

3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article shall cease to apply if a person, being free to leave the Requesting State, has not left it within a period of thirty (30) days after being officially notified that that person's attendance is no longer required or, having left that territory, has voluntarily returned.
4. Any person who fails to appear in the Requesting State may not be subjected to any sanction or compulsory measure in the Requested State.

ARTICLE 11

PROCEEDS OF CRIME

1. The Requested State shall, upon request endeavour to ascertain whether any proceeds of a crime are located within its jurisdiction and shall notify the Requesting State of the results of its inquiries.
2. A request may be made for assistance in securing the forfeiture or confiscation of proceeds of crime. Such assistance shall be given in accordance with the law of the Requested State by whatever means are appropriate. This may include giving effect to an order made by a court or other competent authority in the Requesting State or submitting the request to a competent authority for the purpose of seeking a forfeiture or confiscation order in the Requested State.
3. A request may be made for assistance in the restraint of property for the purpose of ensuring that it is available to satisfy an order for the recovery of proceeds.
4. Proceeds forfeited or confiscated pursuant to this treaty shall accrue to the Requested State, unless otherwise agreed in a particular case.
5. Where action has been taken in the Requested State pursuant to a request for assistance under paragraphs 1 or 2 of this Article, and there is a representation in Canada or India as the case may be by a person affected by the order, the relevant State shall inform the other State as soon as possible and shall also inform it promptly of the outcome of that representation.
