WHAT OUR COUNTRY NEEDS.

God give us men, a time like this demands
 Strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and ready hands,
 Men whom the lust of office does not kill;
 Men whom the spoils of office cannot buy,
 Men who possess opinions and a will;
 Men who have honor, men who will not lie,
 Men who can stand before a demagogue
 And damn his treacherous flatteries without winking.
 Tall men, sun-crowned, who live above the fog
 In public duty and in private thinking,
 For, while the rabble, with their thumb-worn creeds,
 Their large professions and their little deeds
 Mingle in selfish strife; lo, Freedom weeps,
 Wrong rules the land, and waiting justice sleeps.

—Dr. J. G. Holland.

THE REAL QUESTION.

What shall we do with the dram-shop? If we refuse to face this question to-day, we may have to face, to-morrow, the question, "What will the dram shop do with us?" Shall we regulate it? We have tried it for 100 years, and to-day it regulates the regulation. Prohibit it in spots? As well try to cure pyaemia by washes and salves, for the poison, alcohol, is in the very blood of the nation. The question is not what your private appetite or mine may be, not what the moral quality of the wine glass may be, but what shall be done with this public institution, the liquor traffic—the saloon, that claims protection from courts, and police and fire departments. It is a public institution, amenable to public laws, and, as all of our public institutions, must bow before the requirements of the public good. If law cannot be demanded against private appetites, neither can needed law be refused because some private appetites will suffer thereby.—(Christian Statesman.)

THE OLD SUPERSTITION THAT GROG IS A GOOD THING FOR MEN BEFORE, DURING OR AFTER A MARCH HAS BEEN PROVED BY SCIENTIFIC MEN OF ALL NATIONS TO BE A FALLACY, AND IS STILL MAINTAINED BY MEN WHO MISTAKE THE CRAVINGS ARISING SOLELY FROM HABIT FOR THE PROMPTING OF NATURE. THE USE OF SPIRITS IN COLD WEATHER HAS BEEN WELL TESTED DURING THE VARIOUS POLAR EXPEDITIONS, THE MEDICAL OFFICERS OF WHICH CONDEMN IT AS A PREVENTATIVE AGAINST COLD. — General Lord Wolseley.

THE VANGUARD.

A GREAT WORK—READ CAREFULLY.

The VANGUARD was published during the stirring years of 1803-4-5 in the form of a magazine. It was devoted to expert discussion of the liquor question and the many matters thereto related, special attention being given to details of most interest and value to Canadians.

Prohibition workers found it a "mine" of information, and many of them desired to have its articles put into a form adapted for permanent use and reference. This has been done by binding and indexing the twelve numbers which were issued.

The book thus produced is a complete encyclopedia of information relating to the temperance and prohibition reform. In it are full and accurate statistics and other authoritative statements; covering nearly every field of available fact and argument, and including a great number of tables compiled with the utmost care. It also contains a record of the important events of the years named, and a summary of the history of the prohibition cause in Canada.

CONTENTS.

Among a great many subjects comprehensively treated, are the following:—

The Liquor traffic in Different Countries—Legislation Relating to the Liquor Traffic;—The Working of High License;—Prohibition in the Northwest;—Prohibition in Maine;—Prohibition in Kansas;—Prohibition in Pitcairn Island;—The Canada Temperance Act;—Local Option;—The Scott Act and Drunkenness;—The Gothenburg System;—The Question of Jurisdiction;—Constitutional Prohibition in the United States;—The Plebiscite Movement;—The Plebiscite Returns;—The Drink Bill of Canada;—The Drink Bill of Great Britain;—The Drink Bill of the United States;—The Drink Bill of Christendom;—The Indirect cost of the Liquor Traffic;—Drink and Mortality;—Alcohol in Medicine;—Beer Drinking and its Results;—Drunkenness and Crime in Canada;—Drunkenness and Crime in the United States;—Drunkenness and Crime in Great Britain;—Drunkenness and Crime in other Countries;—The French Treaty;—Beer and Light Wines;—Adulteration of Liquors;—The Revenue Question;—The Compensation Question;—The Liberty Question;—Bible Wines;—Total abstinence and Longevity;—The Catholic Church and the Temperance Question.

HOW TO GET IT.

This valuable work is in neat and convenient form, substantially bound in cloth boards, well printed on good heavy paper, clear type, fully indexed, containing over 650 pages. The number of copies now left is limited, but while they last one will be sent to any address in Canada, postage prepaid for FIFTY CENTS.

It will be a splendid handbook for speakers and writers in the Prohibition campaign.
