REPORT OF THE EVANGELISTIC COMMITTEE.

Your Committee feel that the subject of evangelistic agency is brought forcibly to the attention of this Conference by the gratifying success attending the labors of Methodist evangelists in the East. This success, together with the peculiar circumstances under which we labor in this country, seemed to your Committee a Providential call, urging our Conference to take immediate steps towards introducing in this country some such agency. Your Committee have not failed to consider the evils that may possibly grow out of such methods of Gospel work in connection with a system like ours, nor were they unmindful of the mischief that has been brought about by some who sanction unauthorized and self-appointed "evangelists." We feel bound to advise this Conference to adopt the policy of the Eastern Conferences, and give no countenance to evangelists except those coming to us duly accredited by an evangelical church, and who are amenable to our Church courts for their conduct and teaching. We cannot yet set aside any of our ministerial brethren for this work as some Conferences have done. But we learn with gratitude that Rev David Savage, and a chosen assistant will give three months of service to this Conference. Your Committee cannot but look upon this prospective visit as most opportune and of God. We, therefore, recommend the Conference to extend to Bro. Savage a hearty welcome, and thus enable him to pursue his chosen work. Your Committee can urge this more freely, because the many requests by the brethren, coupled with pledges of support should he come amongst us, assure us that the Conference in this matter will not be required to assume any financial responsibility. Your Committee, having further learned that Revs. Crossley and Hunter are likely to labor during the year within the bounds of our Conference, would recommend that they also be given a hearty welcome. In conclusion, we recommen
