

(3) Technology shall remain subject to this Agreement until otherwise agreed between the Parties.

ARTICLE IX

(1) Each Party shall take all measures necessary to ensure the adequate physical protection of nuclear material subject to this Agreement and shall, as a minimum, apply levels of physical protection as set out in Annex E to this Agreement.

(2) The Parties shall consult at the request of either Party concerning matters related to the physical protection of nuclear material, non-nuclear material, equipment and technology subject to this Agreement, including those concerning physical protection during international transportation.

ARTICLE X

(1) The Parties shall consult at any time at the request of either Party to ensure the effective fulfilment of the obligations of this Agreement. The International Atomic Energy Agency may be invited to participate in such consultations upon the request of both Parties.

(2) The appropriate governmental authorities shall establish administrative arrangements to facilitate the effective implementation of this Agreement and shall consult annually or at any other time at the request of either authority. Such consultations may take the form of an exchange of correspondence.

(3) Each Party shall inform the other Party, upon the latter's request, of the most recent conclusions relevant to the nuclear material subject to this Agreement that the International Atomic Energy Agency has drawn from the Agency's verification activities in its territory.

ARTICLE XI

Any dispute arising out of the interpretation or application of this Agreement shall be settled by negotiation or other procedures agreed to by both Parties. Where the Parties agree to submit such disputes to an arbitral tribunal, it shall be composed as follows; each Party shall designate one arbitrator and the two arbitrators so designated shall elect a third who is not a national of either Party and who shall be the Chairman. A majority of the members of the arbitral tribunal shall constitute a quorum, and all decisions shall require the concurrence of two arbitrators. The arbitral procedure shall be fixed by the arbitral tribunal. The decisions of the arbitral tribunal shall
