Those who did not favor the new step will petition the Government to allow the customs officers to receive and pass goods until late Saturday night instead of closing at 6 o'clock, for they hold that it would not be fair to turn a man away who had his cheque, even though the closing hour had come. It may mean a difference of hundreds of dollars to some firms. Unless this is done, one firm informed The World that they would lose at least $400 on one shipment.

Had He Any Connection With the Death of Peter Blair I—Supposition Is Pretty General That He Feared Disclosures at the Imquest—News From Ottawa.

Ottawa, July 28.—Nelson Kane's suicide has caused a painful sensation here. The general opinion is that he had some connection with the death of Peter Blair. The latter had been working on a farm near Scittsville for some weeks previous to his death. He returned home the day before it, apparently in good health and spirits, and intended returning to Stittsville the following Sunday, but on Sunday he took suddenly ill and died. He had hurt his foot a week or so before, and his death was at first attributed to blood poisoning, but subsequent examination of his stomach disclosed the presence of arsenic in sufficient quantities to cause death. An inquest on Blair's body is being held to-day and will probably sit till a late hour. The Town Hall was crowded with spectators.

Kane had formerly boarded with Blair. He had for some time been working in Frost & Wood's establishment in Smith's Falls, Monday morning. His body was found hanging to a tree in this vicinity Tuesday last. Fear of disclosures at the inquest on Blair or brooding over his death is supposed to have been the cause of the traveled nothing of much important of the prevented to the proper succession. Our Trade With Trinidad.

The Department of Trade and Cimmerce this morning received a lengthy report from Mr. E. Tripp, commercial agent at Trinidad, atting that the very warmest appreciation of the Canadian preferential tariff is felt in Trinidad, and that this feeling is enhanced as nothing is asked in exchange. As Trinidad is under a tariff for revenue only, they could not have enjoyed the preferential trade had a quid pro quo been demanded. They also feel relieved by the demunciation of the Beigian and German treaties. Mr. Tripp forestells largely increased trade, especially incereals and dairy products. In the first three months of this year 105 barrels of Canadian flour were imported, and in the quarter ending June 30, 3005, against none in the corresponding periods of last year.

Up in North Toronto we have a machine that works day and night, breaking stone, which does not act as a soporific. Likewise we have a raffway through North Toronto that howls and shricks, that kills sleep and makes night hideous. Toronto is beautiful, and would be the choicest city on the continent if we could stop the dreadful noises, have our streets watered, make all factories and smoke-makers consume their own smoke like the O'Keefe Brewing Company do, and stop what is even worse, the disgusting foul and blasphemous language one hears everywhere—not only where one expects it, but where one does not expect it—on railways and steamers, in street cars, in restaurants, in banks. One hates to take his wife, his mother or his sister on the streets, or to the parks or anywhere where there is a general gatheriag. Would The World and his wife and children dare to go to Hanlan's Point at night? X.Y.Z. Up in North Toronto we have a machine

The Whistling Nuisance. Editor World: The unsatisfactory state of things in the matter of locomotive whistling, which can only be put down by whistling, which can only be put down by a regulation emanating from the Railway Committee of the Government, is rightly stated by your correspondent, "South Parkdale." Municipal bylaws are of no effect. There is another and kindred matter which those who live south of the track in Parkdale have a right to complain of. It is the excessive speed of from 20 to 40 miles an hour over crossings in the city limits, Here, too, we are equally at the mercy of the railway companies, for Chief Justice Armony has said that, in or out of the city limits, a train can run as fast as it pleases, so long as the track is properly fenced, and he has held the track from Sunnyside crossing to the Exhibition grounds to be properly fenced. But lu this matter also the Railway Committee has absolute power and can reflect. But it ins matter also the Hall-way Committee has absolute power and can regulate the speed. Few people would object to the speed if only the abominable whistling were stopped. But who is going to make the Railway Committee do its duty? That is, the sole question. Won't the member for East York try his hand?
