ONE MEXICAN BANDIT REPORTED KILLED AND TWO CAPTURED BY AMERICAN TROOPS IN PURSUIT

Information Was Brought to Texas Town by an American Cavalry Sergeant—250 Carranza Troops, Under Gen. Pruneda Camped On Trail of the Bandits Near Cuchillo.

MEXICAN GOVERNMENT PROTESTS.
Washington, D. C., Aug. 21.—The Mexican ambassador here has been instructed by his government to protest to the state department against the dispatch of American troops across the border and to request their withdrawal, according to a statement issued at Mexico City yesterday.

Marfa, Texas, Aug. 21.—One bandit was believed to have been killed and two others made prisoners, since American troops crossed the Rio Grande into Mexico Tuesday morning. A report received here last night told of an American cavalry sergeant, who rode to the border after dark, and reported that Capt. Leonard Matlock had captured two bandits, believed to have been implicated in the capture of the aviators, Peterson and Davis.

Gen. Pruneda, with approximately 250 Carranza cavalry troops, camped on the trail of the bandits for the night, near Cuchillo Parado, 40 miles up the Conchos River, from the base at Ojinaga. American pack-trains and other units crossed and re-crossed the path of the Carranza troops without friction.

AMERICAN TROOPERS FOLLOWING TRAIL OF THE MEXICAN BANDITS

Marfa, Texas, Aug. 20.—An airplane arriving at 11:15 o'clock this afternoon brought this message from the American troops in Mexico: "Still following trail."
The Mexican consul at Presidio, Tex., reported today that General Pruneda, with a column of Carranza cavalry, had gone to Cuchillo Parado, 40 miles up the Conchos River from Ojinaga, in search of the bandits in the Ojinaga district, where the American troops are operating.

Troopers sleep in wilderness. Reports from the field in Mexico today told how the Americans spent the night in the Mexican mountains. The troops slept in canyons, on trails, wherever they happened to be when it grew too dark to continue their pursuit. The sentries were stationed at entrances to canyons, and at points on trails to prevent surprise attacks.
No fires were permitted. Horses were picketed in hollow squares and the men, rolled in blankets, slept beside their mounts with rifles in hand. Flocks of birds patrolled the temporary camps.

CARNEGIE LEFT SEVERAL TIMES FIFTY MILLIONS

Statement That He Had Only
$50,000,000 Left Is Contradicted.

REVOKED FIRST WILL

Decision of Steel Magnate
Was After His Daughter's Marriage.

New York, Aug. 21.—Although Andrew Carnegie, steel magnate and philanthropist, declared during his lifetime that he expected to give away his huge fortune and "die a pauper," his estate was to be disposed of by a will which will be filed for probate next week was several times $50,000,000. It was learned from an authoritative source here tonight.

Publication of a story to the effect that Mr. Carnegie had given away all of his estate with the exception of about $50,000,000 brought the statement that the estate was much larger.
It also was stated that a will of approximately $400 million was drawn by Carnegie himself, and which was generally believed to be his last will, had been superseded by a brief document of 2,000 words, drawn by Elihu Root.

Revoked Original Will. The decision of Mr. Carnegie to revoke the original will on which he had expended much time and thought, and which bequeathed a large part of his estate to his daughter, Margaret, was said to have resulted from her marriage to Elsie Roosevelt Miller, several months ago. Mr. Carnegie settled a large "dot" on his daughter at the time of her wedding and for this reason is said to have found it necessary to alter the provision of the will.
The Home Trust Company of New Jersey, which was organized by Mr. Carnegie in 1907 for the purpose of administering a fund set aside by Mr. Carnegie for nearly 60 persons to whose individual welfare he had contributed, will act as executor of the will.

FORMER KAISER AND FAMILY TO LIVE IN 'HOUSE OF DOORN'

William Hohenzollern Purchases Country Home From Baroness—Building Was Erected in 1356 and Estate Originally Consisted of 800 Acres.

Amerongen, Tuesday, Aug. 19.—The former German emperor personally selected the "House of Doorn," which William Hohenzollern has purchased as the future home of his wife and her one-time imperial husband hope to settle down and live the lives of country gentlemen in Holland.
The former emperor has not yet seen the "House of Doorn," but it is anticipated in Amerongen that he will soon pay a visit to it. Recently he is reported to have been taking carriages to the "House of Doorn," the owner of Amerongen Castle, where he is living at present.

The house, though rich in history and imposing in appearance, has only twelve rooms in addition to small chambers for servants. From the main highway train, which is only 200 yards away, a view of the house, in the midst of a grove, is presented to all passers-by. The front of the house is accessible only through the estatekeeper's lodge.

No Walls Around Castle. The baroness de Beaufort still occupies the house.
It is not expected that the former emperor will leave Amerongen for three months. There are no moats about the "House of Doorn," and no walls like those surrounding Amerongen Castle. The former emperor's heart again is troubled here. Dr. Foerster made frequent visits to the Castle of Amerongen yesterday and today.

St. Catharines, Aug. 21.—The threatened strike in all departments on every division of the Niagara, St. Catharines and Toronto Electric Railway went into effect at 4 o'clock this morning and was completely observed. Object in View Is to Reduce Nine-Penny
Loaf in Great Britain.

Winnipeg, Aug. 21.—In an interview last night on the wire of $1.80 set by the British Government will buy Winnipeg wheat for Canadian wheat. Sanford Evans, who represented the millers at a recent conference here, said: "The situation is quite simple. This price of $1.80, mentioned in the cable, is not a purchase price, but a reselling price. It is nothing to do with the price at which the British Government will buy Canadian wheat, but the price at which it will resell it in conformity with its policy to reduce the nine-penny loaf."

LIBERAL LEADER NOT TO MAKE DEFINITE DECISION UNTIL AFTER GLENGARRY-STORMONT MEETING

Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King Announces That D. D. McKenzie Will Again Be Leader in House During Coming Session—New Leader Declares He Will Leave the Question of Candidacy to Electors.

Ottawa, Aug. 21.—When questioned today as to the likelihood of his being a candidate in Glengarry-Stormont, in view of the action of the United Farmers, in nominating a candidate yesterday, Hon. W. L. MacKenzie King stated that he could make no definite statement until after the Liberals held their convention in August.

"These are matters," said Mr. King, "which I think the people must in all cases decide."
Mr. King referred to the letter he had addressed to the secretary of the Glengarry Liberal executive, in which he expressed his views as to the inadvisability of there being a contest between the farmers and the Liberals owing to the similarity of their platforms, and added that if he were nominated by the Liberal convention he would then have to consider whether or not he would accept.

The Liberal leader made the definite announcement that Mr. D. D. McKenzie will again be the leader in the House during the approaching session of Parliament.

ALL OVER PROVINCE NAMES ARE LEFT OFF LIST, SAYS MR. DEWART

First Batt. Men To Place Wreath On V.C. Winner's Grave
Liberal Leader Charges That Enumerating System Is At Fault.

H. Hartley Dewart, M. P., provincial Liberal leader, who is in town today, in conversation with The Advertiser, in regard to the charges he has made in speeches of corruption in connection with the compiling of the voters' lists, said this afternoon: "Let them call the charges I have made of irregularity in connection with the compilation of the voters' lists 'moonshine' if they will, the fact remains that all over the province either by accident or design, names have been left off the lists, the names of the men who fought in the House last session, dividing the House, in fact, on the matter of the voters' lists, should be prepared."

"We took the ground that the one rational, fair way was to have a list compiled by the municipal assessors, who know their districts, and understand the people in which the lists should be prepared."
A Partisan Scheme. Instead of this, a partisan list was compiled from beginning to end, whereby enumerators appointed by the Government to do the work, took the names of an election campaign.

Ordinarily, the lists are prepared in the spring and appeals are made in the spring sitting of court. There is something inherently bad in a system which makes possible the omission of names from the lists, and which puts electors to expense in connection with the correction of errors. I propose to discuss this matter more fully when I speak in London on Friday night.

Change Is Wanted. Mr. Dewart, who has been addressing a number of meetings during the past ten days in Western Ontario, commented upon the splendid spirit and great enthusiasm which had characterized the meetings everywhere, and also the Liberal people he had met.

"Everywhere," he said, "I have found Conservatives as well as Liberals, and of the opinion that there should be a change."
Asked if he was speaking in regard to the federal or provincial government, Mr. Dewart replied: "In regard to both, so far as the demand for change is concerned, but more especially the provincial government."

Paris, Aug. 21.—At the meeting of the supreme council of the peace conference on Tuesday, Viscount Morley, one of the British delegates, declared it to be the interest of the Allies to alleviate the burden on Austria, and asked for a revision of the economic and financial clauses of the treaty with that country, according to the Echo de Paris. Foreign Minister Tittout of Italy proposed, it is said, declaring that efforts making for the restoration of the former Austrian power would injure Italy, an essential modification will be made in the treaty.
