CURLING.

The Scottish Party.

Owing to their delay in reaching Halifax the Scottish curlers will not arrive in St. John until next Tuesday morning, instead of Saturday, as originally intended. Plans have been changed so that the friendly matches will be held on Wednesday.

The new schedule will be as follows: Leave Halifax for New Glasgow at 6.40 a.m. Friday, January 5, arriving at 11.20 a.m. Fourteen of the Scottish team will leave New Glasgow at 2.55 p.m. Saturday, January 6, for Truro, arriving at 5 p.m. The rest of the team will stay at New Glasgow over Sunday, leaving for Truro on Monday, January 8 at 4.25 a.m. They will play matches at Truro on Monday, arriving at 6.50 a.m. Thursday, January 11. Sixteen of the Scottish team will leave Quebec for Montreal at 11.45 p.m. Thursday, January 11, arriving at 6.50 a.m. on Friday, January 12. The remaining twelve will leave Quebec at 1.20 p.m. Friday, January 12 and arrive in Montreal at 6.20 p.m. The schedule, leaving Montreal and thereafter, will be as originally published.

The announcement of the entries for the test match between All New Brunswick versus Scotland was made last evening. Two representatives are entered from each club in the province affiliated with the Royal Canadian Curling Club and these entrants are: Thistles, J. S. Malcolm and F. A. McAndrews; Carleton, E. R. Taylor and H. L. Lingley; St. Andrews, Dr. J. M. Magee and J. L. Thomson; Hampton, F. Clighey and Charles Carter; Fredericton, A. S. McFarlane and E. A. McKay; St. Stephen, A. D. Ganong and A. C. The match committee was authorized to select the rink for the big test match after the following slips had been chosen: J. S. Malcolm, Dr. J. M. Magee, A. S. McFarlane, H. M. Wood, R. A. Snowball and N. J. Thibodeau. It is expected that the arrangement of the rink will be made by the latter part of this week.

Thistles Accept Two Challenges.

The members of the Thistle Curling Club held their regular meeting last evening in their club rooms in Golding street, with R. E. Crawford, president of the club, in the chair. A challenge was read from the St. Andrew's Curling Club for the usual series of three games. The challenge was accepted and the dates of the match will be arranged by the joint match committees of each club. Arrangements for the Carleton Club for the usual series of matches was also accepted and the

Sandwiches

Butter-Nut Bread cuts without crumbs into splendid sandwiches. A loaf of lettuce with chopped walnuts and a dash of mayonnaise is one treat you should try.

Dressing

When preparing chicken or turkey there's nothing superior to Butter-Nut Bread for filling. It is soggy like some bread.

Toast

Everybody knows who has tried it that the crispest, most delicious toast comes from a slice of Butter-Nut Bread. Try it anyway and you'll find Butter-Nut Bread is best. Your dealer can get it for you.

same arrangements were made. The following new members were elected to the club last night: George W. Noble, John Barbarie and Daniel O. Pirie.

SKATING.

International Meet.

A meeting of the central executive of the affiliated Rotary-Y. M. C. I. committees in charge of the skating meet was held yesterday afternoon and encouraging reports were received. W. K. Haley reported regarding the construction of the rink and the grandstands at Lily Lake. A small committee was appointed to secure a place to be used as the headquarters for the committee.

BASKETBALL.

Y. M. C. A. "Hi-Y" League.

The Y. M. C. A. holiday programme was resumed yesterday with two league basketball games in the "Hi-Y" league. The "Skeeters" defeated the "Fire-fliers" by a score of 18-5; and the "Fire-fliers" defeated the "Cottles" 22-9. Y. M. C. I. House League.

In the junior section of the House Basketball League at the Y. M. C. I. last evening the Young Judeans defeated the Ramblers 23 to 11 in a fast game. The teams lined up as follows:

Judeans.	Forwards.	Ramblers.
Goldman	.....	B. Chandler
Jacobson	.....	Kennedy
Tanzman	.....	Centre.
Lovett	.....	Doherty

HOCKEY.

Situation Unsettled.

A meeting of the representatives of the teams in the St. John Hockey League was held last evening in the St. John Law School rooms in Canterbury street. R. H. L. Skinner, president of the League, occupied the chair. Nothing definite was decided on at last night's meeting as plans are at a standstill, owing to the fact that the clubs feel that they cannot finance the league. It is not definitely known at present whether the local league will materialize.

Abegweit Defeat Crescents.

Halifax, Jan. 2.—The Abegweit hockey team, of Charlottetown, tonight defeated the Halifax Crescents in an exhibition game here by a score of 5 to 3 in a fast and clean game. The visitors had the better of the game from the start, their combination work puzzling the home team. Nearly 2,000 people witnessed the match.

St. Stephen Players Suspended.

A bulletin issued yesterday by A. W. Covey, president of the St. P. B. A. A. U. of C., gave notice that R. S. Vanstone, George Lowe, John Lowe, W. Blair Carson and Joseph R. Anderson, all members of the St. Stephen Hockey Club, have been suspended indefinitely pending an investigation. They are said to have been members of the St. Stephen profession baseball team. President Covey will go to St. Stephen Friday to hold his investigation.

Moncton Defeats Amherst.

The Moncton Victorias defeated the Amherst Independents in the opening match of the Independent Hockey League played in Moncton last evening by a score of 5 to 2. The game was fast and enjoyed by about 1,000 fans.

GOLF.

Interest Sweeping England.

London, Dec. 15.—(A. P. By Mail)—Britain is in the grip of the golf fever, if the number of new courses being constructed can be taken as an indication. There are at least thirty courses now being built, the largest number laid out in a single year since 1902 when the rubber-cored ball revolutionized the game. The courses are costing, on an average, $50,000. An innovation is found in courses especially designed for the use of elderly people and beginners, which are being installed by many of the English clubs.

BASEBALL.

Denies Sale of May.

Los Angeles, Jan. 3.—Jake May, southpaw pitcher of the Vernon Club, of the Pacific Coast League, has not been sold to the New York American League Club, as was announced here by Manager William Essick.

SKATING.

Gladys Robinson's at Newburgh.

Newburgh, N. Y., Jan. 3.—Gladys Robinson of Toronto, gave an exhibition here yesterday, skating 220 yards in 30 seconds, pleased by Roy J. Schwann, manager of the Morningside Skating Club, New York. Notwithstanding the withdrawal of the ladies' championship Miss Robinson said that she had come too far to be robbed of the opportunity of showing her skill.

HOCKEY.

A Fatality.

Montreal, Jan. 3.—Kicked in the eye with a skate while playing hockey here yesterday, Clifford Paul, 16 years of age, was taken to the hospital where he died in a few hours from shock and loss of blood.

Railway Station Burned.

Montreal, Jan. 3.—The Quebec-Montreal and Southern Counties Railway station at Centre-ville, forty miles from here on the South Shore of the St. Lawrence, was destroyed by fire last night; loss between $1,500 and $2,000, partly insured.
