No. 2.
Whole No. 995.

WIND DIET; OR, PRACTICAL BULL AND POETICAL TUPPER.

JOHN BULL—"It's all very well, but how do you propose to fill this bag from that one?"

SIR C. TUPPER—"Nothing easier! Make up the balance with patriotic sentiment about our Glorious Empire on which the sun never sets!"

["Even if Great Britain by a trade policy antagonized all the other food-producing countries of the world, the Mother Country need not be short of the amplest supply of food. Canada was quite capable of supplying the Empire with food."—Sir C. Tupper, at U. E. Trade League meeting. Vide Mail, June 24th.]
