

Clerical News.

His Grace the Archbishop of St. Boniface preached at St. Mary's Church on Easter Sunday evening.

Very Rev. Father Lemieux, Provincial of the Redemptorists in Canada, returned from the West last Wednesday evening. He had been snowed up in Yorkton for a week.

Rev. Father Plant, S.J., returned last Wednesday from St. John and Belcourt, N.D., where he preached two missions. At the former place the priest's house was accidentally burned down during his stay there, and the mission of St. John was sadly interfered with by that accident and by the severe snow storms.

Rev. Father Emard, O.M.I., returned from St. Laurent last Wednesday evening. Rev. Father Chammont, O.M.I., was replacing him at Rat Portage.

Rev. Father Drummond, S.J., returned last Tuesday from Port Arthur, where he preached on the preceding Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Sunday. The number who received their Easter Communion was unprecedented. On Sunday evening he gave a lecture in St. Andrews Church on Sacred Music.

Rev. Father Suffa, O.M.I., of Regina, was here last Wednesday.

St. Pie Letellier Notes.

Nothing very extraordinary has come to the ears of your correspondent for these parts of late, which must be the excuse for no notes for some time.

The Rev. Fathers Fillion and Martin assisted our parish priest hearing confessions on the afternoon of Wednesday the 23rd of March, and the next morning in order to give a chance to all who wished to make their Easter duties, while the roads were good. A great number of the congregation again approached the Holy Sacraments on Holy Thursday, Saturday and Easter Sunday. On the last named, the Catholic Foresters approached the Holy Table in a body at eight o'clock Mass.

A priest of the order E. de M. arrived from France some time ago, came on Good Friday to assist Father Juras.

This same Rev. Father sang High Mass on Easter Sunday and preached on the Resurrection recounting all the apparitions of our Saviour, as told in the Bible, and proving that our Lord Jesus Christ really rose again on the third day.

Two young ladies of this parish left recently to enter the novitiate of the Mission Sisters at St. Rose du Lac. Miss Marchaterre and Miss L'Oisell. The latter already has a sister, a novice at the same place. Mr. Bellavance has opened a general store at Letellier, in the new and commodious building lately erected by Mr. Jacques Parent.

We have now three general and one hardware store at Letellier. Rumor has it that two of our young people will shortly be united in holy matrimony, Mr. David Fillion and Miss Agnes Berard.

The roads have been very bad the last week, they are now impassable, but in a few days it will be possible to use wagons.

Mrs. Rojotte of St. Anne, lately spent a couple of weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Z. Robert.

Mr. Pierre Duval, our butcher, had twins baptised on Holy Saturday. By the way we are to have two butchers this season. Mr. Severe Mans has, according to report put up a store of ice and rented Mr. I. Gravina's shop. Mr. Duval is building on his own account.

"Miss Biggs is interested in you, pa."
"How so?"
"Why, today, after she told me seven times to sit down and behave myself, she said she wondered what sort of a father I had."
