

SURETY FOR THE PEACE, &c. (continued.)

- against whom, surety shall be granted, 533.
- III. In what Manner it shall be granted.
 proceedings, when party is before the justice, and when absent, 533.
 cannot be enjoined under a penalty, 533.
 no commitment until surety required, and refused, 533.
 oath requisite, 533.
 affidavit on part of defendant, cannot be received, 533.
 of warrant to bring up the party, 533.
 supersedeas by finding sureties before arrest, 534.
- IV. How the Peace Warrant shall be executed.
 who shall execute it, 534.
 breaking open doors to arrest, 534.
 before whom the party shall be carried, 534.
 supersedeas on surety being given, 534.
 commitment on refusal to find sureties, 534.
 insufficient sureties, 534.
 sureties dying, 535.
 binding anew, on breach of recognisance, 535.
- V. Of the Recognisance of the Peace.
 form and force of recognisance, 535.
 for what time party may be bound, 535.
 forfeiting recognisance, 535.
 excuse for not appearing at sessions, 536.
 forfeiture by violence, 536.
 by unlawful assembly, threats, &c. 536.
 where actual violence is no forfeiture, 536.
 discharging recognisance, 536.
 continuing recognisance, 536.
 death of party demanding surety, 537.
 Forms of Complaint, Warrant, Commitment, Recognisance, and Discharge, 537.
- Suspicion of Felony, see Arrest, 14, also Warrant, 579.*
- SWEARING, (Profane.) Statute prescribing punishment for it, 541.
- Forms, on proceedings for the offence, 542.

T.

Tanners, see Hides, 231.

TAVERNS. Preliminary remarks, 545.

- I. Certain Regulations concerning Taverns ; by several Statutes.
 accommodations in taverns, 546.

TAV

Taxes
Tenan
Theft
THISThrea
Timbe
Tolls,
TOW