

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

TWO FINE BILLS AT THE OPERA HOUSE

The Opera House vaudeville bill for tonight offers Russell, Van and Sully in a snappy dancing act—steps, reels and jazz numbers; Robert and Knowles, in comedy songs, dances and chat; Jack Walsh, comedian and story teller; De Halde and Edwards in a class dancing offering; Earl and Bartlett in an uproarious comedy skit; and the serial, "The Tiger's Trail." This evening at 7:30 and 9, for the last time.

The regular change of bill opening tomorrow afternoon offers the famous Rington Dancers in a high class dance diversion; Eddie Badger, musical comedian; Homer Lind and Company, in a singing sketch; Octavo, the extraordinary double voice singer; Robinson and La Favor, comedy acrobats, and the serial, "The Man of Might." Tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

HOURS FOR "DADDY LONG LEGS"

First show in the afternoon starts at 2 o'clock with the Topics of the Day and Matt & Jeff cartoon to begin with, allowing the house to become seated before the big picture commences. "Daddy Long Legs" will start about 2:15. The second show in the afternoon will omit the opening reels and start at once with the feature at 3:45. In the evening the curtain-raiser reel, until 7:15, when "Daddy Long Legs" begins. As there are prospects of a great rush during the showing of this Mary Pickford photoplay intending patrons should be early and by all means attend the matinee if possible. Engagement will continue three days. The Imperial's usual prices will prevail, although this feature is commanding as high as $1.50 in Boston at present.

UNIQUE TONIGHT.

If you had been roped by a money-chasing mamma who intended to take her daughter away from you later, to live on the proceeds of the divorce with an aristocratic lounge lizard, if you loved the butterfly wife and your baby, whose grandmother had spirited it away, would you sell for your corbys as help find the baby, or would you send for the police? See what Harry Carey did in "Roped," at the Unique Theatre tonight.

TENDER GUMS

—A WARNING

Beware of gum tenderness that warns of pyorrhea. Four out of five people over forty have pyorrhea—many under forty also. Loosening teeth indicate pyorrhea. Bleeding gums, too. Remember—these indicate bleeding gums act as so many doorways for disease germs to enter the system—infected the joints or tonsils—causing other ailments.

Forhan's positively prevents pyorrhea, if used in time and used constantly. As it hardens the gums the teeth become firmer.

Brush your teeth with Forhan's. It cleans the teeth scientifically—keeps them white and clean.

If gum shrinkage has already set in, start using Forhan's and consult a dentist immediately for special treatment.

30c and 60c tubes. All Druggists.

A Ready Mind.

Gypsy Smith, noted evangelist, said on his recent voyage from Liverpool: "There are some men who can make a success even of failure. I thus there was a certain peer once who rose to make his maiden speech—a speech granting to all accused persons the right to counsel—and when he put his hand in his pocket for his notes, they weren't there. His notes were lost."

"The peer gulped. He looked about him wildly. He gulped again, and then he said: "If I, my lords, who now rise only to give my opinion on this bill—if I am so confounded that I am unable to express what I had in my mind, what must be the condition of that man who, with, out any assistance, has got to plead for his life."

"Then the peer sat down to the cheers of a converted chamber, and his bill passed almost unanimously."

After much reflection Beryl had composed her telegram and handed it through the window to the clerk. She tripped out, and the transaction seemed completed; but in a moment she returned to the window. The clerk wondered what she wanted this time.

"Let me have the telegram I wrote just now," she said. "I forgot something very important."

The clerk handed out the telegram. Whereupon Beryl added: "I want to underscore perfectly lovely to acknowledge the receipt of that present. Will it cost anything extra?"

"No, miss," said the clerk, with a grin; and, as Beryl drew two heavy lines beneath the words, she sighed with content.

"Thanks so much for letting me do that it will please Harold so much."

Two women who had not seen each other for many years, met unexpectedly in the street.

"How do you do?" exclaimed one enthusiastically.

"Now this is delightful!" said the other, who was Chatterbox. "You haven't seen me for eleven years, and yet you knew me at once! I cannot have changed so radically in all that time. It flatters me!"

"O! I recognized the hat," said the first.
