Hays, General M. H Brown of the Michigan Central, who was on the front of the baggage car, noticed the approaching engine, and put on the air brakes on the president's train, and then jumped. He escaped without injury. The occupants of the train were shaken up, but no one hurt in the least. The baggage in the baggage car was tossed around and slightly damaged with water from the tender. The train was taken to the Falls station, Sir Charles and Lady Wilson went direct to the Clifton after they learned that no one was hurt, where they are stopping till to-morrow noon enjoying the beauties of the great cataract. The train was brought back to the G.T.R. yards here for repairs, and will be ready to go to Owen Sound with the party to-morrow noon.

East of the City Limits. W. Gahan, a Woodbine jockey, who carried sociability to the extent of entering the stables of S. Feathers, a brother horseman, at all hours, was sinally thrown out into the street by his host. Feathers was summoned before Magistrate Richardson on Saturday for his courtesy, but when the magistrate was seated in the chair of justice to try the case, it was learned that the plaintiff had left for Owen Sound, and the suit was dropped. John Seath, the old gentleman who was found in East Toronto with a con-fused memory, and restored by Con-stable Booth to his home on Jarvis-street, has been sent to a private sani-

A meeting of ratepayers of School Section No. 20 was held in Norway Schoolhouse on Saturday re obtaining debentures to build a new school. The meeting adjourned till Monday evening. A Dead Infant Found.

Saturday about noon some children found the dead body of a newly-born male child under culvert on Collegestreet, not far from the intersection of Rusholme road. Police Constable Clarke was notified and sent for Coroner Greig. The infant's neck was marked and it is thought probable that its death was caused by strangling. The remains were taken by No. 3 patrol wagon to the city morgue, where an inquest will be held.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion is occasioned by the want of action in the biliary ducts, loss of vitality in the stomach to secrete the gastric juices, without which digestion cannot go on; also, being the principal cause of headache. Parmalee's Vegetable Pilis, taken before going to bed, for a while, never fail to give relief, and effect a cure. Mr. F. W.
