

CAMPBELL AND BURR DUET
"Sweet and Low" is the title of a new Victrola record as sung by Campbell and Burr. It is really a beautiful song, the voices of the singers blending delightfully. On the opposite side is "Bless My Swannee River Home," a lively, captivating song, as sung by the Campbell Quartet, and "Ye Olde Prime of Helmsman & Co. Limited," 242 Dundas street, London, will be glad to furnish it to anyone for $1.00.

SUCCESSFUL BARN-RAISING.

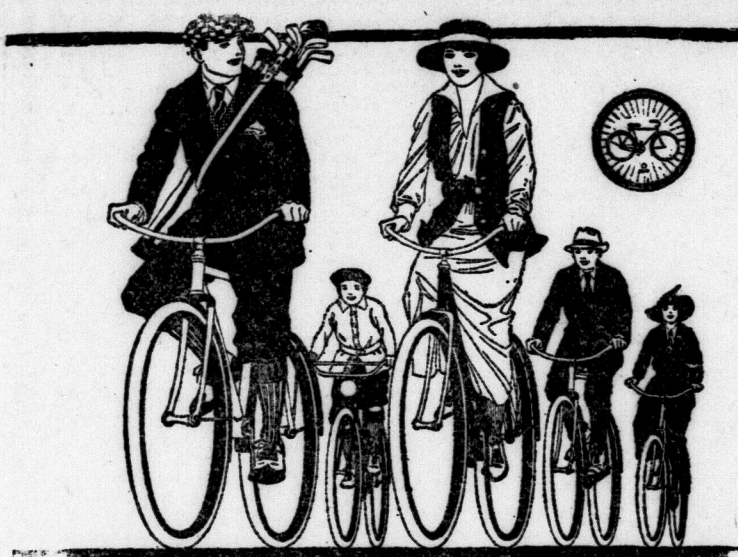

ALISA CRAIG. June 16.—A successful barn-raising took place on Monday on the farm of Charles McEwan, south of the town, when his barn, which was totally destroyed last fall by a severe wind-storm, was being replaced by a new structure. It was estimated fully 300 people were present. Sides were chosen, with Dan A. McIntyre and Ralph Robinson captains, each side having well on to 150 men. Mr. McIntyre's side won.

Mrs. McEwan and her many lady helpers served supper on the lawn. After supper the tables were cleared, and Rev. Mr. Ross, who was to have spoken in the Nairn Church, gave his address outdoors. The service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Kintoul.

GARDEN PARTY POSTPONED.

ROSS' LIMITED --Manufacturers.

No Middlemen's Profits DIRECT FROM MAKER TO WEARER.

Efficiency in business demands the elimination of all unnecessary increase in cost of production and distribution. So in order to avoid wholesalers' or manufacturers' profits as well as cost of travelers' expenses and wages, we manufacture our own fur and cloth garments on the premises, employing thoroughly skilled designers, operators and finishers, which enables us to offer MERCHANDISE AT PRICES BASED ON FIRST COST OF PRODUCTION, as well as being the newest styles. The success attending our efforts has been most gratifying, as shown by the constant increase in turnover.

PASTOR PRESENTED WITH PURSE OF GOLD

Interesting Program of Addresses, Music and Readings.

DORCHESTER, June 16.—On Friday last the congregation of Bailey's Church, to the number of about one hundred, visited the parsonage, Dorchester, to spend a social evening with their pastor and his family, who are soon to leave for Hensall. A splendid program of musical numbers, readings and addresses was given under the chairmanship of Fred Bailey. Several addresses of appreciation of the work of the pastor and his wife were given, that made by W. H. Deller being followed by the presentation of a purse of money to Mr. and Mrs. Rivers as a gift from the congregation. The presentation was made by Miss Edda Mossip.

Lunch was served, after which some interesting contests were held and a social time was spent. The program closed with the singing of "God Be With You Till We Meet Again" and the National Anthem.

The same evening a gathering of the Mission Band and some classes of the Methodist Sunday School was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Young to do honor to Lillian, Raymond and Gray Rivers and Jean Smuck, all of whom are leaving Dorchester very soon. The evening was spent in games.

until Mr. Young called the children to order, and Laura Rogers read an appreciative address, while friends of those leaving presented them with suitable gifts. Lillian and Raymond Rivers and Jean Smuck each received a beautiful bound copy of the New Testament and the Psalms, while Gray Rivers was presented with a hymn book. Addresses were given by Rev. G. W. Rivers and Mr. Grant Smuck, thanking the friends for their kindness to their children. Lunch was served and the children went home happy.

CIRCUS-FAIR NEXT WEEK.

In the life pictures presented by the animal show of the Greater Sheesley Circus-Fair, which opens under the auspices of the Army and Navy Veterans here Monday, are expressions illustrative of the weird thoughts that fill our minds when thinking of the jungles. They carry one, perforce the vividness and naturalness, right into the very haunts and lairs of the wild beasts.

The show is replete in thrills, especially in the realistic fight between Ted Oakley and an untamed Nubian lioness. Harry Hilton the lion trainer, creates scenes of a colony of lions being hunted in the jungles. Princess Tessie demonstrates the truth of the old philosophical dictum that "trained wild animal acts are education to the young folks of no small degree." As for a touch of humor in the show, there are the awkward bears, the trained horses and the barking mules who soon, The evening was spent in games.
