M. K. PIPER

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 29, 1911.

A bill having for its purpose the restoration of riparian rights to the public of Nova Scotia is before the house of Assembly and is expected in a this issue of the Monitor-Sentinel. The preamble of the bill is as follows:

"Whereas it is fit and proper that every resident in Nova Scotia shall have the right or privilege of fishing with rod and line for salmon, trout and other fish in the waters of Nova Scotia, notwithstanding the lands under and adjoining such waters may be owned by the Crown or private individuals or corporations.

Naturally this bill is strongly opposed by property-owners whose land adjoins fishing streams from which they claim exclusive benefit, but the mass of people who hold the opinion that every citizen should have a right to the natural food products of the streams, lakes and forests will approve heartily of the measure.

The act provides, as it should for pearlites attached to vandalism or damage to property arising from carelessness. It is possible there may be also an amendment providing for compensation to property-holders, by way of an expropriation clause.

War May Be Delayed But Not Abolished

Thinks Arbitration Treaty With Washington Is Still In Sight Direction—A Paris View.

London, March 21.—Admiral Lord Charles Beresford warmly endorsed the universal peace movement in the House of Commons last evening. He said, if we can get the nations which make up the Empire and the United States to come together and throw in their power to try to influence all other powers on the side of peace much will be done to delay war. It might not stop war, but it would give us time to pause, and if we could get time, we should often have no war.

"You are never going to do away with war," he added, "unless you are so well armed that an enemy cannot attack you."

CONTROL OF PACIFIC

Paris, March 21.—Diplomats here see the possibility of a new world alignment of the powers in the request by President Taft for an arbitration agreement with Great Britain. It is, they declare, an astute plan on the part of the United States to insure peaceful relations with England in the event—not here considered improbable—of trouble of a serious nature growing out of the Mexican situation.

"Whatever the people of the United States may think it is a serious matter that Japan has long been preparing for war, military activities, the object of which may be guessed without too shrewd an application of deductive methods.

That England is fully aware of the vast significance of America's proposal is held to have been proven by the fact that the British Department of State at once made known to Japan the tenor of President Taft's proposition. Whether the opinion of Japan would carry weight with John Bull remains to be seen.

It has long been known that the present alliance between England and Japan is most irksome to the British colonial possessions. Canada, Australia and New Zealand welcome its abrogation. It has been openly hinted, too, that Japan might find more congenial company were she aligned with Germany—a position in which she cannot place herself unless she become so directly and the recent demands made by the Czar against the Chinese indicate a perfect agreement with the Mikado.

The desirability of patronizing one Company in preference to another is justifiable and wise, when clearly demonstrated that it is in the first rank respect-these features in which you as a policy-holder are materially interested, viz:— SECURITY AND PROFIT

THE EXCELSIOR LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF TORONTO

The legal requirements for security are exceeded by the establishment of it: SPECIAL RESERVE FUND. By its careful conservative management it claims to have the lowest mortality experience on record, which with its high interest earning makes it in every way the most desirable company to insure in from a profit standpoint.

ATTRACTIVE CONTRACT TO PRODUCERS

The Fishing Rights of the People

A Bill in the House of Assembly Regarding Salmon and Trout Fishing.

Mr. Hall introduced the following bill in the house of assembly yesterday afternoon, which will be interesting to the people who like to have a day's fishing once in a while.

Whereas it is fit and proper that every resident in Nova Scotia shall have the right or privilege of fishing with rod and line for salmon, trout and other fish in the waters of Nova Scotia, notwithstanding the lands under and adjoining such waters may be owned by the crown or private individuals or corporations.

Be enacted by the governor, council and assembly as follows:

1. Any resident of Nova Scotia shall, during the open season, be at liberty to go and he is hereby vested with the right and privilege of going on foot along the banks of any brook, stream, river or lake in the province upon any woodlands or uncultivated lands owned by the crown, private individuals or corporations for the purpose of fishing with rod and line, and he shall be at liberty to fish for and catch salmon, trout and other fish frequenting such waters and to carry away any fish he may catch and he may also go upon such waters in boat or canoe for the purpose of such rod fishing and carry on the sport of fishing on such waters so long as he does no actual damage to the property over which he travels, and he shall not be subjected to any opposition whatever by the owners or occupiers of such lands so long as he merely pursues or enjoys the sport of rod fishing, and no owner or occu-pier of such lands shall have any action or claim for damages against any person proceeding upon woodlands or other uncultivated lands for the purpose of rod fishing. And such owner or occupier shall have no right whatever for compensation of any kind against any such person for proceeding along woodlands or other uncultivated lands for the purpose of rod fishing unless such person shall be proved to have committed actual damage.

2. If, however, any person when upon the lands belonging to the crown or any private individual or corporation shall cause any actual damage by building fires which shall spread and cause destruction or injury to growing trees, buildings, or fences or other improvements, he shall be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a period not exceeding $100, together with the actual value of the property destroyed or injured.

3. If, however, any person when
shall be liable on summary convic-
actual value of the property destroyed
or injured.

Want Canada's Trade

Melbourne Would Have Subsidy
For Freight Service

Melbourne, March 13.—A deputation of the Chamber of Commerce which waited on Mr. Frank G. Tudor, minister of trade and commerce, today discussed the possibility of developing Canadian Australian trade. The deputation pointed out the importance of securing new markets and suggested that the government might subsidize a freight service to prevent local exporters from losing their hold on Canadian markets.

The minister promised to lay the matter before the cabinet, but he did not expect any action will be taken. He announced that, according to the figures of 1909 the Australian export trade with Canada amounted to only $400,000 and said that while the dimensions of this trade were no greater last year he did not think the government would subsidize direct lines.
He pointed out also that though the mail contract had lapsed Canadian steamers still called at Sydney and the commonwealth was no worse off in that respect.

Obituary.

G. H. ARNOLD GOODWIN.

G. H. A. Goodwin, a number of years editor and publisher of the "Californian" Cultivator, and for the past ten years engaged in real estate business, died at his home in Hollywood, at an early hour yesterday, aged 49.

He was a native of England, first coming to this country with his parents when he was a small boy. Soon after coming to Los Angeles in 1887, he established the "Californian Cultivator" which he conducted until 1900, when he disposed of it and went into real-estate business as head of the firm of H. A. Goodwin Company, continuing in the business until he died.

He leaves a widow and three sons in the city, Henry P. and Donald P. being engaged in the practice of law, and the younger, W. Meredith Goodwin, being a High School student.

The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the family residence, No. 175 Crown Avenue, Hollywood, one block north of Prospect avenue. The services will be conducted by Rev. Dr. Patterson of Hollywood Presbyterian Church, Los Angeles Times.

The above notice refers to G. H.
Arnold Goodwin, son of Mr. and Mrs.
George Goodwin, who came to this country from England, while their son, who was their only child, was but a young lad, and settled on a farm in Lower Gwynedd. The health of Mr.
Goodwin becoming seriously impaired, the family moved to Los Angeles, about twenty years ago. Mr. Arnold Goodwin with his wife (who was Miss Laura Phinney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
David Phinney of Gwynedd) and two children accompanying Mr. and Mrs.
Goodwin senior, Mrs. Goodwin senior lived but a few years, but Mr. Goodwin resided with his son up to the time of his death.

Mr. Arnold Goodwin and family made a visit to Nova Scotia two or three years ago and on their return to California were accompanied by Mrs.
Goodwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Phinney, and a brother.

Mr. Goodwin was in his prime and at the height of a successful business career when attacked by his fatal illness. Many friends here will deeply sympathize with the bereaved family.

After a funeral service held at his late home on Saturday, the 18th inst., cremation took place at Rosevale cemetery.

WESTON HALL EATON.

Again has the silent messenger visited our community at Granville Centre and in the still hours of the night, called for Mr. Weston H. Eaton, Friday, 24th inst., at 12 o'clock after an illness of one week, of heart trouble following a grippe. Mr. Eaton was born in 1845, on the homestead where he spent the later years of his life. He was the eldest child of the late Stephen and Sarah Hall Eaton. His early life was spent in lumbering and farming in Lower Granville and Bear River. At the death of his father in 1892 he came to the old home where he has since resided. Always jovial, and of a retiring disposition, he had won for himself many friends, who sympathize deeply with the bereaved family in their unexpected sorrow.

He leaves to mourn, a widow, formerly Miss Gabrielle Rice of Bear River, one son Clarence at home, and one daughter Mrs. Ernest R. Wade, of Grand Falls N. B. a bride of two months, who arrived too late to see her father conscious.
There is also one brother Leonard in Florida, and one half brother Harry of this place. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, and was very largely attended. Rev. G. P. Raymond conducting the service. A particularly sad feature is that Mr. Clarence Eaton who is seriously ill with la grippe has been unable to see his father and was unable to leave his bed the day of the funeral.—Cox.

My Future

I know not what the future hath Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life or death His mercy underlies.

And if my heart and flesh are weak To bear an untried pain, The bruised reed He will not break But strengthen and sustain.

No offering of my own I have,
Nor works my faith to prove;
I can but give the gifts He gave,
Beyond His love and care.

And so, beside the silent sea I wait the muffled oar;
No harm from Him can come to me On ocean or on shore.

I know not where His islands life Their founded palms in air;
To know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care.

O brothers, if my faith is vain, It hopes like these betray, Pray for me, that my feet may gain The sure and safer way.

And thou, O Lord, by whom are seen Thy creatures as they be, Forgive me if too close I lean My human heart on Thee.

NOTE.—The above verses from Whittier's "Eternal Goodness" and with those that follow, were found in the late Rev. W. H. Warren's desk and were read at his funeral as expressive of the faith and hope that cherished his later years.

EVERY YEAR.
The days have less of gladness
Every year—
The nights more weight of sadness
Every year.
Fair springs no longer charm us
The winds and weather harm us The threats of death alarm us
Every year.

But the truer life draws nigher,
And its morning-star climbs higher,
Every year.
Earth's hold on us grows lighter,
And the heavy burden lighter,
And the Dawn immortal brighter
Every year.

THOU HOLDEST ALL.
And deep and dark the fearful gloom Unlighted
Of that untried and all surrounding sea
On whose bleak shore arriving—alone We find and lose ourselves at last —in Thee.

Yea! in Thy life our little lives are ended,
Into Thy depths our trembling spirits fall;
In Thee enfolded, gathered, comprehended,
As holds the sea her waves,—Thou holdest all!
