

The Earning Power of Clothes

A man's Suit should be purchased as a bond is purchased—not because it is low in price—but because at a given price its earning power is high.

In the case of suits, earning power is directly proportionate to quality of material and style and care of tailoring.

It is our earnest wish that the men who examine our fall stocks will consider whether they are finding a proper balance between earning power and price. We know that from this standpoint—and no other—our goods will be found the cheapest.

WESTON QUALIFY FOR THE FINAL

Defeat London in Intermediate O.A.L.A. Game Before Good Crowd.

WESTON, Oct. 3.—In the prettiest game of lacrosse seen here in many a year, Weston Intermediates defeated London by 9 to 3 this afternoon and qualified to go into the final with Bracebridge for the championship of the O. A. L. A. The biggest crowd of the season turned out for the game and narrowed the field up so much that the play was frequently stopped for face-offs. This made the game fast as there was no chance to do any loosing. The score of 9 to 3 hardly shows the ability of the London boys. Up to the end of the second quarter when the score was 4 to 3, they clearly had Weston outclassed, both in shooting and combination. London's defeat came in the third quarter when their light defence went to pieces under the assault of the heavy Weston home.
