We walk on starry fields of white And yet ignore the duisies? For blessings common in our sight We sigh for some supreme delight To crown our lives with splendor, And quite ignore our daily store Of pleasures sweet and tender.

Our cares are bold and push their way
Upon our thought and feeling.
They hang about us all the day,
Our time for pleasure stealing,
So unobstructive many a joy
We pass by and forget it,
But worry strives to own our lives
And conquers if we let it.

There's not a day in all the year
But holds some hidden pleasure
And looking back joys oft appear
To brim the past's wide measure.
But blessings are like friends, I hold,
Who love and labor uear us.
We ought to raise our notes of praise
While living hearts can hear us.

Fall many a blessing wears the guise
Of worry or of trouble.
Farseeing is the soul and wise
Who knows the mask is double,
But he who has the faith and strength
To thank his God for sorrow
Has found a joy without alloy
To gladden every morrow.

To gladden every moreow.

We ought to make the moments notes
Of happy, glad Thanksgiving;
The hours and days a silent phrase
Of music we are living.
And so the theme should swell and grow.
As weeks and months pass o'er us,
And rise sublime at this good time,
A grand Thanksgiving chorus.
