Five Policies Cancelled.

In answer to Crown Attorney Far-well's question, "Was the medical re-port made by you an honest or a dis-honest application ?" the witness said that he could not imagine anything more dishonest. The first agreement was that the policy was to be for $5000, of which the witness was to re-ceive $1000 Francey feared that Alger In his evidence before Magistrate Harper to-day, Mr. George Broughall of the Equitable Life stated that his company had canceled two policies on the life of A. Wanted Still More Insurance.

The possibility of placing still more insurance was discussed after the first policy was placed. The witness said that Mrs. Alger thought she had ap-plied for only $1000, and was kept in complete ignorance of the fact that she had been accepted by the Equitable Company. When Alger suggested to her that she take out a policy in the London and Lancashire, she said that as Dr. Francey had rejected her for condition of his wife's nearth and the as Dr. Francey had rejected her for hature of the disease from which she suffered.
