

GOVERNMENT QUILTS AFTER INDEMNITY OF £500,000 PAID

pliance with which within 24 hours was specifically mentioned, it is assumed that the Egyptian Government will be allowed a reasonable time to fulfill the other stipulations. There is no expectation, however, of any weakening in the British determination to see the terms of the note strictly observed.

Commenting editorially on the situation, the Times (both) says there can be no reasonable doubt that the course adopted by the British government was a necessary one, not only for its own interests but for the interests of all civilized nations. The paper remarks that all the demands made in the note presented by Lord Allenby fall within the four points reserved to the discretion of His Majesty's government when the independence of Egypt was recognized.

The Morning Post and Daily Telegraph, Conservative, the Daily Mail, Independent, and the Westminster Gazette, Liberal, entirely approve the British note, as does the Independent Daily Express, with the exception that it regrets that the indemnity exceeded the amount intended for the victim's family.

The size of the indemnity is also among the objections raised by the Daily News, Liberal paper. The demand for Egypt's withdrawal from the Sudan is a very grave decision which may have serious consequences in Egypt, adds this paper, which also suggests the Sudan should be administered under the League of Nations mandate.

The Daily Chronicle, Liberal, while favoring strong measures, regards some of the demands as needlessly and unwise severe.

Herald Is Critical

The Laborite Daily Herald denounced the whole British action as "terribly reminiscent of the Austrian note to Serbia which led to the Great War," and says it constitutes the severest blow struck at the authority of the League of Nations, to which body the matter should have been referred.

Special despatches from Cairo say that the note caused greatest satisfaction among the British residents in Egypt, who, however, would have preferred the conditions to include compulsory restraint on the native press. It is remarked that, unless the crisis is speedily settled, the tourist season in Egypt will certainly suffer, with consequent great pecuniary loss to the Egyptians. The season has already begun and large steamship accommodations have been reserved. Many of these doubtless will be cancelled unless a peaceful outcome is quickly assured.

British Demands

The Foreign Office last night issued the text of the communication which was in the form of two notes. The first note referring to the brutal murder of General Stack, says: "His Majesty's Government consider this murder, which holds up Egypt as at present governed to the contempt of civilized peoples, is the natural outcome of a campaign of hostility to British rights and British subjects in Egypt and Sudan, founded upon a heedless ingratitude for benefits conferred by Great Britain, not discouraged by Your Excellency's Government and fomented by organizations in close contact with that Government."

"Your Excellency was warned by His

ON THE LOS ANGELES AQUEDUCT

This is one of the control gates on the Los Angeles aqueduct, which supplies the southern California city with water from the central part of the state. Ranchers claim that the city is stealing the water which makes their land productive, and, force the issue, opened gates like these, so that water poured from the aqueduct into the Owens River. Los Angeles authorities called for state troops to prevent fighting.

His Majesty's Government a little more than a month ago of the consequences of failing to stop this campaign, more particularly as it concerned the Sudan. It has not been stopped. The Egyptian Government have now allowed the Governor-General of Sudan to be murdered and have proved they are incapable or unwilling to protect foreign lives.

"His Majesty's Government therefore require that the Egyptian Government shall, firstly, present an ample apology for the crime; secondly, prosecute an inquiry into the authorship of the crime with the utmost energy and without respect of persons, and bring the criminals, whoever they and whatever they are, to condign punishment; thirdly, henceforth forbid and vigorously suppress all popular political demonstrations; fourthly, pay forthwith to His Majesty's Government a fine of £500,000; fifthly, order within 24 hours the withdrawal from Sudan of all Egyptian officers and purely Egyptian units of the Egyptian army, with such resulting changes as shall hereafter be specified; sixthly, notify the competent department that the Sudan Government will increase the area to be irrigated at Gezira from 800,000 feddans (a feddan approximately is an acre) to an unlimited figure as the need may arise; seventhly, withdraw all oppositions in respect hereinafter stated to the wishes of His Majesty's Government concerning protection of foreign interests in Egypt."

Will Take Action

"Failing immediate compliance with these demands, His Majesty's Government will at once take appropriate action to safeguard their interests in Egypt and Sudan."

The second note details the specific requirements respecting the army in Sudan and the protection of foreign interests in Egypt as follows: "Firstly, Egyptian officers and purely Egyptian units of the Egyptian army having been withdrawn, Sudanese units of the Egyptian army shall be converted into a Sudan defence force, owing allegiance to the Sudan Government alone and under the supreme command of the Governor-General, in whose name all commissions will be given."

"Secondly, the rules and conditions governing the service, discipline, retirement of foreign officials still employed by the Egyptian government and the financial conditions governing the pension of foreign officials who have left the service shall be revised in accordance with the wishes of His Majesty's Government."

"Thirdly, pending the conclusion of an agreement between the two governments regarding the protection of foreign interests in Egypt, the Egyptian Government shall maintain the posts of financial and judicial advisers and preserve their powers and privileges as contemplated on the abolition of the protectorate and shall respect the status and present attributions of the European Department of Ministry of the Interior, as already laid down by ministerial order and give due weight to such recommendations as the Director-General may make upon matters falling within his sphere."

There was no indication in the communication from the Foreign Office that a reply was demanded within 24 hours but it is thought that this was communicated verbally to Premier Zagloul by Viscount Allenby.

Boys Are Recaptured

Two boys who escaped from the Boys' Industrial Home recently were captured on Saturday by Detectives Power and Hildiscombe and returned to the home by Sergeant Dyke.
