

ARTICLE IV.—PRESIDENT. •

The President shall call and preside at all meetings of the Club. He shall preserve order and shall have the same rights and privileges (except where altered or extended by this Constitution) as the Speaker of the House of Commons of Canada. He shall have the privilege of vetoing any measure laid before the Club.

The President shall not be a member of the Managing Committee.

ARTICLE V.—VICE-PRESIDENT.

In the absence of the President, the Vice-President shall call and preside at the meetings of the Club, and shall have, when so acting as substitute, the same powers and privileges as the President. In the absence of both Vice-President and President, a Chairman shall be elected by the Club who shall have all the powers of the officer he represents.

The Vice-President shall be ex officio the Chairman of the Managing Committee, and as such shall be bound to provide a subject for debate for each evening.

ARTICLE VI.—SECRETARY TREASURER.

The Secretary-Treasurer shall keep the books and funds of the Club, and shall render a statement at the Annual meeting or whenever else requested by the Club of its financial standing.

It shall be his duty to collect all fines and fees ; to keep a list of the members who by reason of arrears have forfeited their right to take part in the discussions of the Club, and to keep the President or Presiding Officer supplied with a corrected copy of such list.
