

PAGE OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

ARISTOCRACY OF SERVICE IS ONLY ONE THAT SHOULD BE RECOGNIZED

Margery Mills Arraigns Selfish Rule of Wealth and Power and Points to Bible Truths.

A resolution in Parliament not long ago protesting against titles in this country, was passed with a substantial majority. The question was not considered as a party issue this time, the Government evidently seeing the inconsistency and absurdity of making the conferring of titles on practically anyone who could afford to purchase one, a party issue in what we call a democratic country. Though some thoughtful people have been wondering lately whether Canada really is a democracy or no.

However, a plan has been submitted to abolish titles in Canada, and we must look for a new standard whereby to classify Canadians.

Is there a Canadian?

By the way, is there such an individual as a Canadian, strictly speaking? We think not, and if democratic is correct, surely a change is in order when the next census is taken, which won't be long—how long, we don't know. This word "democracy" which is being used so much today, what does it mean? "Government by the people at large," "the power vested in the populace," is Canada a democracy? Are the "people at large" fitted to have in their hands the reins of government? These are serious questions, and thoughtful people are asking them, and are hardly able to find a satisfactory answer in these days of world-wide social unrest.

Two Different Phases.

Practical democracy and theoretic democracy are two different phases of the question.

Theoretic democracy is ideal, certain principles are laid down based upon the assumption that the people are capable of assuming the responsibility, which would devolve upon them in such a system.

Practical democracy applies these principles in so far as the education of the people and the interest of the people make their application possible.

That Canada is a democracy, the administration of its Government today, those who fought for responsible government, who won the pen, and, less wisely, with sword and musket, too, hoped it would be, after these years, is due to the fact that the education of the great mass of the people, the lines of true citizenship have been neglected.

Subservient to Party Interests.

Public questions, national interests, have been subservient to party interests. Party interests in their turn have been pushed aside for the interests of private corporations, and Canada has been perpetually menaced by an aristocracy, not of birth and breeding, but whose claim to prestige is based solely upon the extent of their possessions.

That is to be changed, and, rightly or, no system based upon false theory can be stable.

All Men Not Equal.

Therefore, we can build up no system on the assumption that "all men are equal." A few things are more apparent than the inequality of men. We see evidences of this on every hand, in the lives and sisters of the same family with

PALE-CHEEKED GIRLS, TIRED-OUT WOMEN QUICKLY BUILT UP

Wonderful Record Made by New Blood-Food Remedy.

Certain Results Guaranteed. Pale people have pale blood. In other words, the blood is watery and lacks red corpuscles.

The stomach is wrong. Assimilation is poor and food is not changed into blood. Naturally the system is robbed of vitality, lacks strength and reconstructive power.

Don't slip from vigor into weakness. Don't allow the appetite to fail, but instead use Ferronose.

You're bound to feel rejuvenated and strengthened at once.

Appetite is braced up, digestion is stimulated, vigor imparted to the stomach. Everything you eat is transformed into nutriment that supplies what your thin, weak system needs.

Vital, life-giving blood that makes rosy cheeks and dancing eyes—that's the kind that Ferronose makes.

The strength and buoyancy that defies depression and tiredness, that's the sort you get with Ferronose.

Every pale woman can transform her bleached-out appearance with Ferronose.

Not only will it improve looks and spirits, but by rebuilding all weak, tired organs, Ferronose establishes a soundness of health that's surprising.

For women and girls who want to feel well, to look well, to be well, and stay well, nothing known in the annals of medicine is so certain as Ferronose.

Want to try Ferronose? Concentrated cure in tablet form, that's Ferronose, 50c per box or 4 for $2.50, at all dealers, or direct by mail from The Catarthone Company, Kingston, Ont.

HORLICK'S Malted Milk for Infants A safe milk diet, better than cow's milk alone. Contains rich milk and malted grain extract. Canada Food Board License No. 14-385.

YOUR OLD CARPETS Made into new, beautiful, fluffy, reversible rugs.

CANADA RUG COMPANY 48 Carling Street. Send for Leaflet. tf-yw

POLLY AND HER PAIS. IF YOU EVER EXPECT TO SELL THE FLAVOR IT'S TIME YOU GOT BUSY, MY BOY!

ILL GET ON THE JOB SOON I'LL GET SOME MORE PENNIES, POLLY!

AW, COME ON, UH! ANTECH! GOT AIO PENNIES?

I NEVER TOLDS SECH TRIFLES!

OH! AUNT MAGGIE JESS A MINUTE!

IM SURPRISED THAT A UP'DATE AUTO SALESMAN LIKE YOU SHOULD GRAVE SECH SMALL CAUBRE CON!

HE GULDA SOLD THE CAR YESTERDAY IF HE'D HAD CHANGE FER A DIME!

—By Cliff Sterrett

Advertiser Patterns

A Pleasing Design. 2819—This neat, simple little model may be finished without the collar trimming, or with a small wash collar, and for serge, gabardine, silk and crepe. The closing is at the centre front under the crossing of the collar points.

The pattern is cut in 3 sizes: 2, 4 and 6 years. Size 3 requires 2 1/2 yards of 36-inch material.

A copy of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps.

Name _____ Town _____ Province _____

Age (if child's or misses' pattern) _____ Measurement: Bust _____ Waist _____

Caution: Be careful to inclose the above illustration and send size of pattern wanted. When the pattern is sent, you need only mark 28, 24, or whatever it may be. When waist measure, 22, 24, 25 or whatever it may be, is marked, the pattern will be made to fit.

Paul's Church, Stratford, when Miss Eva Reddough of Kitchener, York-shire, England, and Mr. George Wat-son, Stratford, were united in marriage, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. S. A. Macdonnell. The bride, just recently arrived from overseas, was prettily gowned in white duchess satin, trimmed with maitre lace and pearl embroidery. Her train was a mass of white carnations. Her only attendant was a niece of the bridegroom, Miss Rose Watson. The young couple left for Niagara Falls. On their return they will reside in Stratford.

LINABURY-FOWLER. A small but charming wedding, at which the Rev. W. J. Knox presided, took place on Saturday, June 21, at the home of Mrs. Mary Burns O'Meara, 577 Wellington street, when Miss Anne Maude Fowler was united in marriage to Mr. Robert Watson, a member of the Board of Commerce, Flint, Mich. In the room where the ceremony took place, the bride was surrounded by ferns, orange blossoms and peonies, with a profusion of roses carried to the altar by the bridesmaids. The tea-room was decorated with a dome of daisies and white roses with ropes of daisies carried to the altar by the bridesmaids. The bride's bouquet was a mass of white carnations. During the signing of the register Miss Dorinda Abbott sang "The Crown" in her rich contralto voice. After a dainty buffet lunch, Mr. and Mrs. Linabury left for Detroit.

A Nuisance, and Yet— It must have been a good deal of a nuisance, to her family, to have a young woman, who was a "pink ear" or a "yellow necktie" in all her life.

She never said, "I say she does," or "I get you, Steve"—how hopelessly out of living!

Doubtless she would bore us to death and we should know what to do with her if we did have her around.

She could sing and faint when she saw a mouse, and wept over the death of her favorite heroine in her favorite novel.

And if she had a quarrel with her sweet heart, she would herself up in her garden and weep till she was as blue as a cornflower.

Daily Bible Question Club UNIFORM LESSON FOR SUNDAY, JUNE 29, 1919. ONE GOLDEN TEXT SUGGESTION. By Rev. T. S. Lindsay, D.D.

Review—Response to God's love. Selection for Reading: Philippians III, 7-14.

The questions for this week may be used as an original lesson, or as a review of the twelve preceding weekly lessons. The date, and title of each lesson, where found, golden text, and question selected from each lesson follow during the present week.

QUESTIONS FOR TODAY. April 28—Our Risen Lord (Easter lesson)—Matt. xxviii, 1-10.

Golden Text: He is risen, even as he said.—Matt. xxviii, 6.

2 Verse 5—Why is the resurrection of Jesus an occasion of joy and not of fear? This is one of the questions which may be answered in writing, by the members of the club.

April 29—The Holy Spirit Our Helper.—John xvi, 7-15.

Golden Text: If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your heavenly Father give the holy spirit to those that ask him?—Luke xi, 13.

4 John xvi, 7—What reason, if any, is there to believe that the holy spirit is the same divine spirit that dwelt in Jesus?

Golden Text: I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with my whole heart.—Psalm lxxxvii, 12.

PRaise IS A DUTY. The Book of Psalms from which our text is taken seems almost exclusively to be devoted to praise. The writers of the Psalms found their own custom of praise, and they exhort everybody to praise. We can scarcely take up a Bible and open at random in the Psalms, but we find an exhortation or an exhortation to praise. Praise is as much a duty as it is a privilege. We ought to praise God in our homes, and perhaps more time should be devoted to praise in our congregations. It is essential that we should sing praise to God, so as to give expression of the gladness of our hearts and of our thankfulness to God for all his mercies and benefits to us. Then, too, our habit of praising God is an example and an incentive for others to join in the same delightful form of worship.

She Would Exchange. Dear Miss Grey—I am sixteen years old, and have attended high school for three years. I am fond of reading, but I have great difficulty in getting recitations. Seeing that so many receive help from your column, I thought I would try. I have a few recitations and readings which are suitable for school and church gatherings, and I would exchange for some that are suitable for recitations. Please send me an address envelope for any you have on hand or will receive. Sincerely, CURLEY.

A—Will some one exchange with Curley?

GRAY'S, LIMITED

Wednesday Store Hours: 9 a.m. till 1 p.m.
ONE DELIVERY ONLY, 11 A.M.

Wednesday Morning Sales

A Big Day's Business Crowded Into a Few Hours
Goods Marked For Quick Selling

RUSH SALE

WHITE BATH TOWELS AND HUCK TOWELS, regular 50c pair. Wednesday morning, a pair 39c

RUSH SALE

PLAIN HEMMED PILLOW CASES, sizes 40 and 42 inches. Wednesday morning, each 25c

Staple Department, Main Floor.

A Welcome Sale Wednesday Morning

Ready-to-Wear Department, Third Floor.
WHITE REPP SKIRTS, heavy quality. Wednesday morning special $1.00

Washable Dresses SHEER AND COOL.

GINGHAM DRESSES, in blue and mauve, with white collar and pockets, sizes 16, 18 and 20. Wednesday morning special $5.50

LADIES' PORCH DRESSES of checked gingham, sizes 36, 38, 40 and 42. Wednesday morning special $4.50

EXTRA SPECIAL!

Sale of White Skirtings

Cotton Dress Fabrics, Second Floor.

WHITE COTTON BEDFORD CORD, WHITE HOP SACKING (in plaid effect), WHITE COTTON DIAGONAL, WHITE COTTON GABARDINE, new and wanted fabrics, values up to $1.00 yard. Wednesday all one price, a yard 59c

SILK CAMISOLES, in white or flesh, lace top. Wednesday all one price 98c

Third Floor.

GRAY'S, Limited
140 Dundas Street

VISIT THE SOLDIERS' DEPARTMENT.
Every article offered for sale is made by returned soldiers.

GRAY'S, Limited
Phones 115-116

For Wednesday Morning A Special Sale of Hats

Millinery Department, Fourth Floor.

$3.00 PANAMA HATS. Wednesday morning sale price $1.98

$6.50 AND $7.00 SHAPES. Wednesday morning price $3.98

$8.50 LEHGRN SHAPES. Wednesday morning price $5.95

ALL TRIMMED HATS Wednesday morning 20 Per Cent Off regular prices.

Sale of Samples In Ladies' Combinations

Underwear Department, Main Floor.

LADIES' COMBINATIONS, velvet knit, porous knit, Sea Island cotton and lisle, with fancy lace yokes, short or sleeveless; values up to $2.00. Wednesday morning, rush sale price, per suit 98c

Five dozen only WHITE VOILE WAISTS. Wednesday morning special $1.00

Third Floor.

Western Ontario Women's Activities

Address News For This Column to the Editor of Woman's Page.

LONDON TOWNSHIP STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL.

A garden party and strawberry festival, under the auspices of Zion Ladies' Aid, will be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald, lot 7, concession 7, London Township, on Thursday evening June 26, 1919. A good program has been provided.

WYOMING W. M. S. An interesting meeting was held in the Presbyterian Church, it being the fifteenth anniversary of the W. M. S. Life memberships were presented to Mrs. D. D. Anderson, a charter member of the society, and to Mrs. Robert Part, the president. An "in memoriam" certificate was received in loving memory of Mrs. A. I. Anderson, the first president of the society, and a junior life certificate was presented to Miss Margaret Ewart by the Mission Band. Mrs. R. Sturtevant, Presiding president, was present and spoke. Mrs. (Rev.) Porter of Watford, very ably presented the Forward Movement church. Soles were rendered by Miss McPherson and Rev. Mr. McChae.

In spite of the great heat the meeting was largely attended, a number from South Plympton being present. Refreshments were served at the close. Greetings were received from absent members. Rev. Mr. McLeod made the dedicatory prayer and Mrs. John Hunter presided throughout.

She Would Exchange. Dear Miss Grey—I am sixteen years old, and have attended high school for three years. I am fond of reading, but I have great difficulty in getting recitations. Seeing that so many receive help from your column, I thought I would try. I have a few recitations and readings which are suitable for school and church gatherings, and I would exchange for some that are suitable for recitations. Please send me an address envelope for any you have on hand or will receive. Sincerely, CURLEY.

A—Will some one exchange with Curley?

PRaise IS A DUTY. The Book of Psalms from which our text is taken seems almost exclusively to be devoted to praise. The writers of the Psalms found their own custom of praise, and they exhort everybody to praise. We can scarcely take up a Bible and open at random in the Psalms, but we find an exhortation or an exhortation to praise. Praise is as much a duty as it is a privilege. We ought to praise God in our homes, and perhaps more time should be devoted to praise in our congregations. It is essential that we should sing praise to God, so as to give expression of the gladness of our hearts and of our thankfulness to God for all his mercies and benefits to us. Then, too, our habit of praising God is an example and an incentive for others to join in the same delightful form of worship.

She Would Exchange. Dear Miss Grey—I am sixteen years old, and have attended high school for three years. I am fond of reading, but I have great difficulty in getting recitations. Seeing that so many receive help from your column, I thought I would try. I have a few recitations and readings which are suitable for school and church gatherings, and I would exchange for some that are suitable for recitations. Please send me an address envelope for any you have on hand or will receive. Sincerely, CURLEY.

A—Will some one exchange with Curley?

PRaise IS A DUTY. The Book of Psalms from which our text is taken seems almost exclusively to be devoted to praise. The writers of the Psalms found their own custom of praise, and they exhort everybody to praise. We can scarcely take up a Bible and open at random in the Psalms, but we find an exhortation or an exhortation to praise. Praise is as much a duty as it is a privilege. We ought to praise God in our homes, and perhaps more time should be devoted to praise in our congregations. It is essential that we should sing praise to God, so as to give expression of the gladness of our hearts and of our thankfulness to God for all his mercies and benefits to us. Then, too, our habit of praising God is an example and an incentive for others to join in the same delightful form of worship.

She Would Exchange. Dear Miss Grey—I am sixteen years old, and have attended high school for three years. I am fond of reading, but I have great difficulty in getting recitations. Seeing that so many receive help from your column, I thought I would try. I have a few recitations and readings which are suitable for school and church gatherings, and I would exchange for some that are suitable for recitations. Please send me an address envelope for any you have on hand or will receive. Sincerely, CURLEY.

A—Will some one exchange with Curley?

PRaise IS A DUTY. The Book of Psalms from which our text is taken seems almost exclusively to be devoted to praise. The writers of the Psalms found their own custom of praise, and they exhort everybody to praise. We can scarcely take up a Bible and open at random in the Psalms, but we find an exhortation or an exhortation to praise. Praise is as much a duty as it is a privilege. We ought to praise God in our homes, and perhaps more time should be devoted to praise in our congregations. It is essential that we should sing praise to God, so as to give expression of the gladness of our hearts and of our thankfulness to God for all his mercies and benefits to us. Then, too, our habit of praising God is an example and an incentive for others to join in the same delightful form of worship.

She Would Exchange. Dear Miss Grey—I am sixteen years old, and have attended high school for three years. I am fond of reading, but I have great difficulty in getting recitations. Seeing that so many receive help from your column, I thought I would try. I have a few recitations and readings which are suitable for school and church gatherings, and I would exchange for some that are suitable for recitations. Please send me an address envelope for any you have on hand or will receive. Sincerely, CURLEY.

A—Will some one exchange with Curley?

PRaise IS A DUTY. The Book of Psalms from which our text is taken seems almost exclusively to be devoted to praise. The writers of the Psalms found their own custom of praise, and they exhort everybody to praise. We can scarcely take up a Bible and open at random in the Psalms, but we find an exhortation or an exhortation to praise. Praise is as much a duty as it is a privilege. We ought to praise God in our homes, and perhaps more time should be devoted to praise in our congregations. It is essential that we should sing praise to God, so as to give expression of the gladness of our hearts and of our thankfulness to God for all his mercies and benefits to us. Then, too, our habit of praising God is an example and an incentive for others to join in the same delightful form of worship.

She Would Exchange. Dear Miss Grey—I am sixteen years old, and have attended high school for three years. I am fond of reading, but I have great difficulty in getting recitations. Seeing that so many receive help from your column, I thought I would try. I have a few recitations and readings which are suitable for school and church gatherings, and I would exchange for some that are suitable for recitations. Please send me an address envelope for any you have on hand or will receive. Sincerely, CURLEY.

A—Will some one exchange with Curley?

PRaise IS A DUTY. The Book of Psalms from which our text is taken seems almost exclusively to be devoted to praise. The writers of the Psalms found their own custom of praise, and they exhort everybody to praise. We can scarcely take up a Bible and open at random in the Psalms, but we find an exhortation or an exhortation to praise. Praise is as much a duty as it is a privilege. We ought to praise God in our homes, and perhaps more time should be devoted to praise in our congregations. It is essential that we should sing praise to God, so as to give expression of the gladness of our hearts and of our thankfulness to God for all his mercies and benefits to us. Then, too, our habit of praising God is an example and an incentive for others to join in the same delightful form of worship.

She Would Exchange. Dear Miss Grey—I am sixteen years old, and have attended high school for three years. I am fond of reading, but I have great difficulty in getting recitations. Seeing that so many receive help from your column, I thought I would try. I have a few recitations and readings which are suitable for school and church gatherings, and I would exchange for some that are suitable for recitations. Please send me an address envelope for any you have on hand or will receive. Sincerely, CURLEY.

YOU PROTECT YOURSELF WHEN YOU DEMAND

Kellogg's

TOASTED CORN FLAKES

IN THE ORIGINAL RED, WHITE AND GREEN PACKAGE

Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery. Our product is imitated but not equalled—Refuse all substituted imitations.

Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes are only made in Canada by

THE BATTLE CREEK TOASTED CORN FLAKE COMPANY LIMITED

Head Office and Plant: LONDON, ONT.

VINOL

The Great Cod Liver Oil and Iron Tonic.

Taylor's 6 Cut-Rate Drug Stores

See us for Wedding Bouquets and Decorations

West Floral Co.

PHONE 2187, 240 DUNDAS ST.

BITRO PHOSPHATE

FOR THIN DELICATE NERVOUS ANAEMIC PEOPLE

Wash Out Your Pores With Cuticura Soap

And have a clear, sweet, healthy skin with little trouble and trifling expense. Contrast this simple wholesome treatment with treacherous massaging and other fads.

On retiring, wash the face with Cuticura on the end of the fingers, wash off in five minutes with Cuticura Soap and hot water, using plenty of soap, best applied with the hands which it softens wonderfully, and continue bathing a few moments.

Rinse with tepid water, dry gently and dust on a few grains of Cuticura Talcum Powder, a delicate fragrant perfume. Soap, ointment and Talcum sold every-where.

Wash Out Your Pores With Cuticura Soap

And have a clear, sweet, healthy skin with little trouble and trifling expense. Contrast this simple wholesome treatment with treacherous massaging and other fads.

On retiring, wash the face with Cuticura on the end of the fingers, wash off in five minutes with Cuticura Soap and hot water, using plenty of soap, best applied with the hands which it softens wonderfully, and continue bathing a few moments.

Rinse with tepid water, dry gently and dust on a few grains of Cuticura Talcum Powder, a delicate fragrant perfume. Soap, ointment and Talcum sold every-where.

Wash Out Your Pores With Cuticura Soap