

P R E F A C E.

It can hardly be necessary to inform any, into whose hands these Lectures may fall, that they make no pretensions to any merit as a composition, and aim at nothing but a simple statement of Gospel truths, and exhortation to Gospel conduct. They were undertaken singly with a desire of making the usual week-day services, appointed by the Church for the Season of Lent, more interesting and more profitable. They were composed in the midst of ordinary parish duties, and
