

BAKED BEANS AND BROWN BREAD FOR YOU TOMORROW?

Statistics are not obtainable to prove our statement, but it is certainly a very popular fact that home-baked beans have been increasingly favored as the national week-end food. But progress provided factory-produced substitutes in cans, which for some time seemed to satisfy the demand. Then, the people got restless, again started talking about things "like mother used to make."

The baked-beans-and-brown-bread habit began to wane. The old-fashioned satisfaction seemed to be a thing of the past. Tempting baked-bean poster no longer tempted. Alas—and such fine crops this year.

But—don't despair. Miss Maud Simpson said recently: "I believe my source of supply for home-cooked beans will meet the demand. The wonderfully browned product that will re-establish the once established leadership of beans as a food."

Miss Simpson is now directing the delicatessen department of the College Inn, 108 Charlotte street, where, once more, home-cooking is gaining its rightful supremacy.

Mrs. B. B. Simpson, Brown Bread, Rolls, Frankforts, Cold Meats, Pies, Pickles, etc., all there at easy prices. A visit a day will stretch your purse—get the delicatessen habit.

FAMOUS GUNMAN KILLED BY WIFE

Man Who Slew Two on Her
Behalf Himself a Victim.

Winfield, Kas., July 29.—Homer S. Wilson, matinee idol of wild west shows, who killed two men on the main street at Tahlequah, Oklahoma, a year and a half ago, to avenge his wife's honor, himself was shot and killed on a lonely country road near here this week by Mrs. Wilson.

In Wilson perished the fourth man connected with the woman, who is in the county jail here. Charles West, first husband of Mrs. Wilson, was shot and killed from ambush near Tahlequah half a dozen years ago. Then Frank Anthony and his father, William, fell at Wilson's hands because, so Wilson charged, young Anthony, former of Mrs. Wilson's ranch at Tahlequah, had been intimate with Mrs. Wilson while her husband was in the army.

Wilson was shot yesterday by Mrs. Wilson as they were returning from a battle-purchasing trip to Dexter, Okla., twenty miles east of here. Charles Ridgeway and Ed Glass, who have ranches near Dexter, were returning with the Wilsons. According to their story, Wilson had been driving very fast. When a stop was made for tire trouble and Wilson left the car, Mrs. Wilson slid into the driver's seat, insisting that she would drive. An argument followed, and Mrs. Wilson suddenly shot twice with an automatic pistol she had taken from the lap of one of the seats. Wilson was acquitted in the Anthony case on the "unwritten law" plea by the jury after forty-five minutes' deliberation.

Wilson, who was thirty-five years old, gained considerable fame in the cattle country for his ability as a larist thrower. He was with the 101 Ranch Wild West Shows several years as chief of its cowboys, touring Europe and South America with that circus. According to friends, Mrs. Wilson is of Indian blood.

In Fredericton Mr. Windsor was entertained by the Fredericton Yacht Club and says that he had a splendid time. He left last night for Eastport.

"THE RIGHT OF WAY" PACKED THE IMPERIAL

Sir Gilbert Parker's Greatest Story Proves an Irresistible Attraction—Then Fatty Arbuckle Supplied the Laughs.

Imperial theatre had a summer line-up of patrons along King square last evening so eager were people to see the filmed version of the great Canadian story, "The Right of Way," written by Sir Gilbert Parker—who, by strange coincidence, is in town today with the British press party—and played by the Metro stars headed by Bert Lytell. Nobody was in the least disappointed. It was a delightful presentation. After the serious story no less personages than Fatty Arbuckle and Buster Keaton started roars of hilarity with their funniest of two-act farces entitled "The Garage." The same show at the Imperial for the remainder of the week.
