Original Poetry.
[FOR THE "UNION ADVOCATE"]
In Memoriam.

Even when all of life remaining
Is the close of weary days,
And the frame strong is waning
And the mind is but a maze,
Dre and solemn, Death's cry sways,
Sad the woe sin must pay.

Death exerts a power most dread
Into death's dark night has sped
Yet an ancient post has
When the gods love, they die young.
Few her days—the flower-bud blooming
Fragile, withered soon away:
Gentle, kind and fair, illumined
With a bright and beautiful ray
From her own sweet nature wrought
Lesser charm that fortune brought.

Few her days—the flower-bud blooming
Fragile, withered soon away:
Gentle, kind and fair, illumined
With a bright and beautiful ray
From her own sweet nature wrought
Lesser charm that fortune brought.

Other Saviour's love we see
Free from world, the Truth has spoken,
That this world can never be
That in Him is found true peace
That in Heaven all trials cease.

Never sorrow heart here shadow,
Never in shadow's gloom,
Never light of death invade
Nor inhaled a mourner's sigh.
There the choir of angels bright
With the ransomed choir unite
Who adore the Lamb who bought them
With his own most precious blood
And from world of sin has brought them
To the city of God.

Selected Literature.
THE LION TAMER.

"That lioness will be the death of you, Joe."

"Pshaw!" said Joe Ambrily, "the lion tamer" of a large travelling circus, laughing at the prediction of his assistant.

"You may laugh as much as you please; but some day you will find your right, and that to your sorrow, though then it will be too late."

"I have performed with all the animals for some years, and never had any difficulty."

"You brought the one at Longtown?"

"That's what I brought, I soon brought them to subjection."

"But the trouble commences with this same lioness."

"Yes, though it wouldn't have been so bad if those cats of hunting leopards had not set up a yell and drawn the tiger into the affray."

"She has a bad temper when it is up—she most treacherous beat it over and had nothing to do with it. I have been watching her close for a couple of days," continued the assistant, "and know she is mighty cross grained. So depend upon it you are going to have trouble."

"I don't see why more than at any other time."

"There are times—and you know it, if you will only reflect—and this is one of them. If it was in your place, I wouldn't try to show off to-day with an extra, but just give a common performance, and get out of the cage as quickly as possible."

"You know what we advertise, and what a crowd has gathered."

"Yes," with a laugh, "and I know we never have or do one half there is in the bills. Paper is cheap, Joe, but human life is precious. Think how poorly off you would leave your wife and child if anything should happen to you, and what would become of your wife if anything should happen to the child?"
