When Johnson left here he had no indention of scrapping for a long time to come, unless something especially alluring was offered him. And it would require a highly-polished financial allurement to tempt him. Johnson's opinion of his own value as a drawing card cannot be said to reek with modesty. He doesn't need to fight, anyway. The music halis of London will keep him busy at huge salaries, and Johnson has a characteristic coon-like love for noise, glittering lights, music and the glory of posing before admiring multitudes. Things are breaking fine for Lil Arthur just now, thank you.

Deep mourning for pet dogs is the latest feminine fad in London. Deep mourning among human being to a certain extent has gone out of fashion. Deep mourning for dogs is taking its place.

A London woman telis how, having advertised for the loss of her dog, she was surprised and shocked to receive the same evening an envelope in mourning of her veterinary surgeon what this meant, she was told that mourning for dogs by memorial cards, with deepest black edging, and even by wearing black clothes, is becoming a definite fashion.
