
EXAMINATIONS.

There are Semi-Terminal and Terminal Examinations held throughout the year, at which times each Student's standing is carefully marked and registered for the inspection of parents and visitors. At Christmas and the close of the Academic year in June, these Examinations are public, and conducted by gentlemen of the New Brunswick University and a Board of Examiners, appointed by the Education Society.

RELIGIOUS EXERCISES.

All Students are required to attend Morning and Evening Worship during the week, and Divine Service twice every Sabbath, at such places as their parents or guardians may state.
