AN EXAMPLE WORTHY OF GENERAL IMITATION.

The Committee of the Juvenile Irish Society have, through their Secretary Mr. P. Monahan forwarded to the Bishop the sum of Thirty Shillings to be added to the Fuel Fund at St Mary's. It is an interesting and significant sight to behold the young giving a lesson of charity to the old.

The first of the sacred orders is the sub-diaconate. The Church marks the transition from the Sanctuary to the first step of the Altar by circumstances of immense solemnity in the rite. At the opening of it she reminds the candidate that he is on the point of surrendering his liberty, and bids him take heed to the seriousness of the action.
