

Appendix A

Canada-Thailand Business Ventures

A. Canadian Investments and Joint Ventures in Thailand

COMPANY	ACTIVITY
Alcan Siam Ltd.	Producer of aluminum sheet and foil; acquired from Reynolds in 1983. The company is owned 85 per cent by Alcan and 15 per cent by local investors.
Art Bronzes International Ltd.	Joint venture to produce artistic bronze castings of works by Canadian artists in limited editions to be marketed in North America and Europe.
Bata Shoe Company of Thailand Ltd.	Longest standing Canadian investment in Thailand; company first established over 50 years ago. Recently expanded its production facilities in Thailand which uses Canadian-made shoe-making equipment.
Champhai Company Ltd.	Joint venture between Champion Road Machinery Group Limited of Goderich, Ontario, and the Thai firm Italthai; produces parts for road graders and assembles road graders for the domestic and export markets.
Ganong Limited	Joint venture between Ganong Brothers Limited of St. Stephen, New Brunswick, and Rubia Industries (a subsidiary of Berli Jucker) to manufacture and export top quality confectionery products to North America.
Laemthong Protein Foods Co. Ltd.	Joint venture between Protein Foods Ltd. and Laemthong through which technology has been transferred for chicken deboning and production of processed chicken products.
Les Laboratoires Ville Marie Inc.	LVM has entered into a joint venture with Chula Unisearch (which belongs to Bangkok's Chulalongkorn University), for the establishment of a quality assurance and material testing laboratory in Thailand.
Medigloves Co. Ltd.	Joint venture between a private Canadian investor and Thailand's Mah Boon Krong Group to produce surgical gloves for export.
Metofab (Asia) Company Ltd.	Joint venture between Metofab Inc. of Montreal, Yong Hong Seng Company Ltd. of Bangkok and Ventures International of Bangkok; established to begin production of aluminum railings and related products.