Indēed, I asked Dean MacKay to put his recommendation in writing and to send the letter to the Windsor Hotel. This he did on Friday or Saturday the 11th or 12th of June. I returned to Quebec on Saturday the 12th., and the records left my hands on Monday the 14th.

I remember telling Colonel Bovey, or someone in his office, that I was most anxious to get into touch with Mr. Walter for fear delay would be prejudicial to his interests, but I am sure that I did not attribute that delay to any particular office or suggest any reasons for it.

I may say that short delays frequently occur between Quebec and Montreal that are quite incomprehensible.
Your last letter was dated October 11th., and enclosed in an envelope which had the Montreal post mark "October 12, 12 p.m.," and was delivered this morning, the 14th.

Yours faithfully,

Director of Protestant Education
