

sheaves, the teachers know that the ground-work was laid by their sowing beside all waters, and by their prayerful nurturing of the seed. To Him let us give all the glory. The extent to which our school has been blessed may be seen by a reference to the report from the Session.

The attendance has been on the whole very regular, the average amounting to 138.

Maggie Stalker and Fred Scott were present during every Sabbath of the year, and Eva Stalker, Charles Atchison and Alfred Laflace missed only one Sabbath.

Edna Bigham and Jennie McArthur are entitled to Mr. Blackburn's prize for accurate Scripture recitation. The portion selected this year for committing to memory was the whole of the Epistle to the Ephesians.

Rev. Mr. Farries' prizes for repeating correctly all the questions in the Shorter Catechism, were won by John Robertson, Wardrope Alexander and Wm. Alexander.

Mr. Robinson's prizes, to be given to such members of the Infant Class as should repeat correctly the Golden Texts of the lessons for six months, were won by Geo. E. Bingham, Sydney I. McMorran, and Agnes Renwick. Mary Thomson, Hilda J. Christie, Fred McFarlane, and Lawrence Christie, repeated the Golden Texts of the lessons for three months.

For the fifth year Miss Masson's class has won the Superintendent's prize for regular attendance. The class reached the high average of 96 3-7 p. c.

Lizzie Stalker and Edna Bigham are entitled to receive Mr. Mutchmor's prize for introducing new scholars.

From the Treasurer's Statement it will be seen that our total collections are larger than ever before, and so also are our Missionary Contributions.

The Congregation willingly responded to our appeal for a contribution to increase our library, and gave us the very modest sum of $28.00. This amount has been invested in books of such a character as we believe is much needed in our library.

As a fruit of the great religious awakening of the past year, the teachers have uninterruptedly kept up a short prayer meeting for about fifteen minutes before the school session, when that was held in the morning, and for the same time after the school session, when held in the afternoon.

We have enjoyed such blessed experiences during these short seasons of fellowship and communion at a throne of grace, that we will not soon abandon this precious means of grace.

J. MACMILLAN,

Superintendent.
