MR. JAMES CONNACHAN.

Our photo, this week is of Mr. James Connachan, the crack inside left forward of the Lyceum Football Club. Like most prominent footballers, "Jimmy," as he is popularly known amongst his club-mates, hails from the old world, where he has played the soccer game with some of the very best English and Scottish league clubs. Born on the banks of the Clyde some 29 years ago, he learned the rudiments of the game with the Duntocher Hibernians, a local junior organization. After a season with Glasgow Perthshire, young Connachan

James Connachan.

—then 18 years of age—was lured into the ranks of Glasgow Celtic, the world renowned record breaking Irish combination, where he acted as pivot between two such lions in the football world as "Duke" McMahon and "Jonny" Campbell. Jimmy has also seen service in some of the most prominent English clubs, and, although perhaps not quite so fast as when a member of the "Paradise Pets" (Glasgow Celtic), he is still a very capable and polished player and has certainly no superior in his position in Western Canada.

OBITUARY

MRS. JOHN EGAN

The death of Mrs. Hannah Elizabeth wife of John J. Egan, 218 Smith street, occurred Wednesday at St. Boniface Hospital, as the result of a critical operation. Mrs. Egan is survived by her husband and one son, Peter D. Egan, of Winnipeg; her mother, Mrs. Milligan, of Pembroke, Ont., four brothers, James A. Milligan, of Sudbury, Ont., Dr. William H. Milligan, of Sudbury, George E. and David D. Milligan, of Ottawa, and one sister, Mrs. L. A. Downs, of Chicago. The tragic illness and death of his own wife on the same day will keep David D. Milligan, the youngest of the brothers, away from the funeral.

Clerical News

The students of the advanced classes of St. Patrick's Seminary, Menlo Park, near San Francisco, have returned to their studies, though not in the damaged building. Archbishop Riordan has secured temporary quarters in the Coleman mansion in Menlo Park, where the work of the seminary will be carried on until the damage is repaired in the seminary proper. The classes were resumed on Monday, May 14.

Rev. Thomas Sherman, S.J., son of the late General Sherman, went last month to California, where he first visited his brethren at Santa Clara College, and then took up his temporary quarters in the Welch residence, 1090 Eddy street, corner of Octavia, San Francisco, into which the Jesuits of the destroyed St. Ignatius College have recently moved. A chapel is being fitted up and religious services will be held there for the public.

Rev. S. J. Arsenault, pastor of St. Thomas, N.D., arrived here on Tuesday last and was the guest of the Jesuit Fathers at St. Boniface College, where he was visited by his relatives, Mr. J. J. Arsenault, of this city and Rev. Jos. Arsenault, professor at the College. Father S. J. Arsenault returned to St. Thomas on Wednesday.

Rev. Father Perisset is very seriously ill at St. Boniface Hospital, where he recently underwent a critical operation for a malignant tumor in the neck.

Rev. Father Lemarchand, O.M.I., returned from France last week and left for his home in Calgary on the 1st inst.

PIANOS

Those who buy a piano ought to pay as much attention to the record and reputation of a piano as the piano itself. They ought to pay more attention to its musical qualities than to the case.
