brought to Canada 12,000 people. They selected them from the most desirable classes, arranged for their passage to the Dominion, and distributed them among the different provinces. Naturally the eastern sections derived the most benefit. A few got as far west as British Columbia. All, however, found positions and are now living in circumstances which, in comparison to their condition at home, are considered luxurious.

The gratifying issue of the Army's venture last year has encouraged them to such an extent that it is their intention to increase the scope of their operations during the ensuing summer. They figure upon landing 25,000 strangers upon the shores of Canada, and, moreover, in looking after the material welfare of these people until they are able to obtain positions sufficiently lucrative to provide for their maintenance. This is a most laudable task, but so thorough is the organization directed by Commissioner Combes that there is no doubt that it will be carried out as contemplated without a hitch.

The latter official is reported to have stated that there is employment for thousands all through the country.

Kidney Disease

COMES ON QUIETLY

Perhaps no other organs work harder than the kidneys to preserve the general health of the body, and most people are troubled with some form of Kidney Complaint, but do not suspect it. It may have been in the system for some time. There may have been backaches, swelling of the feet and ankles, disturbances of the urinary organs, such as brick dust deposit in the urine, highly colored, scanty or cloudy urine, bladder pains, frequent or suppressed urination, burning sensation when urinating, etc. Do not neglect any of these symptoms, for if neglected, they will eventually lead to Bright's Disease, Dropsy and Diabetes.

On the first sign of anything wrong
DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS
Should Be Taken

They go to the seat of the trouble, strengthen the kidneys and help them to filter the blood properly and flush off all the impurities which cause kidney trouble. Mr. Thomas Petty, Massey, Ont., writes: "After arriving in Canada from New Zealand, a couple of years ago, I suffered very much from kidney trouble. I tried several remedies, but they did me no good. Finally my back became so lame I could scarcely walk. I was advised to try Doan's Kidney Pills, and after taking them I felt like a new man."

Price 50c per box of 3 boxes for $1.25 at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto, Ont.

ESTER MITCHELL CLINGS TO CORPSE

Poignant Grief Overcomes the Girl
Who Killed Her Brother in City of Seattle

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 17.—Mrs. Mad Creffed, widow of the Holly Roller prophet, who, with Esther Mitchell, is held for the murder of the latter's brother George, died shortly after 11 o'clock last night in her cell in the county jail.

But a short time before her death she played a game of cards with the other women who are confined in that ward in the jail.

Sheriff Lon C. Smith nor any of his deputies had received any intimation that the woman was ill and their first knowledge that she was sick, or that anything was wrong in that part of the jail, was when women prisoners in the main hall met her as she came out of her cell after a piercing scream was heard just after the direction of Mrs. Creffed's cell and Esther Mitchell, who fired the shot that killed her brother George Mitchell, for which both she and Mrs. Creffed were held in custody, left the women's department. Although Sheriff Smith and his deputies and jailers at first suspected that the woman had taken poison, they came to the conclusion after they had made a thorough search of her cell, that she had died from natural causes.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Creffed and Esther Mitchell appeared to be in their usual health. Mrs. Creffed complained of a slight fluency she had been in her usual health during the past few days. Mrs. Creffed's cellmate, who lives on Pike street, was a caller yesterday afternoon and walked with the two women a short time.

Last night before 10 o'clock Esther Mitchell, who had been in the women's department, was found in the main sleeping apartment of the women prisoners in the county jail. Mrs. Creffed was lying on her back, and her hands were raised above her head. She did not seem to be ill.

At 10 o'clock last night Esther Mitchell and Mrs. Creffed were found in the main sleeping apartment of the women prisoners in the county jail. The cell in which they were confined was the one that had been occupied by the woman who had been found dead. Before going to bed Mrs. Creffed went to the toilet and saw her brother George Mitchell, who was lying on his back, and she saw that he was dead. She saw that he was dead, and she saw that he was dead.

Several women rushed into the cell, and they saw that the woman was dead. They saw that the woman was dead, and they saw that the woman was dead. They saw that the woman was dead, and they saw that the woman was dead.

After Deputy Coroner Wiltshire had pronounced the woman dead the body of Esther Mitchell was allowed to accompany the corpse there. The younger woman had both her head and that of the dead woman under the sheet, and covered the face of her companion with her hands.

Questions were asked her at intervals by the jailers and others who were in the office. She responded to all inquiries, and her grief was not of the kind that admits of tears. Her eyes were dilated and she appeared to be suffering from some strain.

"Send a message to Mr. Holt, please. Let me stay with the body," said Esther Mitchell. "She was in my arms when she first felt pain. She seemed to me to be in great pain. She was in my arms when she first felt pain. She seemed to me to be in great pain."

When the dead woman arrived and the corpse was taken from the single mourner, the girl did not make a scene. Sheriff Smith touched the kneeling figure beside the corpse.

"She will have to go now, Esther," said the sheriff.

The girl arose, then seated herself on a chair and with her head bowed, she watched the undertaker place it in the basket, cover it with a sheet and carry it to the waiting wagon. The iron doors were locked and the girl was returned to her cell. Still she kept up her companion's name and shed a few tears when left alone.

HAD THIRTY-TWO BOILS

Two Bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters
Cured Him

Perfect organic action makes bad blood too, but it does not ruin prices. If the blood becomes impure, poisoned or contaminated in any way from constitutional, biliousness or any other cause, some especially weak organs must soon become diseased thereby, or the whole system may suffer in consequence.

Pimples, boils, blotches, ulcers, festering sores, abscesses, tumors, rashes or some serious and perhaps incurable blood disease may result. There is no medicine on the market today to equal the old and well known remedy, for all cases of bad blood.

Mr. Ernest B. Tupper, Round Hill, N.S., says: "I had Burdock Blood Bitters at great medicine for boils. I had them so bad I could not work. I had thirty-two on my back at one time. I used only two bottles of B. B. B. and they completely cured me. Cannot recommend it too highly." Price $1.00 per bottle or six bottles for $5.00.

as attorney with the defence in the Creffed and Mitchell cases, when informed early this morning of Mrs. Creffed's death, said: "I don't think she has taken her own life. I have been closely associated with her and her defence counsel. She was a woman who believed implicitly in her religious faith, and would not intentionally violate this faith in any respect. From numerous conversations that I have had with her since her incarceration, I am firmly of the belief that she would not consider it right to take her own life, and in making this statement I do not forget the fact that she was jointly charged with Esther Mitchell with the crime of murder in taking the life of the one who took her husband's life."

Blow to Father
"But it is generally conceded by all fair-minded persons who knew the facts connected with the mentality of these two girls that they were not in any condition mentally to make them responsible in law for their acts."

No Effect on Mitchell Case
"As it is, Mrs. Creffed's death will have no legal effect upon the prosecution of Esther Mitchell, although it may have its moral influence."

From this report the state appealed, and of the 20th of the women's department, argued before the supreme court at Olympia. The supreme court requested the attorneys for state and defence to file additional briefs on the question of constitutionality of the law under which the insanity proceedings in the superior court were determined. Up to the present time the attorneys for state and defence have not filed their briefs in these cases. So the whole matter is indefinite."

Change in Canadian Sentiment
"It is very possible, not to say probable, that the sentiment of mind regarding reciprocity does not exist among the Canadians as prevailed some years ago. They have been getting a great deal of news over the world, and largely from the United States, and there is a reason to believe that the sentiment across the border may have changed somewhat. However, it is not one thing to do for representatives whom Chicago and the northwest have sent to Washington, and who by the action they have been able to do, are worthy of re-election, and that is to devote their energies perfectly to securing reciprocity for the benefit of the northwest. Mr. Hill, and which has met with so much response from the men worth while in the northwest."

Minnesota's congressmen are practically committed to the measure of an hearty in its favor. There is little division of sentiment so far as I know among any of the congressmen from the states of the northwest. We ought to be for it, and we are for it."

EXTENSIVE PLANS.
Ottawa, Nov. 17.—Mackenzie & Mann will apply at the next session of parliament for an extension of their line from Edmonton to the Pacific coast. Identical proposals have been made to the international boundary, from Athabasca and McLeod river, from the headwaters of the McLeod, and from Saskatchewan to South Saskatchewan river.

WAR AT CRONSTADT.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 17.—The state of siege which has existed at Cronstadt has been replaced by a state of war, and the authorities have instituted a temporary government-generalship for that port.

The town and district of Halifax has been declared under a state of extraordinary defence.

A prefecture has been created at Batuan, and the authorities have placed other districts in a state of forced defence.

Dr. Zetter, a celebrated bachelor, was asked why he never married. "Well," he said, "marriage must be either paradise or inferno. Now I do not desire paradise, and I should surely not get in it, and inferno I have a strong objection to."
