THE N. W YORKER

QUARTO EDITION.

THE Publishers of THE NEW-YORKER, encouraged by the generous and steadily increasing patronage which has hitherto rewarded their exertions; propose to issue, from the commencement of their third Volume on the 26th of March ensuing, a new Double Quarto Edition of their journal, not instead of but in addition to that now published. Advertisements, except possibly a few of a strictly literary character, will be entirely excluded; and, in addition to all the matter presented in the folio New-Yorker, the Quarto will contain a page of popular music, &c. &c. and be accompanied by a handsome Title page and comprehensive Index at the close of the Volume.

The general features of the New-Yorker will remain essentially as they have heretofore been. Its columns will contain—

I. General Literature.—Original Tales, Essays Reviews, Poems, &c. with corresponding selections from the Quarterlies, Monthlies and all the better class of periodicals, Foreign and American, with choice extracts from new works of substantial excellence. The Editor acknowledges with pride and gratitude his obligations to his regular contributors and among them are some whose names have shed lustre on the cause of American literature—for the steadfast support hitherto afforded him, and the confidence with which he is now enabled to assure the public that it will not soon be withdrawn. He takes leisure in recording the fact that, since the establishment of the New-Yorker, no one other journal has afforded specimens in equal extent and variety of the productions of all eminent American writers of whatever section or class—a characteristic which he hopes it may still preserve; while his selections from the best foreign works have been exceeded—in quantity at least—by those of but three or four among the myriad of his Atlantic periodicals.

II. National Politics.—It has been the aim of the Editor to present a full and fair exhibit of the aspects, movements and struggles of parties, in our country, including the meetings of Conventions, nomination of Candidates for state and national Offices, and all other significant manifestations of political feeling, with the general results of elections, as fast as ascertained, and the official canvass in each instance, as soon as it shall have reached us. This course is believed to be in many respects original with this journal; and it is considered that we have just cause of felicitation in the fact that, persued as it has been through two years of unremitted political warfare, the fairness and general accuracy of our statements and returns have very rarely, if ever, been questioned. The Editor reserves to himself the right of remarking, as circumstances may seem to require and justice to dictate, on the less exciting political topics of the day, as on all others, with calmness, defence and moderation; but he will strive—he trusts not less successfully than hitherto—to exclude from the columns of the New Yorker every observation, reflection, or even argument, which may wantonly do violence to the sincere convictions of any well informed reader, of whatever principle or party.

III. General Intelligence. In this department we can only promise the most unwearied industry and patience in the collection, condensation, and arrangement of the news, Foreign and Domestic, which may be gathered from the weekly reception of four hundred journals, including some choice European periodicals, and which may be afforded us by the attention of our friends abroad among whom are stated correspondents at Paris and Mexico. Although the favors of these last will generally wear a literray rather than political aspect, we are yet justified in our confidence that no important intelligence which their position will enable them to transmit us more succinctly or speedily than would otherwise reach us will in any case be withheld.

Literary notices, Statistics, Brief notices of works of Art, Amusements, the Drama, &c. &c. will from time to time be given. As a general rule, however, it will be the aim of the Editor to embody such articles, whether original or selected, as shall at least combine instruction with entertainment.

CONDITIONS.

The Quarto New-Yorker will be published every Saturday afternoon on an extra imperial sheet of the finest quality, comprising sixteen pages of three columns each, and afforded to its patrons in the city and country at THREE DOLLARS per annum, payably indexibly in advance. Any person or persons sending us $2 positively free of postage or other charges will receive two copies for one year, or a single copy for two years, and in the same proportion for a larger sum. The few who may desire to take the folio edition for immediate perusal and the Quarto for binding will be entitled to receive both for $4 50 in advance.

GREELY & CO.

 THE NEW-YORKER (folio) will continue to be published at Two Dollars per annum in advance, to which Fifty cents will be added if not paid within six months. It will not however, be forwarded on credit to new subscriber of whose solvency we have no satisfactory assurance.

THE ALBION

PROSPECTUS OF THE FOURTH VOLUME

A JOURNAL OF THE NEWS, POLITICS, AND LITERATURE OF EUROPE.

The fourth volume of the New Series of THE ALBION commenced on the first Saturday of the present year, 1836,

This Journal, which embodies the News Politics and Literature of Europe, more particularly of Great Britain, has been established nearly Fourteen Years and has obtained a reputation and circulation far surpassing the most sanguine expectations of its founders. This flattering encouragement has enabled the Proprietor, on three separate occasions, to improve, enlarge, and embellish the work, and to throw into its pages such an increased quantity of political, literary, and scientific matter, as to render it, in the estimation of its friends, one of the most efficient weekly journals in the English language.

In its details the Albion will be found to embrace—Notices and copious extracts from all the new publications of value issuing from the British Press;—the Debates in both Houses of Parliament, with the most remarkable Speeches at length—and the general intelligence of the British Empire, the Continent of Europe, and other parts of the globe. In its higher portions will be found the most amusing and agreeable Tales of the British Periodicals, which are, so remarkable for their lively and sparkling talent selected with a diligence and care that has drawn forth the most unqualified approbation. Any thing that tends in the remotest degree to shock female delicacy, or to offend national affection, is carefully excluded, by which course the paper has become an intimate of the most respectable and intellectual families, and may be found in the Drawing Rooms and on the tables of the most literary persons in the North American Continent.

Poetry, History, Biography, Music, and the Drama receive distinct and proper attention, while Scientific and Geographical Discoveries, Voyages, and travels &c &c., are faithfully recorded. The Witand Anecdote of the great European World,—the London and Parisian Fashions, and a weekly summary of the Miscellaneous intelligence of the day complete the message.

Each yearly volume contains about five and twenty pieces of new and fashionable English, French, Spanish, and Italian Music, together with frequent Maps, Plans, Sketches, and Diagrams, illustrative of subjects treated of in the general scope of the work. At the end of each volume, a handsome Title Page and a copious and well arranged Index to present to each subscriber.

The Albion is published every Saturday morning in the Quarto form, on a large imperial sheet of exceedingly fine paper printed with beautiful type, at six Dollars Per Annum, payable in advance.

Office, 77 Cedar Street near Broadway, New York
