TO THE
OFFICIAL REPORT OF THE DEBATES
OF THE
HOUSE OF COMMONS
OF THE
DOMINION OF CANADA

FIRST SESSION--ELEVENTH PARLIAMENT, 1909

SUBJECT INDEX

ADDRESS IN ANSWER TO HIS EXCEL-LENCY'S SPEECH.

The Address moved, Mr. Wm. F. Todd—15.

Barnard, Geo. H. (Victoria, B.C.)—70.

If the result of the elections in British Columbia required any justification, it has received it from the Premier—70-1. His connection with the Colonist telegram. His reputation free from imputation of fraud—72.

Borden, R. L. (Halifax)—23.

Congratulations to the mover and seconder—23. The elections show that an infamous gerrymander has been perpetrated on the Dominion—24. Suggests redressing the wrong done to Mr. Emmerson. The Pictou campaign pamphlet—25. The pamphlet not circulated by any Conservative organization. Cannot say as to individual Conservatives—26. The length of the session; the date of introducing government measures—27. In the sessions of 1903-4-5-6 and 7—28. And in 1908. The Quebec Tercentenary—29. Aid to the Italian sufferers. Trade conditions—30. The Insurance Bill, and the measure to suppress bribes and gratuities—31. The government should have extended the scope of the Cassels inquiry—32. Cannot discuss the waterways treaty until it is down—33. Reads his telegram to the Colonist. Did not know of the mistake for some time—45-46.

Brodeur, Hon. L. P. (Minister of Marine and Fisheries)—63.

Foster's personal references; not afraid to compare his record with that of Foster—63. The Marine Department under Foster. Abuses then existing are reformed—64. Purchases from Merwin and Brooks proved to have been made against his orders—65. Patronage under the Conservative regime; reads correspondence—66, 67, 68. Members allowed to inspect tenders. 'I entirely changed the system'—69. Foster appointed himself a commission to investigate the conduct of his officers—70.

Burrell, Martin (Yale-Cariboo)—72.

The Japanese and better terms questions in the elections—72. The result of the election a triumph of principle over expediency—73. The British Columbia election Bill. Better terms—74. The Oriental question: the Hindoo phase a fundamental difference—75. The whole empire must be Anglo-Saxon in race and tradition—76. The administration of public affairs, especially the civil service—77.
