No one can deny that some necessity exists of protecting the people who have been or who may be wronged by real estate agents, 1225.

DOMINION NOTES BILL.

House in Committee on resolution.—Mr. White, 1528.

Borden, Rt. Hon. Sir Robert (Prime Minister)—1537.

We decided that if we were to take the course of advancing money upon the securities of these companies guaranteed by Canada, we had better not proceed under the War Measures Act, but pass an Order in Council which would distinctly state, as these Orders do state upon their face, that we were doing that with the intention of having our action afterwards submitted to Parliament, and ratified by Parliament if it should approve, 1537.

Laurier, Rt. Hon. Sir Wilfrid (Quebec East)—1536.

So far as Parliament is concerned, the only question before us to-day is whether or not the Government was wise or could be justified in issuing the $26,000,000 which it issued, as stated by my hon. friend the Minister of Finance in the very lucid explanation which he gave to the House this morning, 1536-7.

Maclean, A. K. (Halifax)—1535.

I am glad to have the assurance of the Minister of Finance that he does not purpose allowing this entire excess note issue to remain outstanding indefinitely, 1535.
