

IV.

At the Mercy of the Tide. — Ears deafened. — Eyes blinded.
— A fresh Struggle for Life. — The Roar of the Steam Whistle. — Where are we? — Pat explores. — A desolate Abode. — The falling Tides. — Without Food and Shelter. 54

V.

Flight of Solomon. — In Hiding. — Solomon is himself again. — Up the River. — Through the Country. — A long Drive. — An Indian Village. — An Indian Guide.
— Preparing for the Expedition. 68

VI.

A long Drive, and a long Walk. — The wild Woods. — An Encampment. — The blazing Fire. — Lo! the poor Indian. — The Wolf and the Watch-dog. — The Spring of the Wild Beast. — Solomon to the Rescue. — A Fight and a Flight. 81

VII.

Passing the Night. — On Guard. — The watchful Sentinel.
— Plans. — Through the Woods. — The winding River.
— Fishing. — The overcast Sky. — Arrival of Pat with startling Tidings. — A useless Search. 95

VIII.

The Loss of Phil. — Deep Gloom and heavy Grief. — A Night of Terror. — The torrid Atmosphere. — The