

assist foreign policy. For in universities men study the histories and cultures of other countries. In McGill we are proud of steps that we have already taken to understand some of the civilisations of the East. We have made only a beginning, but we hope these beginnings will grow.

Your gracious visit to us is another link in our interest in the East, and especially in Japan.

To you, Your Imperial Highnesses, we tender our heartfelt welcome, and, through you, if we may, we send a message of greeting to your beautiful and wonderful country, Japan.
