

WEDNESDAY MORNING

Ladies' Fall Hat Opening

To-day we begin our fall hat opening of Ladies' New York and Paris designs, specially imported by our representatives in those cities. These hats are absolutely exclusive in qualityno two alike-and while rich in coloring are so tastefully handled in composition that they appear quiet and tasty. The trimmings to these hats are excellent and novel in effect.

The prevailing styles are considerably different from those of last season—being mostly in wide flat brims of beaver trimmed with bands of rusty brown, burnt orange or Coque-de-Roche—also in green and dark tans. It will be noticed that these colors were popular some years ago, and that the old tastes have again become popular.

Buckles—Bird Wings—Paradise Birds are also the appropriate decorations. Of course heavy straw and light felt are extensively used in the dressy effects. There are also some sombrero hats, novel and useful for fall wear. We want you to call to-day and see these hats, even if you don't buy. We believe that they will give you some valuable pointers on style.

Marshall, Spader & Co. wired J. G. Beaty, King Edward Hotel, at the close of the market to-day:

Wheat—Opening price opened highest of day. Principal operators who were working on long side were sellers, and it was this selling which filled up the bayers and caused the decline. The general action of narket seems to show that, for the time being this price discounts what is bullish in the situation, and pending the deliveries of wheat on September contracts, and until this influence is out of the way we would only advise purchases on good declines. Advices from the spring wheat country are about the same, and show practically no change. The handlers of cash wheat, however, report a disappointing demand. This was reflected in the weakness of September option, which sold at 2½ cents, under December at the close. Corn—The short interest was much reduced on the advance in the May option above 50 cents. Prospect for rather better weather to-morrow caused renewed selling, and the buying was of the unimportant character. Corn will be very susceptible to weather influences until September 25, as it is generally agreed that the crop is in such a position that September weather conditions are of great importance in maturing the crop. All options in regard to the value of the next crop will be pure guesswork for some weeks to come.

Oats—While prices are only a fraction lower, the tone of the market was heavy. Receipts are very large. Bradstreet's statement of world's visible shows an increase for the week of over 5,000,000 bushels, While the demand is quite good we nelieve the supply is even greater, and we fail to see any good reason yet for an advance in values.

Eunis & Stoppani wired to J. L. Mitchell 21 Meliad, street.

file the supply is even greater, and we fail to see any good reason yet for an advance in values.

Eunis & Stoppani wired to J. L. Mitchell, 21 Melinda-street:

Wheat—Cables opened 1½c higher, but lost part of the advance at 1.30 p.m. Wheat on ocean passage was very inactive, and eleveh cargoes are waiting at ports of call and offered for sale. The opening of our market was characterized by a continuation of the strength shown in the late trading yesterday, but on the early advance several of the larger interests, who have recently been buyers, began to unload long wheat, which, by noon, had caused a break of two cents from top prices of the day. The buying power was checked by the reflection that only threshing returns could prove the correctness of the Jones & Snow estimates, and by continued claims by The Price-Current that their estimate of 575,000,000 bushels for the total crop was as reasonable as the extreme low ones. Bradstreet's worlds visible increased 1,149,000, principally in Europe and afloat. Primary receipts were large Boarded, 1355; all sold to Margrath at 8%c.

ADMIRAL TO VISIT US.

Quebec, Aug. 30.—(Special.)—Admiral Douglas this morning transferred his flag from H.M.S. Ariadne to H.M.S. Indefatigable, and the latter vessel proceeded to Montreal. While the Indefatigable is in Montreal the admiral will visit Toronto, Niagara Falls and other points in Ontario.

COLBORNE CARRIES BYLAW.

Colborne, Aug. 30.—(Special.)—The Township of Cramahe to-day passed the Ontario Electric Railway Co.'s bylaw to purchase twenty thousand dollars of bonds. The vote was two seventy-nine for to one forty-six suggests rain and unsettled weather in the west and northwest. The weekly government crop reports confirm the reports of damage to northern wheat. Mr. Jones places northwest yield at 94,000,000 bushels. The legitimate domestic and foreign outlook undoubtedly favor higher prices for wheat eventually, but until the volume of the northwest movement is Gefinitely knewn, we would only suggest purchases on sharp breaks, in order to avoid the sharp fluctuations of a nervous market.

Corn—Cibles were higher, and show a much closer sympathy with our market than in wheat. To day's trading showed a marked increase in the demand for December corn, but the /May delivery was offered rather freely by professionals and commission houses. Considering the weakness in wheat, the corn market showed a fairly steady undertone, altho best prices had not been maintained. The stronger tone in wheat in the late trading helped a recovery in corn, but the market did not develop much strength.

Cats—May was the favored month in the buying, and maintained considerabed steadiness.

NATURAL GAS AT SCARBORO.

Highland Creek, Aug. 30.—Men nor in go for water on the farm of Chas. Dickens Closson, near the Highland Creek marsh, yesterday, at the depth of 85 feet, struck a flow of natural gas at 10 a.m. A match was applied to the pipe at 4 p.m. and it is still burning vigorously.

Uprising in Pechili Province Which May Develop Serious

Shanghai, Aug. 30.-A revival of Boxrism is reported from Tamingfu, in the uthwestern part of Pechili Province, 215 miles from Tientsin. Over twenty American missionaries, including women and children, have been obliged to evacuate Tamingfu, owing to an intended massacre on the part of the Boxers, who call themselves "Tsaiyun."

The local telegraph company refused to transmit a message from the missionaries to American Minister Conger at Pekin. Fortunately, however, an English friend in Honan forwarded their message, whereupon Yuan Shika, viceroy of Pechili Province, despatched urgent orders for their protection.

In view of the fact that the local authorities gave them no protection, and there was no hope of continuing their work, the missionaries came out. They traveled in safety,

Grave doubts are felt in some quarters here as to the real intentions of Tie Hang, who is at present absent from Pekin on a visit to the southern provinces. A similar mission undertaken by Kang Yi before the last Boxer rising is recalled. The local telegraph company refused iken up the co-operative idea to assist hem in their labors. With ex-Warden James Chester as the head, about a ozen of his neighbors have combined dozen of his neighbors have combined in the purchase of an up-to-date threshing outfit. The combination intend first to thresh their own crops, and the to employ their machines with anyone desiring their services. The income will be pooled and a prorata division made at the end of the season. If the present plan works out satisfactorily a milk distributing co-operation is also talked of. Many of the farmers claim that the present wholesale prices for milk are not consistent with the retail rates, and they think that by supplying the consumer direct thru a city delivery system a much better return will be received.

PUBLIC AMUESMENTS.

One of the clever things in the new third edition of "Busy Izzy," which George Siduey will show at the Grand Opera House next week, with matinees on Monday (Labor Day), Wednesday and Saturday, is a trio specialty, with Sidney, Carrie Webber and Fred Wyckoff as the principals. It is called "I Can't Help That," and is on the conversation dance order. The music is to a catchy air.

"Two Little Salior Boys," "a play of the good old-fashioned English kind," as a leading New York critic called it, is booked to appear at the Majestic Theatre next week, opening with a matinee on Monday (Labor Day). The plot of the piece is along approved lines, but said to be much more complex and ingenious than the average. Novelties are a sensational diving scene, in which one boy rescues another from drowning, and a fight for life between a burglar and an adventuress.

The musical event of the season at the Princess Theatre, September 5, will be Henry W. Savage's offering, "The Sultan of Sulu," by George Ade of "Fables in Slang" fame, and Alfred G. Wathall. This piece had a six months' run in New York, and enjoyed unprecedented prosperity for half that period in Chicago.

"The Moonlight Maid Burlesquers," an attraction which, while classified under the heading of "burlesque," ranks easily with the best musical comedies or extravaganzas, is billed to appear at the Star Theatre all of next week, commencing with the usual matinee on Monday. The chief features of the program are a couple of musical farces styled "The Man Behind" and D. R. MCNAUGHT & CO.

After being three days in town, Lew Dockstader has become so well acquainted with local events that he has added several local verses to his topical song, "The Other Way." One deals with the Dondonald incident, another with the lack of a Yongestreet overhead bridge, another with the Perry reception, and another with the Way." I was at Toronto Junction. These Mr. Dockstader will sing at the special matinee this afternoon.

STRIKING CONTRAST.

Commenting on The World's comparison between the Canadian transcontinental railway commission and the United States Isthmian Canal commission. The St. Thomas Times observes:

There is good reason to find fault with the Canadian commissioners on the score of lack of training and experience for the work for which they will be held responsible to the people of Canadian. Not one of them is a railroad man, and the inference must be that they have been placed in offices of emolument because of party affiliations and as a reward for party services rendered. No regard has been had for efficiency. This is in decided contrast with the considerations which influenced the selection of the members of the Isthmian Canal commission, who were appointed because of their fitness for the work.

MADE to resist the persistent, penetrating, hydraulic pressure of a Scotch mist, that's why they call them Thistle Brand Raincoats. It rains harder some other places than in Scotland, but there's wonderful perseverance in the steady drizzle. When it gets thro' with you you're wet unless you wear a coat made from this imported cloth or crav-
