LOCAL NEWS

LICENSE TRANSFERRED.
The liquor license commissioners met on Friday and granted the application for the transfer of the license held by Frank H. Foster to his executor, as directed in his will.

BYE-LAW MATTER.
Russell Donnelly, reported for burning rubbish in his yard of Moore street, within sixty feet of a building, was fined $20. The fine was allowed to stand, as he explained that he had taken precautions to put the fire out with water.

CONCERNING W. C. BROADBENT.
R. B. Moughton of D. Co. 18th Platoon, 2nd Batt., asks if W. C. Broadbent, whose name he read in a Patriotic Fund list, is a native of the Isle of Man, as he knows a man of the same name and initials from that island and would like to meet him.

FROM ALLAN MARR.
Mrs. Allan Marr of Marsh road, has received a letter from her husband, who is in France with the Divisional Ammunition Column, second contingent. He was enjoying good health and says that they get good food and lots of it, and have comfortable quarters.

A LIQUOR CASE.
J. Harry Dever appeared to answer a charge of allowing drunkenness on his liquor licensed premises, Union street. He pleaded not guilty. Inspector Jones said he had occasion to go into the defendant's place of business on last Friday, and while there saw two men under the influence of liquor. He said he drew the attention of the clerk to the fact and the men were ejected. The case was set aside until tomorrow morning for additional witnesses.

ST. PETER'S Y. M. A. LECTURE.
Rev. Miles P. Howland, of the Cathedral, delivered an interesting lecture on the life of Abraham Lincoln, before the members of St. Peter's Y. M. A. yesterday afternoon. A large number of members and friends were present, and judging from the close attention and frequent applause, all thoroughly enjoyed the discourse. A hearty vote of thanks was moved by John J. McDonnell, seconded by James Martin and tendered by President John Haggerty.

COUNTY COURT.
George Lunegan, committed for trial on the charge of stealing a quantity of rope, the property of Newton Griffin & Co., has elected to be tried under the Speedy Trials Act. The trial will take place before Judge Armstrong on Thursday morning at ten o'clock. MacFae & Sinclair are his counsel.

ON THE RIVER.
The river season is nearing its close. The steamers usually tie up, but cargoes have been so heavy that the boats are keeping up their regular trips. The May Queen got away from Indian town on Saturday morning with a full cargo and reached Chipman in the evening. She is coming down today with another large cargo and will leave on Wednesday morning. The trip was intended to be the last, but if freight keeps offering as freely another trip will be made.

IS COMING HOME.
A telegram received this morning from Quebec by Frank P. Curran, Paradise Row, brought the good news that his son, Pte. George V. Curran would soon be home. It said that he was now in Quebec, having been awarded home, and expected to return to St. John very soon. Pte. Curran left here as a member of the Signaling section, first contingent, was wounded in action in France and has been in hospital for some time in England. He will be warmly welcomed by old friends.

FIRST OF FRONTSIDE TALKS.
The first of a season's series of fireside talks was given at the Y. M. C. A. on Saturday night to about seventy boys by Wm. McIntosh, curator of the Natural History Museum. The subject was Making Collections, Observation and Some of the Birds and Fishes Found in this Province, their Habits, Haunts, Etc. The speaker gave valuable information regarding these things; his practical experience in wood lore and nature study being very much in evidence. This talk, well as those to be given in included in the programme of the Canadian standard efficiency tests which cover a wide variety of subjects. Every boy over twelve years is invited to hear them.

MAYOR ROBINSON OF BANGOR DEAD.
Bangor, Nov. 14.—Hon. Frank Robinson, mayor of Bangor, died at his home Saturday, following an illness of about two months, during which he had been confined to his home. A general breaking down in health was the cause of his death.

ST. JOACHIM'S RED CROSS SUB-CIRCLE.
With a strong membership to start with, the ladies of St. Joachim's parish yesterday organized a sub-circle of the Catholic Ladies' Red Cross Circle. The meeting was called by Rev. A. J. O'Neil. The organization is not yet completed, but already the new organization is assured of success and gives promise of accomplishing a great amount of useful work for the soldiers. The officers elected yesterday are:—President, Mrs. P. L. Jennings; vice-president, Mrs. J. Horgan; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. J. W. V. Lawlor; district representatives, East St. John: Mrs. J. Carney; Colthrob, Mrs. H. McCormick; Lakewood, Mrs. Desmond; Hickory road, Mrs. J. Taylor; Black River, Mrs. T. B. Cully; Golden Grove, not appointed. There were thirty-four members enrolled at this meeting.

THERE IS NO SIGN OF DOWNHEARTEDNESS IN DUPLISEA'S LETTER

Staff Sergeant George Sends a Cheering One Home

NOT YET AT THE FRONT

Only Shells So Far From Him Are Egg Shells — A War Chant With Home References Which the Boys Like to Sing

A letter received today from Staff Sergeant Geo. Duplisea, Canadian Divisional Train, now in France, contains many interesting lines written in humorous vein with some touches of serious thought as well, emanating in a way the smiles of "Best Harts" Some of "Dip" letters which have been published have been particularly well received, and no doubt the following will be of interest also.

"Well, here we are in France in a place marked 'Somewhere.' It may not be on the map, but believe me, child, it's here. And we're here, too, because we're here, so what the —. Yes, we have heard about shells bursting and breathless escapes, some fellows saved by having a cannon ball strike a lead pencil in their pocket, and such things, but we haven't got so close to the firing line as that, at least not as yet. In fact the only shells I've seen bursting over this way have been egg-shells, few and seldom, and it costs a nickel to crack their coats.

"I'm at present 'on duty' at a military police office in a 'boose factory' or brewery—that is, I have a gun on my arm which heads 'M. P.' and the boys give it several meanings. Because of the great circumstances they have called it 'Manager of Pubs.' My duty is just to hang around and if any of the fellows call to see that the load they take back is not more than they can carry.

"No doubt you've heard the walls of the first contingent about the mud; well, let me hand you this, right now—they are in a rubber-lined Gladstone compared with what we've had to shake off our boots. We've been getting much of the mud they left, with some more that's come since, and then some. And every patch is a different color. In fact when I walk about ten feet he's apt to become color-blind. His feet look like the latest design in crazy quilts. But just the same, we're having the time of our lives, and we're in it to the finish. Our crowd is a particularly fine bunch of fellows, and there is no wrangling. We get along fine.

"In our section, that is the address, we have four fellows who have a notion they can sing. We wouldn't mind their having the notion, but they only kept it to themselves. But that's classed as one of the hardships out here—they won't. They call themselves the 'Soldiers' Quartette,' and they feel they have nice voices—O they have, (for throwing up a good song) but let's test them. We'll think the world of every one of them, even if some of us do get out of range when they try to open fire. They have one song, however, written by Corp. C. W. Sweet, from which we never run away, brings back happy memories, and they sing it well.

"I want to go back, I want to go back, I want to go back to St. John, And put a clean white collar on 'Till of battles we have won—I miss the ferry, and Silas Perry And the top-horn on the shore; I think the parties vous Francaise Is all right in its way, Nevertheless, I want to go back Away from hard-luck, To the town that I came from, That's why I want to go, Back to the land of snow, Back to St. John.

"Well, we'll all be back some time. It's hard to say how soon, but if more of the boys around home would realize the seriousness of this war and come over to lend a hand in putting some of those German baby killers over the ropes to the count of ten, listen to me the fight would soon end. The fellows at home ought to get into the uniforms at once and get free transport across for the sake of helping to wipe those Sauerkrauts off the map if they know how badly men were needed, they'd come. I know they would, I know they're not afraid but they simply do not realize the urgency. If they are true Canadians they'll come without any coaxing. Well, an revoir, 'DIP'."

THEY MADE $186.
A pantry sale was held in the Dufferin Hotel sample rooms on Saturday afternoon. Long before 1:30 o'clock, the hour set for the opening of the sale, there were eager buyers. The rooms were very prettily decorated with bunting and flags. As a result of the sale the ladies cleared $186, which will go toward buying gum to knit socks and other much needed necessities for the coming winter campaign. The committee in charge included Miss Katherine McArthur, Misses Evans, Misses Howe, Miss Irene McQuade, Miss Grace Magee, Miss Fowles, Mrs. H. Magee, and Mrs. Bert Evans. The young ladies wish to thank all those who so generously contributed and otherwise helped to make the affair a financial success.

Your Fabrics Are All Right---But What Kind of a Suit Can You Make?

Ah, that's the test—this man wondered why tailors talked and talked quality — "one would think one was buying cloth, not a suit" was what he said.

Any tailor with the price can buy the goods—but it requires a peculiar natural art to make clothing that pleases—you must be born and bred to the craft.

This is the place for you to order your suit. It will fit perfectly, having excellent style, highest class workmanship. Try us out, we take all risks.
