Reports from outside grain markets are Bank of England rate-3 per cent.

Wheat opened in New York at $1.0834, advanced 34c and closed at $1.084; in Toledo at $1.0134 and closed at $1.0134. The only advices received from St. Louis and Duluth quoted wheat at 97c and 98% respectively.

The New York stock market was very dull today. There was a steady market for bonds and the business in them was large compared with stocks. To-morrow will be half-holiday and Mosday a whole holiday, which partially accounts for the indisposition to trade.

LOCAL STOCK EXCHANGE.

There was a little more doing on 'Change today, but business is still very quiet. Frices rather easier. Montreal held ¼ lower with bids ¼ higher. Bids for Ontario advanced ¼ while for Toronto and Dominion fell off 1 and 2 respectively. Hamilton lower, 153 being asked and 150 bid. Western Assurance declined ¼ to ¼. N.W.L. held ¼ lower with bids ¾ higher. Quotations are:

There is some improvement in trade, but business is still quiet. The feature of the trade is the exceptional strength in the tea market. Sugars are particularly dull. Fruits steady and likely to keep so, demand light. Canned goods strong, demand fair. Coffees dull and unchanged. Payments fair.

HARDWARE.

This week a hopeful feeling appears to exist throughout the country with regard to the opening of spring trade, and a number of orders are being booked for shipment about March 15. Collections at the moment are slow, yet customers are paying fairly well and buying better than could be expected in face of the excitement attending the election campaign. Prices of all metals continue particularly firm and cables from England even report an advance. Stocks are light and there is no disposition on the part of the trade to do any undue cutting. The outlook is promising.
